SEDALIA DEMOCRAT-SENTINEL

THE TELEGRAPH SERVICE OF THE DEMOCRAT-SENTINEL IS BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.

Democrat Established 1868. Vol. XL. Sentinel Established 1880. Vol. XXVII. Consolidated 1907.

SEDALIA, MISSOURI, WEDNESDAY EVENING, AUGUST 5, 1908.

VOL. 2, NO. 186, PRICE FIVE CENTS

KANSAS CITY MAN LED ALL HIS COMPETITORS IN YESTERDAY'S PRIMARIES.

JOHNSON FOR THE LEGISLATURE

Lawson for Prosecuting Attorney Ran a Remarkable Race, Receiving the Larbest Number of Votes of Any Candidate.

Complete returns from the primaries in Pettis county could not be obtained today. the ballots of five precincts, Blackwater No. 1, Bowling Green, Green Ridge No. 2, Hughesville No. 2 and Lake Creek, being inaccessible. They are in the possession of the county court, and will not be opened until Friday, when they will be officially canvassed by that body.

Enough has been obtained, however, to make it certain that Mr. Cowherd carried the county over Ball by over 250, Wallace being third and Stapel fourth in the race. The latter's vote was even lighter than was anticipated. Mr. Wallace ran right up with Ball and surprised everyone by the great strength that he developed.

Anderson carries the county for lieutenant governor by a good safe majority.

Roach for secretary of state Long for auditor, Bronaugh for railroad commissioner, Graves for supreme judge and Hamlin for congress were also given good majorities over their opponents.

In the local races the precincts heard from have decided the results and none of them can be effected by the missing ones, the majorities being so strong that they cannot be overcome.

For representative—E. E. Johnston, 1132; M. V. Carroll, 856, giving Mr. Johnston a majority of 276.

For prosecuting attorney, Mr. Lawson ran a remarkable race, polling the largest number of votes of any one on the entire ticket and defeating his competitor, M. A. McGruder, by a majority of 811. Mr. Lawson's vote was 1410 to Mr. McGruder's 599.

For sheriff, Melville T. Henderson defeated James C. Conner by a majority of 141, and it is said by Mr. Henderson's friends that this will be increased to 250 when the full returns are in.

Clay R. Gorrell, for assessor, also polled a large vote, the second largest, having 1309 to 685 for David T. Hartshorn, a majority of 624.

In the contest in Sedalia township for constable, Thomas Gordon defeated C. M. Winner by a majority of 475, he having 750 to Winner's 275.

The democratic committeemen for Sedalia are as follows: First ward, Clem Honkomp, jr.; Second ward, J. M. Dobel; Third ward, W. H. Powell. Fourth ward, John W Menefee, jr.

The republicans are: First ward, George Williams; Second ward, F. W. Clark; Third ward, Peter Hays; Fourth ward, E. E. Codding.

GAVE A MORNING MUSICAL

Mrs. George F. Longan Was Hostess in Honor of Guests.

Mrs. George F. Longan was hostess this morning at a musical to the members of the Rocking Chair club, complimentary to her mother, Mrs. P. G. Walker, of Kansas City, and to the members of the local chapter of the D. A. R., complimentary to her cousin, Mrs. John R. Walker, of Kansas City.

The program was one of rare excellence, the musica lnumbers being given by Misses Agnes Scott Longan and Alice Brown, and the reading numbers by Mrs. H. A. Pratt and Miss Helen Norton, after which Mrs. Walker gave an interesting description of the last meeting of the D. A. R. in Washington, D. C.

The function was one of the most delightful of the season, and was greatly enjoyed by all so fortunate as to be present.

BRISTOW DEFEATS LONG

In Kansas an Outsider Will Take Seat in United States Senate.

Topeka, Aug. 5.—While the results of the primaries in Kansas can not be stated positively, early returns indicate the probable nomination of W R. Stubbs, of Lawrence, for governor on the republican ticket, over Leland, and naming Joseph L. Bristow, editor of the Salina Journal and former fourth assistant postmaster general, for United States senator over Senator Long.

Few democratic votes were cast, but the returns indicate that W. N. Ryan will be the party nominee for governor, and Hugh Farrelly the senatorial nominee.

Early returns indicate the nomination of all the present congressmen on the republican ticket.

Fined for Kicking a Minor.

A well known Sedalian, employed by a local corporation, was fined $1 and costs by Judge Rickman today for kicking Philip Braun, a minor. He paid.

COWHERD CARRIES STATE

REPORTS ARE THAT HE IS NOMINATED BY A MAJORITY OF 25.000.

RETURNS ARE SLOW COMING IN

City of St. Louis Gave a Plurality of Over 10,000 to the Man From Kansas City—Was Strong in the Cities.

Kansas City, Aug. 5.—Late returns from the primaries in Missouri indicate that Wm. S. Cowherd, of Kansas City, has been nominated by the democrats for governor, over David A. Ball and Judge William H. Wallace. Cowherd's nomination is claimed by a majority close to 25,000, but definite figures will not be obtainable until late today. Ball appears to have received a larger vote than Wallace.

Herbert S. Hadley, present attorney general, was the only candidate for governor on the republican ticket, and of course is nominated.

Cowherd's strength lay principally in the cities, and in St. Louis, Kansas City and St. Joseph he received good pluralities. Ball and Wallace showed the greatest strength in the farming districts.

The returns on the rest of the state democratic ticket indicate that the other nominees are W. R. Painter, of Carrollton, for lieutenant governor; Cornelius Roach, of Carthage, for secretary of state; John P. Gordon, of Lafayette county, for state auditor; W. W. Graves, of Butler, for judge of the supreme court, and John A. Knott, of Hannibal, for railroad and warehouse commissioner. There was no contest on the office of attorney general or state treasurer on the democratic side. The only contest worth while on the republican ticket was on the office of attorney general. Apparently Frank B. Fulkerson, of St. Joseph, has easily beaten North T. Gentry, of Columbia, for attorney general. W. W. Wilder is almost certainly the republican nominee for railroad and warehouse commissioner.

At Mr. Cowherd's headquarters here today, the latter's nomination was claimed by a safe majority, but the figures were not placed at over 15,000 plurality.

Carried St. Louis by 10,130.

St. Louis, Aug. 5.—Complete returns in the city of St. Louis give Cowherd a plurality of 10,130.

Cowherd 250 Over Ball.

Will Cotton, editor of the Windsor Review, came up today and says Cowherd carried Henry county by 25[illegible] over Ball.

AIR SHIP DESTROYED

Was Struck by Lightning and Entirely Consumed by Fire.

Stuttgart, Aug. 5.—It is reported here that Count Zeppelin's wonderful airship was completely destroyed by fire today. It burst into flames and an explosion followed. It is thought it was struck by lightning.

Several persons were injured. The count, however, is safe. The ship had landed near Echterdingen for repairs when its destruction occurred.

DYING IN CHICAGO

Intensely Hot Still in Chicago--Four Deaths Last Night.

Chicago, Aug. 5.—Today was again intensely hot here. Four deaths over night were reported. The temperature at 11 a. m. was 84 degrees in the shade.

VOTE FOR CONGRESSMEN

CHOICE OF REPUBLICANS AND DEMOCRATS IN SIXTEEN DISTRICTS.

MR. HAMLIN DEFEATS HASELTINE

Looks as if John Whitaker Has Defeated Edward Taubman for the Republican Nomination in Seventh District.

St. Louis, Aug. 5.—Latest returns from the various congressional districts of Missouri indicate the nomination of the following:

First district—James T. Lloyd, Shelbyville, democrat; Wilbur F. Chamberlain, Hannibal, republican.

Second district—William W. Rucker, Keytesville, democrat; Benjamin F. Beazell, Chillicothe, republican.

Third district—Joshua W. Alexander, Gallatin, democrat; Harry L. Eads, Chillicothe republican.

Fourth district—Charles F. Booher, Savannah, democrat; Morris A. Reed, St. Joseph, republican.

Sixth district—David A. DeArmond, Rich Hill, democrat; William O. Atkeson, Butler, republican.

Seventh district—Courtney W. Hamlin, Springfield, democrat; John Whitaker, Weaubleau, republican.

Eighth district—Dorsey W. Shackleford, Jefferson City, democrat; William C. Irwin, Jefferson City, republican.

Ninth district—Champ Clark, Bowling Green, democrat; Reuben F. Roy, New London, republican.

Tenth district—Frank A. Thompson, St. Louis, democrat; Richard Bartholdt, St. Louis, republican.

Eleventh district—Patrick F. Gill, St. Louis, democrat; William T. Findly, St. Louis, republican.

Twelfth district—Colin M. Selph, St. Louis, democrat; Harry M. Coudrey, St. Louis, republican.

Thirteenth district, Madison R. Smith, Farmington, democrat; Gilbert O. Nations, Farmington, republican.

Fourteenth district—Joseph J. Russell, Charleston, democrat; Charles A. Crow, Caruthersville, republican.

Fifteenth district—Thomas Hackney, Carthage, democrat; Charles H. Morgan, Joplin, republican.

Sixteenth district—Robert Lamar, Houston, democrat; Albert L. Reeves, Steelville, republican.

At the Home of Capt. and Mrs. John M. Glenn Tuesday Night.

The cream and cake social given last night at the home of Capt. and Mrs. John M. Glenn, 712 West Fifth street, for the benefit of the Central Presbyterian church, proved to be a most delightful affair.

The beautiful front lawn was illuminated with Chinese lanterns, as was also the yard in the rear, one of the prettiest in the city, where the tables were spread, and where carpets covered the pretty green sward to protect the grass.

Capt. and Mrs. Glenn, with their daughters and sons, extended a royal welcome to each and every visitor, and a truly delightful time was had by each guest, a number of whom were not members of Central church, but friends of Capt. and Mrs. Glenn and also of their pastor, the Rev. A. A. Boyd. About $25 was realized for the benefit of the church.

ROYAL WELCOME HOME

Was Extended to Mr. L. H. Archias at His Home Last Night.

Mr. L. H. Archias, who returned Tuesday morning, in company with his brother, J. C. Archias, of Denver, Colo., after an absence since May 30, touring portions of Europe, was given a delightful surprise at his pretty home on South Quincy avenue last night.

The function was arranged by Mr. Archias' esteemed wife, and not so much as an inkling did the head of the family have of what was contemplated.

During Mr. Archias' absence from home in the afternoon and early evening the place was beautifully decorated, both inside and out, Japanese lanterns and cut flowers being used, and the scene was most inviting.

Mrs. Archias had invited the priests of Sacred Heart church, Rev. Frs. Neiberg, Daniel and Stoltz, of which church Mr. Archias is one of the trustees, and also a number of members of the parish, together with a few outsiders, and when Mr. Archias returned home in the evening he found a large company of his old friends assembled to welcome him and express their pleasure at his safe return from his trip abroad.

Social converse and music made up the program of the evening, after which cream and cake were served. Truly was it a delightful homecoming for Mr. Archias, who is one of the city's most successful and popular business men.

WIFE FLED WITH A NEGRO

THE ELOPEMENT OF A RICH WOMAN AND CHAUFFEUR ENDS IN ARREST.

CASE THAT CAUSED A SENSATION

Philadelphia Police Arrest Mrs. Emily Wood, Wife of a New Jersey Physician and the Negro—Spent $1500 on Him.

Philadelphia, Aug. 5.—Mrs. Emily Wood, wife of Dr. Oran Alphonso Wood, a prominent physician of Magnolia, N. J., who disappeared from her home a few weeks ago, was arrested yesterday in a house occupied by negroes.

With her was Bernard Smith, a negro chaffeur employed by Dr. Wood, who disappeared with her The police charged her with having eloped with Smith.

The arrest was brought about by J. W. Tiley, a wealthy resident of St. George, Staten Island, who is Mrs. Wood's stepfather.

Mrs. Wood at first denied her identity and created a scene. Afterward she admitted she was Mrs. Wood. She had spent on the black man, the police say, $1,500 since their elopement, a little more than a month ago.

When taken before Magistrate Gallagher Mrs. Wood at first pleaded for secrecy, then she regained her nerve and told him "to go as far as he liked."

When Mrs. Wood left her home she took with her about $2,500 worth of jewelry, silverware, gold watches and other valuables, and a number of gold and jeweled medals she had won. She is an artist of considerable talent.

The negro had a bunch of pawn tickets calling for all this stuff. The sums loaned amounted to nearly $1,500, which, the negro afterwards admitted, had been spent by them.

A SECRET MARRIAGE

Mr. Frank F. Moerschel and Miss Minnie Taylor in Chicago.

Frank F. Moerschel, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Andy Moerschel, and Miss Minnie Taylor, a popular and well-liked young lady of this city, were secretly married at Chicago last night, and will leave shortly for Jamestown, Wis. to make their home, Mr. Moerschel having been tendered a good position at that place.

The news of the wedding will come as a surprise to the many friends of the contracting parties, who had not the slightest intimation of such a step being taken.

Mr. Moerschel is popular with every acquaintance in this city, while his bride during her residence in Sedalia made hosts of friends, all of whom will join in extending congratulations.

SUBJEBT OF HIS SPEECH

Mr. Bryan Tells What He Will Discuss in His Acceptance Talk.

Lincoln, Aug. 5.—Mr. Bryan today outlined the subjects he will discuss in his forthcoming speech of acceptance. He said the speech will be confined practically to the questions, "Shall the People Rule," and "The Measure of Rewards." The guaranty of bank deposits, tariff and trusts will be treated in the several other speeches he will make within the next thirty days.

CONDUCT WAS IMMORAL

THIS IS THE CHARGE BROUGHT AGAINST REV. O. D. MAPLE, FORMERLY OF MARION.

Washington, Aug. 5.—Rev. O. D. Maple, who recently lost his place as temporary pastor of the Thirty-fourth Street Christian church, Mt. Rainer, Prince George county Maryland, adjacent to the District of Columbia line, as the result of an investigation by the executive board of the church as to his past ecclesiastical record, lectured to 200 persons in that suburb, his subject being, "Hunting for Hypocrites."

Mr. Maple said the executive board of the Mt. Rainer church received two communication from Marion, O., where he previously preached, reflecting on his moral standing.

He declared that the trouble in this church was a financial one altogether, and that the charge that he left the community owing a grocery bill was true, but that the members of the congregation, who were indebted to him for back pay, had promised to settle the amount.

Referring to the charge that he had remained in an Indianapolis hotel with a married woman, he declared that he had a letter from the proprietor of the hotel which would exonerate him from any wrong doing. He did not read the letter.

Referring to an unfavorable letter received by the executive board of the Mt. Rainer church from Rev. Byron C. Platt, present pastor of the church at Marion, O., he said that in a few days he would be in Platt's neighborhood, and intimated he would make the Marion divine retract what he had said about him.

He referred to the members of the executive board of the local church as the "holier-than-thou crowd," and declared that in their so-called investigation they had considered him guilty before he had proved his innocence, a position contrary to principles of fairness and justice.

FELL AND BROKE HIS LEG

Henry Bauer, Who Is Here From Kansas City on a Visit.

Henry Bauer, a former Sedalian, but now of Kansas City, 70 years of age last February, who is here on a visit to his daughter Mrs. Chris S. Yost, of West Seventh street slipped and fell in the alley between the Bard store and the Guenther store, on Ohio avenue, at 8 o'clock last night, and fractured his right leg just above the ankle.

The injured man was removed to the home of his daughter, where Dr. Cole reduced the fracture, and this afternoon he is getting along splendidly.

GORE AGAIN NOMINATED

Blind Senator Again Chosen as His Party's Candidate.

Guthrie, Okla., Aug. 4.— United States Senator Thomas P. Gore, democrat, and Dennis T. Flynn, republican, of Oklahoma, had no opposition in their parties for the nomination for senator to succeed Senator Gore.

The principal interest in the congressional contests was in the First district. There reports indicate that Congressman Bird S. McGuire received an overwhelming majority over Judge Bayard T. Hales, of Perry, for the republican nomination. Definite figures may not be forthcoming before the end of the week.

STILL HIDES FROM SUITOR

Girl Embarrassed by Persistence of Unwelcome Lover.

Chicago, Aug. 5.—Miss Rose Ford, who went to New York last week to avoid the attentions of a persistent suitor, returned Monday to her parents here, but on the advice of her father, who has followed the movements of Richard Frederick, the suitor, she hid herself again to avoid the young man, who claims she is his fiance.

Frederick is still in New York, where he pursued Miss Ford last week when he discovered her whereabouts. Frederick recently resigned his position in order to conduct his personal search for Miss Ford.

Resigned as Operator Here.

Herbert Chaney, son of J. H. Chaney, resigned last night as chief operator in the office of the Western Union Telegraph Co., and will go west, probably to Arizona or New Mexico, in either of which territories a good position awaits him.

"Herb" is succeeded here by Harry Gibbons, a brother of Manager Frank E. Gibbons, a first-class man, who came here from Fort Scott, and who entered upon his duties today.

ANNIVERSARY OF CABLE

IT WAS COMPLETED ACROSS ATLANTIC OCEAN IN THE YEAR 1858.

WAS BEGUN AT VALENTIA, IRELAND

The Original Promoters Were Americans, Including Peter Cooper, Prof. S. F. B. Morse, Cyrus Field and Others.

Valentia, Ireland, Aug. 5.—Leading men of Ireland and England joined today in celebrating the semi-centennial of the completion of the first Atlantic cable in 1858, the laying of which was commenced on Aug. 5 of the previous year.

The work was commenced at this point, although the original promoters were Americans, including Peter Cooper, Prof. S. F. B. Morse, Cyrus Field and others.

The vessels employed to lay the cable were the Niagara and Susquehannah of the United States navy, and the British vessels Leopard and Agamemnon. After sailing a few miles the cable snapped. This was soon repaired, but on Aug. 11, after 300 miles of the wire had been laid out, it snapped again, and the vessels returned to Plymouth. In June of the following year a second attempt failed through a violent storm. The third voyage was successful. Junction of the two continents was completed by 2,050 miles of wire, from Ireland to New Foundland, on Aug. 5, 1858. The first two messages were from Queen Victoria to President Buchanan and his reply.

A MISSOURI DOCTOR KILLED

In a Runaway Lester G. Gates, of Jerico Springs, Perished.

Nevada, Mo., Aug. 5.—Word has just been received that Dr. Lester G. Gates, of Jerico Springs, was found dead at the bottom of a steep hill near Jerico Springs yesterday.

The doctor's team ran away and threw him out. His neck was broken. Dr. Gates had been a practicing physician about seventeen years at Jerico Springs.

WON'T RUN AS INDEPENDENT

Hughes Sets at Rest Rumors That He Might Bolt.

Saranac Inn, N. Y., Aug. 5.—In a statement last evening, Governor Hughes announces that there is no foundation for the reports that he might run as an independent candidate for governor in case he is not renominated by the republican state convention, which is to be held next month at Saratoga.

Landed at Liverpool Today.

Miss Frances Collins, sister of Lawyer W. A. Collins, and Miss Stella Clingan, of Belt, Mont., en route for a six weeks' tour of England and France at the expense of the Great Falls, Mont., Leader, arrived at Liverpool today, according to a cablegram received by relatives here. The ladies sailed from America on July 25.

Coming After Fugitive.

An officer from Ashland, Ala., will likely arrive in Sedalia tonight to assume charge of Silas Forman, a negro, who is wanted at that point for breaking a labor contract, following conviction for assault and battery, and who was arrested by the local police. Forman is now lodged in jail.

IS SHE TO MARRY AGAIN?

REMARKABLE MATRIMONIAL EXPERIENCE OF A PRETTY GRASS WIDOW.

SHE HAS WED MAN FIVE TIMES

Rumor Has It That She Will Give Him the Fifth Trial—Daughter of Amos J. Snell Who Was Killed in Chicago.

Chicago, Aug. 5.—Is Mrs. Grace Snell- Coffin- Walker- Coffin-Coffin-Lyman-Coffin-Love again to become Mrs. Coffin for the fifth time? Friends of the much divorced woman are confident that such is the case. Mrs. Grace Snell, et cetera, recently secured a divorce from her last husband, Hugh M. Love, and it is reported on good authority that Frank Nixon Coffin, undaunted by former matrimonial infelicities, is now paying ardent court to the beautiful grass widow.

Grace Snell's last appearance in the divorce court was in Los Angeles, where she appeared against Hugh M. Love, once a newspaper man, but now an attache of the health office in the City of Angels.

Terrible charges were made against the former scribe, among them that he wore pink pajamas in the drawing room when his wife was entertaining friends; that he smoked a strong pipe in the parlor and expectorated in the fire, and similar brutal cruelties.

Grace Snell is the daughter of Amos J. Snell, of Chicago, whose murder years ago has remained a great mystery. Grace, who inherited much wealth on the death of her father, was married in 1885 to Frank Nixon Coffin. They lived together for nine years, and Mrs. Coffin then got a divorce on the ground of incompatability.

She then married James C. Walker, a Chicago hotel clerk. She got a divorce two years later for cruelty. She remarried Coffin and got a second divorce, alleging intoxication. In 1901, upon the death of their son, the couple were reconciled and married again. She left him the same day and the next day sued for divorce, on the ground of non-support, Coffin making no protest.

Mrs. Coffin then married Perkins A. Lyman, divorced him and again married Coffin, that making four marriages with her first husband. She soon tired of him, however, divorced him again and married Love.

STABBED THE SULTAN

But Coat of Mail Which Ruler Wears Saved His Life.

London, Aug. 5.—A special dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph company from Geneva says: "The Sultan of Turkey was stabbed in the breast Monday by a minor palace official, but the coat of mail which the sultan always wears deflected the blow. The would-be assassin was arrested. It is believed he was bribed to commit the act.

BIG STRIKE STARTED

Eight Thousand Men Quit Their Work in Canada Today.

Winnipeg, Man., Aug. 8.—The biggest labor dispute which the industrial history of Canada has known culminated here today in the form of a general strike of the employes of the mechanical departments of the Canadian Pacific railroad, from the Atlantic to the Pacific coast. Some 8,000 men quit work by the decision of the conciliation board.

TROOPS LOST IN MOUNTAINS

Feared That Soldiers Have Lost Their Way En Route to Camp.

Camp Emmett Crawford, Wyo., Aug. 5.—A report is current in the camp today that the troops from the Fifth cavalry, which were expected to arrive in the camp yesterday, are lost in the mountains. Scouts will probably be sent to their rescue.

Wed by Rev. Downing.

Thomas Tuggle, colored, of St. Louis, and Mattie Jones, of this city, were married by Rev. J. H. Downing Tuesday.

The Weather Report.

Generally fair tonight and Thursday.

For President,
WILLIAM J. BRYAN, of Nebraska.
For Vice President,
JOHN W. KERN, of Indiana.

SELF CONGRATULATIONS.

The outcome of yesterday's primary election on the part of the democratic party is very pleasing to the Democrat-Sentinel, the result of the contest for the gubernatorial nomination being extremely gratifying, especially so in Pettis county, where this paper has so many friends and enjoys so large a circulation.

The Democrat-Sentinel was the first paper in the state to call attention to Mr. Cowherd's splendid equipment for the high office of chief executive of Missouri, and to insist that he enter the race, and it was in its columns that Mr. Cowherd made the first announcement of his candidacy.

Since then the paper has persistently advocated his nomination, doing all in its power to bring the people to a full realization of his fitness for the place. That its judgment has been vindicated at the polls is good cause for gratification.

There is still another cause for self-congratulation: The Oracle who holds the curb at the corner of Third and Ohio streets had given it out flat that the Hon. David A. Ball, of Pike, would certainly be the nominee for governor, and that he would sweep all before him in Pettis county, and that the day after the primary The Oracle would do dreadful things to the Democrat-Sentinel.

Believing that when The Oracle spoke, things would happen as he predicted, orders had been given to the paper's entire force, in the editorial, reportorial and business offices, to appear at their desks Wednesday morning clad either in blotting paper or rain coats, and as it is pretty warm weather for these garbs, it is surely a matter of self-congratulation that The Oracle missed his guess and thus made the donning of them unnecessary.

WILL BE A MEMORABLE CAMPAIGN.

With the establishment by the republicans and democrats of eastern headquarters in New York City, and preparations going forward for opening the main headquarters in Chicago, the national campaign to which the country has been looking forward to the last four years is at hand. All indications now are that the presidential contest will be fought out and decided in the central west; in other words, those in the Ohio valley and the states as far west as the Rockies. Activities in the east, while no less energetic, will be secondary to and determined largely by developments in the west. The old slogan that "as New York goes" so will the country go, will not be heard in this election. True, the Empire state will be an important factor in determining the result, and both parties will put forth their best efforts to carry it, but it is not regarded as the hinge upon which the contest will swing.

Indiana will be the scene of probably the most streuous fighting in the western battle ground. It is a close state and its electoral vote will have an important effect upon the result. Ohio, Illinois, Iowa, Kansas and Colorado will be hotly contested, and the real campaign of the generals stationed in Chicago probably will be compassed within this and the Hoosier territory.

Democrats enter the campaign with greater confidence and under more favorable conditions than have marked any campaign since that of 1896. In fact, they have this advantage over the great free silver campaign: The party is completely reunited and harmonious. Evidence in abundance already shows that there is a widespread awakening of democrats, characterized by genuine enthusiasm and the most energetic activity in behalf of the party and its national ticket. For the first time in twelve years the republican party is on the defensive, and here again the democrats are placed in a favorable position. The republicans are committed to a stand-pat, reactionary policy, while the democrats have become the constructive, progressive, liberal party. Indications point strongly to general sentiment favoring a change. The campaign will be full of interest and promises to be one of the memorable presidential contests.

DON'T WORRY.

A news item told of a woman who died in Chicago at the age of 107, who never worried a day in her life. She attributed her excellent health and longevity to a resolution made early in life, when a girl in Poland, that she would never worry, and which she kept, though the course of her life lay through the turbulent scenes of war, pestilence and death.

There is a great lesson in the simple rule by which this woman lived and died. The world is filled with men and women who are constantly worrying and fretting, and with what result? None, except to increase the income of the doctor and the undertaker, and to fill the hospitals for the insane and the cemeteries. Ask any physician what causes the majority of mental breakdowns and most of the cases of nervous troubles, and he will tell you that it is worry—the broad term for mental agitations of one form or another which sap vitality and strength.

The human constitution was not designed by nature to stand the strain of worry, and the man who fumes and frets and makes a heavy mental load of his responsibilities is sure to break it in time. Some people blame work for their ills, but work never hurt anybody. On the contrary, it keeps men and women alive. Overwork, though, is quite another matter, and the overworkers are generally the fretters. One leads to the other.

Avoidance of worry does not mean we are to "take life easy" in an active sense. It does not mean that a man should refuse to take his work or anything else seriously. It does not mean that he should view with unconcern or treat lightly any of his problems. It does mean, however, that he should not worry and stew over them after he has applied to their solution his best efforts. It means he should not take them to bed with him to disturb sleep and recuperation, or mingle them with his recreations and mar the joys of living.

Therefore, if you have something to do, do it, and with your whole energy. And when you have done all you can do, don't worry about the result. All the fretting and mental apprehension in the world will have no effect upon the outcome. Dismiss the matter from your mind until you learn the result, and if your effort has failed in whole or in part, tackle the thing again, or, if there is a finality to the matter, drop it for good and all; at least, don't worry over the disappointment or fret at what might have been.

Worry always deals with something beyond your control, and it is always a useless, harmful and wasteful drain upon the resources of the mind and body.

We are traveling a fast pace in his age. We need all our strength and vitality with which to meet the speed demanded. The person who can keep up with the procession must not worry.

THIS MAN WANTS $500

If He Does Not Get It Will Be Obliged to Kill Himself.

"PERSONAL—Father of eight children, to be not obliged to kill himself, needs $500, giving it back $5 weekly, sure."

Chicago, Aug. 5.—The foregoing "want ad" was inserted in a morning newspaper yesterday.

The money is needed to repay his employers a sum he says he lost four months ago. He has not told them of the loss.

The man is an Italian, and working for a Chicago concern. He declared yesterday that he had not told his employers of the loss of their money, lest they would report to the company with which he is bonded, and that he be sent to prison.

An effort is being made to collect a sufficient sum to prevent the man's suicde.

TAFT FOLLOWED BRYAN

IN THE MATTER OF "CANNED" ADDRESSES FOR COMING CAMPAIGN.

NEBRASKAN CRIES INFRINGEMENT

An Ohio Man Called Upon Mr. Bryan and Urged That He Address a Personal Letter to Voters in Doubtful States.

Fairview, Lincoln, Neb., Aug. 5.—The use of the phonograph by Candidate Taft as a means for the dissemination of his speeches, as reported in the dispatches from Hot Springs, Va., excited the liveliest interest of William J. Bryan, so much so, that he gave out the following statement in regard to it:

"The republican papers have been making fun of me for using the phonograph as a means of reaching the public, but since the republican candidate has followed the example, I presume that the criticism will cease and that this will now be regarded as a dignified method of discussing public questions.

"It looks as if the democrats are going to have a hard time this year protecting their patents from infringement. The republicans seem bent upon imitating not only our platform, but our campaign methods. There is, however, some advantage in the fact that we are setting the pattern this year."

Among Mr. Bryan's early callers was Edgar C. Schmidt, of Dayton, O., who called at the request of Harvey C. Garber, national committeeman from Ohio, in reference to a plan to reach the voters in the doubtful states with a series of typewritten letters. Mr. Bryan thought well of the proposition.

Mr. Bryan was very much pleased over the decision of Secretary of State Junkin confirming the fusion arranged last spring by the democrats and the people's party.

ARSENIC IN THE STOMACH

Theory of Father O'Callaghan in Billik Case Strengthened.

Chicago, Aug. 5.—An examination of the stomach of Henry Niemann, whose body was exhumed a week ago at the instigation of the Rev. Fr. P. J. O'Callaghan and other friends of Herman Billik, convicted of the murder of five members of the Vrzal family, has revealed the presence of arsenic.

It is the theory of Fr. O'Callaghan that Billik is innocent of poisoning the Vrzal family. Previous to the examination of the Nieman body he said that in the event the poison was discovered, he would insist on the indictment of a woman connected with the Vrzal and Niemann families.

This theory is opposed by the members of the state's attorney's office and by the coroner's assistants. It is said that the undertaker who prepared Niemann's body for burial admitted several days ago that he used arsenic in embalming the remains. More recently he has said that arsenic was not used by him at that time.

Representatives of the state's attorney say that the finding of arsenic does not prove that the woman is guilty, as it is known that Billik visited at the Niemann home many times.

Niemann died three years ago this month. Acording to the physician who attended him, his death resulted from natural causes.

Emma Vrzal went to the farm, where she remained as the wife of William Niemann, the son of the man who died. The death of the Vrzal family occurred in 1906 and 1907. Dr. E. C. Riebel, who made the examination of Nieman's stomach, reported yesterday to Coroner Matter, of Du Page county, and the inquest was set for this evening at Wheaton.

Forgetfulness of Man Prevents Elopement With Girl.

Chicago, Aug. 5.—William Meyers attempted to elope with Lillian, the 15-year-old daughter of Mrs. Theresa Vaid, yesterday, but made the mistake of leaving the railroad tickets in his room, when he returned for them detectives placed him under arrest.

Mrs. Vaid rents furnished rooms and among her regular patrons was Meyers. Some weeks ago Meyers began paying attention to the young daughter of his landlady. The mother objected because of the girl's age. Meyers' persisted and was ordered from the house. He declined to move.

Yesterday Mrs. Vaid had some business down town, and in order to keep her daughter from seeing Meyers locked her in a room and took the key with her. Myers procured a ladder and assisted the girl through a transom, then they left the house intending to go to Michigan last night. In the meantime, Mrs. Vaid returned, and finding her daughter had escaped, reported the matter to the police. When Meyers returned for the tickets he was arrested.

MOTHER TORTURES CHILD

Sets Fire to 4-Year-Old to Make Her Confess to Theft.

Cleveland, O., Aug. 5. —Confessing that she had bound the hands of her 4-year-old child with oil soaked rags and set them afire, Mrs. Helen Nagy was yesterday sentenced to serve three months in the workhouse and pay a fine of $50 and costs.

The mother, with a three-weeks-old baby in her arms, stated in court that she had suspected the elder child of stealing the last quarter they had in the house for household expenses, and hunger and desperation had caused her to endeavor to make the child confess by this punishment. Neighbors rescued the child before she was badly burned.

BANK CLERK SLAYS HIMSELF

Found in Basement Vault With Bullet in His Head.

New York, Aug. 5.—Charles W. Westerfeld, aged 22, a clerk in the Produce Exchange bank, at 10 Broadway, shot and killed himself in the basement of the bank yesterday.

No reason is known for Westerfeld's act. He was an assistant bookkeeper, and had occasion to go to a vault yesterday where books are kept. Some time later another clerk found him lying dead in the vault, with a bullet wound in the temple. An investigation of Westerfeld's accounts was begun at once.

MURDER STILL MYSTERY

AUTHORITIES AT CARTHAGE, MO., NOW WORKING ON NEW THEORY.

Until She Is Found Officials Say Motive for Crime Can't Be Fixed —The Police Are Greatly Puzzled Over Case.

Carthage, Mo., Aug. 5.—The authorities have been baffled in all attempts to find the missing 16-year-old girl who is wanted in connection with the attempt to solve the mystery of the murder of Dr. Lawrence E. Whitney. They are investigating reports that she is secreted at the home of a relative a few miles from the scene of the murder. Another report is that she is in St. Joseph.

The original theory that Dr. Whitney was attacked on the lonely country road where his body was found has been abandoned. It is now the belief of the officers that he was slain within a house where he had been summoned, and that he was taken in his own buggy to the place where he was found and the body carefully placed under the wheels to give the appearance that he was killed by falling from the buggy.

In support of this theory the officers point to the fact that his medicine case and hat were missing when the body was found, and that several hours after his body was removed both case and hat were found lying in plain view in the road, where dozens of persons had been searching for them. There was no dirt on the hat, indicating to the officers that it had been carried to the road and that it had not fallen from Dr. Whitney's head.

Sheriff W. B. Parker and the Rev. Mr. O'Merara, rector of the Episcopal church of Carthage, who was a friend of Dr. Whitney and who has been untiring in his efforts to trace the murderer, drove Dr. Whitney's horse over the road he traveled on the fatal night.

The horse, given loose rein, started to enter a lane leading to a farm house, indicating the officers say, that the horse had been accustomed to being driven there. Persons living in the house deny that Dr. Whitney ever called there professionally or socially, and say they did not even know him.

The officers are frank to admit that they have no conclusive evidence against any person, and that unless the missing girl is found the motive for the murder will be lacking and their work will have been in vain. Sheriff Parker said today that he did not expect to have any evidence to warrant an arrest for at least a week.

It is expected that the officers will give closer attention to the murder case after today, as the primary is now over. They were candidates for re election and devoted much of their time to political affairs.

A number of leading citizens of Carthage have subscribed to a fund to be used in employing a detective to work on the mystery, in the hope of apprehending the murderer.

GET RID OF THE FLIES

Wives Should Begin Crusade Against Them Without Delay.

Milwaukee, Wis., Aug. 5.— The house fly is to us what the wild beasts are to the residents of Africa and India, declares Charles C. Grafton, Episcopal bishop of Fon du Lac.

"As God put men into the world to subdue it, it is part of his duty to put out of existence those who are his enemies in the propagation of disease," he said. "I have known some persons who objected to killing flies because of their natural kindness to animals, but the true character of the fly has only lately been known.

"The housewives of the country should enter into a crusade against flies."

HOT WEATHER HORSE SENSE

Suggestions Regarding the Care of Equines.

The Sedalia Humane society requests the Democrat-Sentinel to reproduce the following from the Humane Advocate:

The season of hot weather is here, when conditions are hard for all creatures that toil. The horse, perhaps, more than any other laborer, is a victim of the hardships imposed by hot weather.

In order to make the conditions under which he works as favorable and comfortable as may be:

Provide him with a clean, well ventilated stable.

See that he has a good fly net for street wear and a sheet blanket for protection from flies while standing in the barn.

When hauling heavy loads over city streets or on dusty roads, let him rest in the shade occasionally and water him often. Do not through the fear of giving him too much water go to the opposite extreme and stint him to a cruel extent.

Drive him at a moderate, steady gait and avoid any spurts of speed.

Sponge him off with cold water when he comes back to the barn, removing all sweat and harness marks. Give him a carrot or an apple, a friendly pat and a word of appreciation.

STRANGE CROPS GROWN

ACCORDING TO RURAL CORRESPONDENTS OF PENNSYLVANIA PAPERS.

PERFECTED A SUCCOTASH PLANT

By Crossing Sugar Corn With Beans —A Buttered Potato Produced By Crossing Irish Potato and Butter Bean.

Philadelphia, Aug. 5.—Crop reports from over the state indicate that Pennsylvania farmers will accomplish some remarkable feats during the present year, if the rural correspondents of the Philadelphia papers are to be believed. Stories are coming in by the dozens regarding the products of Pennsylvania disciples of Luther Burbank, and in many instances the "plant wizard" of California is hopelessly distanced.

From Wilkes-Barre comes the veracious story of a wise agriculturist who has perfected a succotash plant by crossing sugar corn with beans. The resulting plant is said to afford a remarkaby fine quality of succotash.

Another Burbank, residing in Rising Sun, has taken the lemon tree, the soda bush and the rye plant, crossed them in a scientific manner, and produced a cross between a tree and a bush on which grows the finest quality of rye highballs.

Abraham Sell—the name, it is hoped, has no special significance—is a corn farmer and has so improved his own private brand of corn that the stalks have been growing so rapidly that the noise they make resembles a battle. Several persons residing in the vicinity of Sell's field have been driven almost to distraction and threats have been made to have Sell arrested for disturbing the peace, until he succeeded in perfecting a mechanical device which prevents the corn from growing at night, thus allowing the neighbors to sleep.

Less startling but equally wonderful is the story that comes from a truthful correspondent at Morphy's Cross Roads, where John Slavin has crossed the common Irish potato of commerce with the butter bean and thus produced a buttered potato. At Coatesville, it is reported that an investigating agriculturist has effected a cross between ordinary oats and the burning bush, thus growing oats already cooked. Next year he will attempt to graft the milk weed, to the end that the morning dish of cereal may be ready for the eating.

Many other stories of remarkable agricultural and horticultural experiments have been sent to Philadelphia papers by rural reporters, but some of them appear to be slightly exaggerated and the careful news editors of the Quaker City will refrain from giving them publicity until the facts have been carefully ascertained.

Weak Kidneys

Weak Kidneys, surely point to weak kidney Nerves. The Kidneys, like the Heart, and the Stomach, find their weakness, not in the organ itself, but in the nerves that control and guide and strengthen them. Dr. Shoop's Restorative is a medicine specifically prepared to reach these controlling nerves. To doctor the Kidneys alone, is futile. It is a waste of time, and of money as well.

If your back aches or is weak, if the urine scalds, or is dark and strong, if you have symptoms of Brights or other distressing or dangerous kidney disease, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative a month—Tablets or Liquid—and see what it can and will do for you. Druggist recommend and sell

FLAMES NEAR STATE CAPITOL

Two Buildings Burn at Jefferson City and Others Damaged.

Jefferson City, Aug. 5.—Two business houses on High street, situated within a block of the postoffice, and two blocks from the state capitol, burned yesterday.

Two other business houses were so badly damaged that they probably will have to be wrecked, and another business house was badly damaged. Half a dozen other buildings were damaged by water.

The two buildings destroyed were the property of the John G. Schott estate. Of those badly damaged, one belonged to the J. R. Lamkin estate, and the other to A. J. Bauer and George Peasner.

The fire started shortly after 1 o'clock yesterday morning. Only the most effective work on the part of the fire department saved half of the block. The losses are estimated at $30,000.

Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Hunter, of Houstonia, who are taking treatment at the Dr. Camp Medical Co., were in the city yesterday.

Chicago, Aug. 5.—William Becker, a postoffice wagon driver, yesterday found a $50,000 certified check in the driveway beneath the federal building, and as a reward for his honesty in returning it to its owner, received a nice, crisp $2 bill.

The check was from the Cudahy Packing company and was made payable to the La Salle Oil company. A bank messenger on his way to make a deposit in the sub-treasury dropped the valuable piece of paper in the driveway and returned to the bank without discovering the loss.

WE'RE GOING AWAY.

We're going away to the quiet land,
For we hear the glad voice of the stream
Calling us back from the tired world
To summer's elysian dream.
We'll follow the paths of the wild wood deep—
We care not how far we stray
Through the tangled growth of forests green,
For we're tired and we're going away.

We're going away to the mountain land,
For the breath of the mountain air
Is wooing us back from the toil and heat
To the heights, so calm, so fair.
We'll climb the paths where the laurel blooms,
And drink in the breeze all the day,
We'll leave the dull world with never a sigh,
For we're tired and we're going away.

We're going away to the meadowland,
For the light of our childhood hours
Is leading us back through the lapse of years
To the land of sweet wild flowers.
We'll sink to rest in the soft, deep grass,
And dream we're again at play;
And we'll give not a care to the ills of life,

MISSOURIAN HURT IN PARADE

Horse Throws St. Joseph Man in Pythian Procession.

Boston, Mass., Aug. 5.—Ten thousand members of the Uniform Rank, Knights of Pythias, resplendent in their uniforms and led by bands playing martial airs, last afternoon marched through the streets of Boston. As the line moved into the down-town business section, banners were flying from almost every office building, while many places were decked in Pythian colors.

The parade was composed of twenty-five brigades of Pythians from every section of the country, as well as from Canada. Capt. George Begole, commander of Troop Forty-three of the Huzzars of St. Joseph, Mo., was not a participant in the parade yesterday afternoon. He fell from his horse at Camp Lyon before the brigade left for the parade and was severely injured. He had swung his horse at the head of the Huzzars, when the brute reared and threw him. Internal injuries are feared.

The supreme temple, Pythias Sisters, opened their tenth biennial meeting today at the Hotel Brunswick. At noon the supreme lodge opened the convention. An elaborate parade took place this morning.

CLOUDBURST IN BISBEE

WATER LOOSENS ROCKS ON THE MOUNTAIN SIDE, CAUSING LANDSLIDE.

POSTOFFICE IS BADLY WRECKED

Many Residences Destroyed and Others Flooded—Several Mexicans Reported Dead by Press Dispatches.

El Paso, Texas, Aug. 5.—A cloudburst last afternoon did great damage to the town of Bisbee, Ariz., the metropolis of the Warren mining district, a town of 25,000 people.

Bisbee is situated on the sides of two canyons, Brewery Gulch and Tombstone Canyon, they are called, and every flood that comes down does heavy damage, but yesterday's flood was the worst in history.

The landslide that accompanied the cloudburst, which occurred on one of the mountains above the town, crushed in the side of the postoffice, a two-story structure; covered many sacks of mail and injured several of the employes, but none of them fatally.

The wall of dirt covering the partly wrecked structure then backed up the water, and when it ran over it was to flood the library in the second story of the postoffice, and also filled many business houses several feet deep with mud and water.

Many frail residences were swept from the side of the mountain completely, and it is reported that several Mexicans are missing, in some instances whole families, who live in the gulches and in the mountains in the path of the flood.

Do You Think For Yourself?

Or, do you open your mouth like a young bird and gulp down whatever food or medicine may be offered you?

If you are an intelligent thinking woman, in need of relief from weakness, nervousness, pain and suffering, then it means much to you that there is one tried and true honest medicine OF KNOWN COMPOSITION, sold by druggists for the cure of woman's ills.

The makers of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, for the cure of weak, nervous, run-down, over-worked, debilitated, pain-racked women, knowing this medicine to be made up of ingredients, every one of which has the strongest possible indorsement of the leading and standard authorities of the several schools of practice, are perfectly willing, and in fact, are only too glad to print, as they do, the formula, or list of ingredients, of which it is composed, in plain English, on every bottle-wrapper.

The formula of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will bear the most critical examination of medical experts, for it contains no alcohol, narcotics, harmful, or habit-forming drugs, and no agent enters into it that is not highly recommended by the most advanced and leading medical teachers and authorities of their several schools of practice. These authorities recommend the ingredients of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for the cure of exactly the same ailments for which this world-famed medicine is advised.

No other medicine for woman's ills has any such professional endorsement as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has received, in the unqualified recommendation of each of its several ingredients by scores of leading medical men of all the schools of practice. Is such an endorsement not worthy of your consideration?

LOST LOVE OF HUSBAND

BECAUSE OF THIS FACT WIFE IN PENNSYLVANIA SUES FOR $30,000.00.

SPOUSE IS MINISTER OF GOSPEL

The Defendant Is a Widow, Who Does Not Care for Divine's Affections, But Desires Them For Two Nieces.

Spring City, Pa., Aug. 5.—A pathetic domestic story was sprung upon the public yesterday by the filing at Westchester of a $30,000 suit for the alleged alienation of a minister's affections.

The plaintiff is Martha, the wife of Rev. Maurice Samson, pastor of the First Reformed church of this place, and she sues wealthy Mrs. Mary E. Keeley, the 62-year-old widow of O. B. Keeley, the well-known stove manufacturer.

Mrs. Samson alleges that the widow has alienated the affections of her husband, not for Mrs. Keeley's own particular benefit, since there is a great disparity between her age and that of the young pastor, but for two wealthy nieces, and because, as the resentful wife avers, her husband dotes on riches, and has often berated her for not bringing to him any dowry when they were wedded without knowing one another very well in July, 1897.

The couple have one child, Edna, aged 10.

RACE WAR IS IMMINENT

Texas Whites Preparing for an Assault by Negroes.

Dallas, Tex., Aug. 5.—Reports from Orange, in Southeast Texas, on the Louisiana line, are to the effect that a race war may break out at any moment.

Nearly fifty special deputies have been sworn in and the white men are generally arming themselves to resist an attack which it is rumored the negroes are contemplating. Many negroes are employed in mills and lumber camps in the vicinity of Orange.

Sunday night a negro attacked a white woman, Mrs. Jay, in one of the lumber camps.

A posse of white men pursued, captured and lynched the negro in a swamp bordering on the Neches river. This aroused the negroes, and the white men are in no temper to permit them to become aggressive.

RIDES 10,000 MILES ALONE

Eight-Year-Old Girl Robbed in France Reaches America.

Benton Harbor, Mich., Aug. 5.—Ida Beechas, a black eyed, curly haired child of eight years, has arrived here on a steamer from Chicago, having journeyed alone 10,000 from Damascus, Syria.

The child's trip was the more notable, owing to her having been stranded without friends in Marseilles, France, a Syrian who had offered his protection to the little girl having robbed and deserted her at Marseilles.

Appealing to the proprietor of her hotel, the child succeeded in having word of her predicament sent to her father, who was then in New York, and additional funds were promptly sent her. Relatives met her in New York and placed her aboard the west bound train, and her father was awaiting her arrival here on the steamer from Chicago.

Romance Begun With Parents' Aid to Culminate in Wedding.

Vincennes, Ind., Aug. 5.—A romance begun when both were children and not able to write letters, which service was performed by their mothers, will culminate Thursday at Los Angeles in the marriage of Miss Mary Lipe and Earl Bosworth.

The bridegroom elect is the youngest son of Milas A. Bosworth, a wealthy lumberman of this city, and is now engaged in Y. M. C. A. work in Los Angeles. The bride-to-be was recently graduated from an eastern school and has lived in Los Angeles since her parents' removal from this city years ago.

PARKER TO OPEN CAMPAIGN

Former Candidate to Speak for Bryan Tonight.

Los Angeles, Cal., Aug. 5.—Judge Alton B. Parker, democratic candidate for president in 1904, will deliver his first speech for the democratic ticket in the present campaign before a Los Angeles audence tonight at the Auditorium.

Judge Parker, who arrived in the city Monday night after several weeks' outing in Yellowstone park, was entertained at luncheon yesterday by 200 members of the Democratic league, and spoke briefly but without particular reference to politics. Delancy Nichol, of New York, also addressed the members of the league briefly.

SHOOTING AT CEDAR CITY

Jesse Davis, a Young Merchant, Was Shot by Henry Hale.

Henry Hale, a farmer 30 years of age, today shot and fatally wounded Jesse Davis, a young merchant at South Cedar City, says Tuesday's Jefferson City Democrat.

Davis' father in turn took the revolver away from Hale and hit him over the head with a hatchet, inflicting a deep scalp wound. He was brought to this city and placed under arrest after being treated by Dr. Thorpe.

Hale's wound is not dangerous. Davis will not live until midnight, say his physicians.

Hale accuses Davis of mistreating his (Hale's) wife and baby.

Just how they were mistreated he did not say.

HIS BRIDE A LEGLESS WOMAN

Groom Carries Her in His Arms to License Office.

Cincinnati, Ohio, Aug. 5.—A pathetic sight was seen in the county clerk's office in Newport, Ky. Monday, when a young man carried in his arms a legless young woman to the license counter and applied for a marriage license. The pair gave their names as John B. Bapp, of Seattle, Wash., and Pearl Ruppell, of Portland, Ind.

They went from Cincinnati in a cab to the city across the river, and when the man stepped from the cab with the young woman in his arms he attracted a crowd. In the clerk's office he placed her on the counter while the document was being prepared.

The young woman's legs were amputated as the result of a railroad accident. After securing the license the couple went to a parsonage and were married.

NEW CURE FOR TETANUS

Lad Discharged From Pasteur Institute in Pittsburg.

Pittsburg, Pa., Aug. 5.—Harry Gilbert, aged 14 years, has been discharged from the Pasteur institute of Pittsburg, where he had been under treatment for the last three weeks for lockjaw.

With his discharge comes the news that Pittsburg physicians have discovered a new cure for tetanus. It is magnesium sulphate injected into the spinal column. It is claimed that this treatment is a preventive rather than a partial cure, such as antitoxin, and that if taken in time will prove efficient.

In the case of young Gilbert injections were started at 5 per cent solutions and gradually increased to 15 per cent. There was also $93 worth of antitoxin used in curing the lad.

Inquisitiveness.

The small boy who would investigate the inner workings of the family clock or the mechanical secrets of a music machine should be encouraged. Nature is working out his best impulse. His curiosity is healthful. Later in life he will aspire to different things, though he may always harbor a secret belief that he can assemble a modern lock or set up a gasoline motor better than the man who made it. The impulse of curiosity is the making of many a man. The progressive spirits of the age are those who want to know how things are put together. So when Johnny tackles the clock do not be harsh with him, and like the mother mentioned in recent dispatches, cane him. That mother's boy ran away, and now she would like to know where he is. That caning may have diverted to a wrong channel a curiosity that, properly developed, would have been the making of the boy.

LEAP FROM MOVING TRAIN

Sheriff Follows Prisoner, Who Gains Liberty by Jump.

Murphysboro, Ill., Aug. 5.—A Carbondale railroad man named Presson, under arrest, and while being brought to the county jail at Murphysboro Monday evening by Sheriff Hanson, jumped from an Illinois Central passenger train going 30 miles an hour.

The sheriff jumped off after Presson, rolled down an embankment and was badly bruised. Presson ran into the woods and the sheriff was unable to locate him.

BREWERS FOR MR. BRYAN

Delegation of Workers Gives Assurance of Support.

Fairview, Lincoln, Neb., Aug. 5.—A steady stream of visitors called upon Mr. Bryan during the day, mostly in the morning. Among them was a delegation of brewery workers from Quincy, Ill., who assured the democratic candidate their advices indicated that a majority of the brewery workers of America were for him for president. They were introduced by Nicholas Ress, former republican sheriff of Lancaster county, Nebraska.

BIG JOB OF SKIN-GRAFTING

144 Inches of Cuticle Transplanted to Girl's Body.

Shelbyville, Ill., Aug. 5.—Dr. C. L. Smith, assisted by two Mattoon physicians, has grafted 144 inches of skin on the body of Perilee Hicks, a young girl who was scalded when a stove toppled on her at her home in this city recently.

The skin for the operation was furnished by her sister, Sylvia Hicks, and a friend, Miss Getz. The grafting was done at the Methodist Memorial hospital in Mattoon.

THE BIG SHOW HERE FRIDAY

Many Feature Acts That Cost From $500 to $1,000 a Week.

Perhaps if some of the people who are disposed to charge the showmen with avarice and deceit could have an intimate knowledge of the perplexing things and annoying circumstances which so often beset the modern circus manager, and disturb the even tenor of his mind, they would desist from such accusations.

From the beginning to the end of the season, and between seasons, the lot of the circus manager lacks more than one thing of being sweet peace. First he was confronted with a dearth of attractions, it being impossible to secure anything new. This is not so today. There are many extraordinary and almost incredible attractions which may be procured, if the circus man will do as Mr. Wallace has done—go after them, and pay the high salaries demanded.

With a circus of the magnitude of the Carl Hagenbeck and Great Wallace shows combined, expenses are enormous. A score or more of the feature acts cost from $500 to $1,000 per week. The highest salaries, of course, are paid for those features which are original and new, coming for the first time this year from Europe. To these must be added the pay of almost half a thousand employes, many of whom draw liberal salaries. To this big yearly salary list, which must be paid, rain or shine, and which is less than half of the running expenses of a big three ring circus like this combined attraction, there must be added the board and feed of the animals, the transportation and advertising, the equipping and maintaining the vast outfit of the circus. Next Friday will be Sedalia's big circus day.

REAL SOUL KISS FOR HIM?

A REPORT THAT ANTHONY DREXEL, JR., WILL IN TIME WED AN ACTRESS.

THE YOUNG WOMAN NONCOMMITTAL

Miss Hattie Forsythe and Young Man Inseparable on a Liner Crossing Atlantic—She Calls Him "My Child."

New York, Aug. 5.—Miss Hattie Forsythe, who last appeared here in "The Soul Kiss," was a passenger on the North German Lloyd steamship Kronprinz Wilhelm, which arrived yesterday from Southampton and Cherbourg.

She assisted Anthony J. Drexel, jr., in having a pleasant time from Southampton and he then made an engagement, according to the young woman, to dine with her last night. The testimony of the ship's company was that Mr. Drexel, who is 21, and has just come out of Eton college, was unusually attentive to Miss Forsythe.

The report when the Kronprinz reached quarantine was that Drexel was engaged to Miss Forsythe. Mr. Drexel was asked if the rumor was true. He looked much disturbed and remarked in what an expert on British dialects said was a charming Eton accent, that "It was really absurd, you know, and say, old chap, please don't print it."

Miss Forsythe laughed at the question. She admitted that they were very good friends and that he had promised to show her the "great white way" that night, or that she had promised to show him, she could not remember exactly which.

"Now, give it to me straight, are you going to marry Mr. Drexel?"

"Well, to tell the truth, I hate to rob a cradle. But if he pushes me too hard I can't tell what may happen."

At this point, Mr. Drexel sauntered into view, smoking a cigarette and steering a rapid course for Miss Forsythe. She waved a farewell to the reporters, remarking:

"Look out! My child is coming."

Then they went to the rail and leaned over and talked.

Anothy J. Drexel, the young man's father, is a wealthy banker. He was one time a partner of J. Pierpont Morgan.

COMMITS SUICIDE IN BANK

New York Institution's Clerk Found Dead in Basement.

New York, Aug. 5.—Charles W. Westerfeld, 22 years old, an assistant bookkeeper of the Produce Exchange bank, committed suicide by shooting himself through the head in the book room of the bank last afternoon just as two checks bearing his signature were presented at the paying teller's window.

Westerfield had no deposit at the bank to meet the checks, which were for $20 each, and the teller detained the man who presented the checks and sent for Westerfield to make an explanation. This resulted in the finding of the young man's body in the vault where the books of the bank are kept.

If you use beer for your health or as a tonic, be sure that you get the best. The difference in cost is only a trifle, while the benefit to your health is incalculable. There is no use to dwell at length on the merits of Budweiser Beer, same is too well known. Its quality has made it not only the leading beverage of America, but in its triumphant march has conquered in all civilized centers of the globe.

Budweiser costs more to make than any other Beer in America, and at that, it outsells any Beer, ten to one, made in the United States.

ATTACKED BY BULLDOG

Emilie Gardner, Prima Donna, Severely Bitten by Her Pet Canine.

New York, Aug. 5.—Miss Emilie Gardner, prima donna of the Aborn opera last year, was in the reception hospital at Coney Island Monday suffering from wounds inflicted by an angry bull dog. Miss Gardner's injuries and the shock she suffered are serious and her condition was regarded as critical.

Miss Gardner's housekeeper left the Gardner cottage after placing the dog and a litter of pups in the pantry. Miss Gardner entered the pantry later, whereupon the bull dog sprang upon her, fastening his teeth in her left arm.

The singer endeavored to fight off the dog, but the animal tore at her arm, lacerating it terribly, snapped at her right hand, nearly biting off the fingers, and bit her severely about the legs.

Weak with pain and terror, Miss Gardner fell to the floor, but the dog continued his attack upon her. In the meantime neighbors were attracted by Miss Gardner's screams, and the housekeeper returning, the dog was driven off and the injured singer removed to the hospital.

CHICAGO NEWS LETTER

THE COMMERCIAL CLUB TAKES A STEP TOWARD THE "CITY BEAUTIFUL"

ONE OF RICHEST BABES IN WORLD

"Independence League" Convention Bore Resemblance to the Pay Roll of the Hearst Yellow Publications.

Special to the Democrat-Sentinel.

Chicago, Aug. 5.—The first step proposed by the Commercial club of Chicago is a general "City Beautiful" scheme, an elevated boulevard over the Chicago river to connect the north and south side boulevards and park systems, has received a black eye. For some "mysterious reason" the boulevards committee of the club advocated a long causeway or viaduct which would cost from $6,000,000 to $10,000,000 but the taxpayers who would have to foot the bills rose up wrathfully and declared that the viaduct not only would be but a "rich man's causeway," a "speedway for automobiles," a "wart" and defacement instead of an improvement, but that such a grotesque structure would make Chicago's efforts to dress up grotesque instead of admirable. Mrs. Potter Palmer, among others, denounced the plan and during recent years she has seen much of European boulevards where beauty has been attained, has seen more of them than of Chicago's busy streets, in fact. A majority of the members of the committee which proposed the objectionable speedway were found to live in suburbs of the city and an unfortunate self interest was disclosed by the hostile property owners. The connecting boulevard seems likely to be constructed, but on the surface, where all classes of people would benefit, and the result of this will be the completion of a beautiful thoroughfare through the heart of the city, where property owners will be encouraged to erect handsome buildings in the place of the dingy ones of the present. This boulevard will be flanked with trees and parking and a plaza, where now is the center of the wholesale district, will be made to rival the attractions of Paris. Chicago seems determined to dress up in spite of blunders.

The settlement of the $25,000,000 trusteed fortune left by Otto Young, of this city, one of the largest which has yet in the United States been tied up in trust, has been complicated by the arrival of a $3,000,000 grandchild, Samuel K. Martin, jr., who immediately became one of the richest babies in his own right in the world. His arrival, however, not only cost the other six heirs of the Young fortune his portion, a seventh of the estate, but postponed the final settlement of the trusteeship for twenty-one years. He makes the seventh heir. By the peculiar provisions of the Young will the present fortune with its accumulations is to go in equal parts to the grandchildren, which puts, therefore, a big premium upon baby cousins of Samuel, jr. Until the baby came the Martins had no claim upon the estate. The prospective share of Mrs. Celia Young Heyworth was decreased by Samuel's appearance from 25 to 22 per cent of the whole, that of Mrs. Catherine O. Young Hobart by the sum of $333,000. Under the terms of the trusteeship the division cannot be made until the youngest grandchild has attained 21 years, and Samuel is the youngest Young. The results in this case will be interesting commentaries upon the growing disposition of wealthy men to trustee their estates, in much the same manner as Marshall Field did and many men in the east have done. What effect the certainty of great wealth will have upon the morals and health of the heirs and also what effect upon financial affairs the trusteeing of such big sums will have, probably will be well known by the time this $3,000,000 baby receives his share of the Young fortune, if he does live to receive it.

Under X-ray analysis the roster of delegates to the Independence league's first convention, at which William Randolph Hearst uttered the keynote war cry against things in general, bore an interesting resemblance to the payroll of the Hearst publications. It was noticed that there were many vociferous voices among the delegates which reminded one of those who cry "Extry" on the street corners of many cities. In explanation it was stated that in the Texas delegation Tracy Adams, a newspaper hustler or circulation pusher, was an active delegate. "Chi" Red, who draws pay from the Hearst coffers for the same sort of work, was an important delegate from Maine. Tom Butts, a circulation man from Indiana, was a delegate from that state. "Moso" Annonberg, whose work is securing subscribers to the Hearst papers in Wisconsin, also was a delegate. "Tommy" Brasky, a newsboy who is well known about Clark and Madison streets in Chicago, acted as a dignified representative of Missouri. Eddie Burke, a central district driver, also was present as a delegate, cheering whenever the upraised voice of a speaker indicated that Hearst employes were expected to enthuse. "Dummy" Higgins, driver of one of the Hearst newspaper wagons in Chicago, and his brother, "Al," were delegates from Kentucky. The narrative of Jacob I. Sheppard, of Fort Scott, Kas., the man who tried to nominate Bryan, told after he had applied arnica to his bruises and new clothes to his back, was a sidelight on the Hearst uplift in behalf of the "common people." He related how he was seized for ejectment, how he was "rough housed" and finally rescued from the delegates by the detail of police present. It was he who charged that the platform was changed before submitted to the convention. The start which "independence" made was novel.

War has been declared by taxpayers upon the present policy of the sanitary district of Chicago which is in charge of the great $56,000,000 drainage canal, various commercial bodies charging that the Chicago river is neglected at heavy loss to this city in lake shipping. The efforts of the sanitary trustees has been directed toward outlying districts and meanwhile the canal has filled with silt, the necessary flow for carrying off the city's sewage has been choked by this and by failure to widen the river to 200 feet at all points. Lake vessels have repeatedly stuck in entering the harbor. The criticism of the sanitary trustees has brought out sharp, not to say vitriolic replies from President R. R. McCormick, but he has refrained from answering the questions of taxpayers and contented himself with denunciations. The war reached an acute stage when the Illinois Tax Reform association called the matter to the attention of the attorney general of Illinois, saying: "Unless the sanitary trustees at once begin preparation and work for the immediate introduction of the required volume of water into the main drainage channel, the people of the Illinois river valley will have cause to, and probably will, go into court and obtain a mandamus compelling the prompt introduction of sufficient water to provide proper dilution for the sewage of the city of Chicago. The people of the sanitary district of Chicago, after having spent nearly $60,000,000 for the construction of a sewage outlet, are unwilling to embark upon now by-product enterprises which are not connected with the health requirements of Chicago at all, until those features of the law requiring sufficient dilution of the sewage of the city at its sources are fully and completely complied with."

Is a $200,000,000 lumber trust in process of formation? That great commercial mystery, which Missouri and Kansas are attacking, the big lumber companies are active in denying the existence of, but there is some excellent evidence offered that the merger will be made if the attorney generals of those states or for Uncle Sam don't pdevent it. That a meeting was recently held in St. Louis to discuss such a consolidation is admitted, Frederick E. Weyerhauser, of St. Paul, and Edward Hines, of Chicago, being among those present. Later J. B. White, of Kansas City, made this statement: "It's a dream. Mr. Weyerhauser as much as told me that himself. A number of men met in St. Louis several weeks ago to discuss such a consolidation and appointed a committee to perfect the plan. When the committee left here the folly of the project gradually lawned upon them." During the lull in the lumber business the golden opportunities of mergers seem to dance in the fancies of the lumber kings, for, in spite of denials, the rumor of consolidation still is heard fitfully. Competition in the soft lumber trade, it was said, was "ruining" prices, there being a sharp reduction that has been welcomed by the public. That the big lumbering companies, which have denuded great empires of their timber, wastefully, wantonly and at ridiculous cost for the stumpage, should now declare for a preservation of the forests, as they recently did, is looked upon as a sorry kind of joke. The Northwestern Lumbermen's association, at a meeting here recently declared: "Forests which should be protected from needless destruction are allowed to be destroyed simply from noninterference either from the government or owners. All forests must be protected, cultivated and nurtured to the fullest, or the price of lumber and building material will go far beyond the ordinary purse."

The cream of Chicago's society—many rich and prominent women—have received a severe rebuke from Municipal Judge Gemmill, who has appealed to their sense of duty to humanity by telling them to leave cats and dogs alone and help the poor and needy children instead. These society women have been spending time and money in ministering to stray cats and dogs, and the wails and howls of the patients so distracted the neighborhood around the "hospital" that the residents resolved to air this fad of Chicago's "four hundred" in the courts, in an effort to secure peace and quiet throughout the hot days and long nights. Then the law took its course and fourteen dogs and ten cats were given the death penalty, though later given a stay of execution of one week. Mrs. Margaret Carter, manager of the refuge for crippled cats and homeless dogs, conducted the defense and received the scoring of the court on behalf of the aristocratic backers of the organization. "Care for the hungry, sick and maimed children of Chicago's poor first, and there will be little time left to waste on cats and dogs," said Judge Gemmill.

ORANGE FOR UNDERWEAR

Hat Linings of Same Hue Will Be Used by the Army.

Washington, Aug. 5.—Beneath their dull khaki uniforms, the soldiers in the Philippines soon will present a riot of colors. This is due to the government's desire to counteract the heat in the insular possessions.

In an effort to protect the men against the actinic ray, a series of experiments were made in the use of a wide color scheme in the underwear of the boys in active service.

The first trial will be that of orange red clothing. Five thousand suits of underwear of this color soon will be sent to the far east, accompanied by the same number of hat linings of the same hue. Other shades will be tried if the orange fails in the things hoped.

THE NAVAL MANEUVERS

WILL BEGIN IN THREE DAYS AT GARDINERS BAY, LONG ISLAND SOUND

There Will Also Be an Opportunity for the Study of Torpedo Boats, Which Will Be New Feature of the Tour.

Washington, Aug. 5.—Plans have been completed at the navy department for the point maneuvers of the naval militia battalions of the eastern and New England states, which will begin three days hence in Gardiner's Bay, Long Island Sound.

The tour of duty for the state tars will be the most extensive ever undertaken and will last from next next Saturday until Monday, Aug. 17, two days longer than the time allotted under the original project.

It is announced that Commander Charles C. Marsh, U. S. N., will command the squadron at Gardiner's bay and that he has outlined a program of the tour of duty which differs widely from the maneuvers in former years, as well as comprising interesting details impossible to obtain under the single battalion cruise of the vessel, as has been the plan in previous years.

Besides the converted yachts and other vessels owned by the naval militia of all the states represented in the maneuvers, except Rhode Island and Maine, the Yankee and Prairie of the government's auxiliary cruiser fleet, and the torpedo flotilla, with parent ship, will participate. The Rhode Island battalion will probaby be accommodated on either the Prairie or the Yankee, and these two vessels will probably be utilized in a small part by the overflow detachments from other state naval militia commands which can not be wholly accommodated on their own craft.

Naval officials believe that the plan proposed for this year's maneuvers has many advantages over that in vogue in previous years, inasmuch as it will afford the men an opportunity to obsere and get acquainted with the men of the naval militia of all the northern states participating in the tour of duty. The plan will, it is expected, produce much that is good in the way of uniformity, besides tending to a knowledge of various ideas in other battalions which might be incorporated in the facilitating of training.

There will be two converted yachts owned by the Massachusetts naval militia at Gardiner's Bay, two from New York state, one containing the Jersey City battalion of the New Jersey naval reserves, and two from Connecticut, in addition to the vessels of the regular army. Much interest in the coming maneuvers is evinced by the naval militiamen, especially because of the fact that, for the first time, the program will be carried out for a squadron instead of on board a naval ship, as heretofore.

At Gardiner's Bay there will be boat races and competitive target practice by the crews of various state commands, with maneuvers. The entire tour of duty will not be spent in Gardiner's Bay. On the contrary, a portion of the program, it is said, will comprise sea duty, although of a different class from previous years. There will also be an opportunity for the studying of torpedo boat works, an entirely new feature of the annual tour of duty of the reserves.

BAY SHORE HORSE SHOW

OAKWOOD IS THE MECCA OF ALL HORSEMEN AND SOCIETY WHIPS OF EAST.

IT OPENS TOMORROW FOR 3 DAYS

There Are Several Valuable and Handsome Prizes and the Contests in Different Classes to Be Spirited.

New York, Aug. 5.—Oakwood, Bay Shore, is today the Mecca of all the fashionable horsemen and society whips of the east, nearly all of whom have entered thoroughbreds in the annual Bay Shore horse show to open tomorrow for a three-day run.

Among the important prizes to be competed for this year is the horse show blue book cup, presented by J. W. Waring. The Beechwood plate, a magnificent silver tray to the value of $500, donated by F. S. Jones, of Beechwood, Sayville. This prize is to be awarded for the best saddle horse for park use.

The prize is to be won three times by the same exhibitor before becoming the property finally.

The Edward Knieriem cup, for the best gig horse, cup to be won by the same owner and the same horse two years in succession before becoming the property of the exhibitor, will again be competed for.

The Hyde cup, offered by James Hazen Hyde, for four-in-hand road teams to be shown before a coach, drag or break, horses only to count, will be competed for.

The executive committee for this year's show consists of Charles F. Hubbs, Samuel T. Peters, Edward C. Blum, George A. Ellis, jr., H. R. Brinckerhoff, J. Adolph Mollenhauer, Simon F. Rotschild.

BOY'S AIM SAVES COMPANION

Bullet Through Snake's Neck as It Was About to Strike.

Joplin, Mo., Aug. 5.—Herbert Davis, aged 14, while feeling beneath a rock in a lake for fish, seized a snake, thinking it was a fish.

The snake coiled around the boy's body and was in the act of striking when Francis Evans, aged 15, who was standing, with a .32 rifle, 100 feet away, sent a bullet through the reptile's head.

STATE FARMERS' UNION

The Agriculturalists of Kentucky to Organize It.

Paducah, Ky., Aug. 5.—Kentucky farmers will gather here by hundreds tomorrow and will organize a State Farmers' union. The sessions will be held behind closed doors.

It is proposed by the union to exercise the same control over the acreage and sale of other agricultural products as already in operation among the tobacco growers.

Leaders in the movement, however, deny any sympathy with the "night rider" and dynamite methods adopted by some of the tobacco planters, and will seek to accomplish their aims by peaceful methods.

A Boon to Elderly People.

Most elderly people have some kidney or bladder disorder that is both painful and dangerous. Foley's Kidney Remedy has proven a boon to many elderly people, as it stimulates the urinary organs, corrects irregularities, and tones up the whole system. Commence taking Foley's Kidney Remedy at once and be vigorous. Arlington Pharmacy.

ENLARGE COAST LEAGUE

Next Session It Will Consist of Six or Eight Clubs.

San Francisco, Aug. 5.—It is likely that the Pacific coast baseball league, which now has but four clubs, will enter the next season with six or eight cities represented.

San Francisco Los Angeles, Portland and Oakland now comprise the circuit. Sacramento will be taken in next year, and some suburb of Los Angeles will make the sixth city.

It is possible that two northern cities, probably Seattle and Tacoma, may be induced to cast their fortunes with the coast league.

The formation of the Pacific Northwest league, resulting in the withdrawal of Seattle, seriously crippled the Pacific Coast league, but prospects are now good for a return of the old time prosperity and supremacy of the league.

Moving Pictures in Campaign.

Okmulgee, Okla., Aug. 5.—William J. Bryan's "canned" speeches have been outdone by E. P. Stanford, candidate for republican nomination for congress in the Third district, who has utilized the moving picture machine as a producer of campaign enthusiasm. Stanford gives free shows in halls and school houses and follows with a political speech.

TAKES CASE TO LAST COURT

Slayer of Millionaire Rice Dockets His Appeal by Letter.

Washington, Aug. 5.—Imprisoned for life in Sing Sing, N. Y., for the murder of William Rice, the New York millionaire, Albert T. Patrick yesterday by letter had docketed in the supreme court of the United States his appeal from the decision of the United States court in New York, refusing to release him on habeas corpus.

One of the grounds for the appeal is that the governor of New York "increased" his sentence by commuting it from electrocution to life imprisonment.

Patrick is a member of the bar of the supreme court, and although he has been in prison for several years, he was able to comply remarkably well with all the rules of the court.

Smokes Eighty Years and Quits.

Chester, Pa., Aug. 5.—After smoking for eighty years, A. W. Cromwell, aged 96, has decided that use of the weed is a bad habit, and has thrown away his pipe.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect It.
Prevalency of Kidney Disease.

Most people do not realize the alarming increase and remarkable prevalency of kidney disease.

While kidney disorders are the most common diseases that prevail, they are almost the last recognized by patient and physicians, who content themselves with doctoring the effects, while the original disease undermines the system.

What To Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.

You may have a sample bottle and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention this paper and don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y.

Lung Diseases

Beware of those occasional pains in the chest, that tickling in the throat, that hacking cough, that fluttering of the heart, that shortness of breath, that hocking and spitting, that gradual loss of weight, that loss of appetite, that nervous weakness, that unusual brightness of the eyes at times.

ONE OR ALL of these symptoms are but timely warnings that the nucleus of that most dreaded of all diseases is invading the system, and if unheeded the inevitable result is only a matter of time.

DO NOT DELAY. Delays are dangerous. Come to us in time. The Dr. Camp's Medical Co.'s Famous Treatment offers you the best results obtainable in modern medical science.

It is the most scientific treatment ever devised for all diseases of the air passages. It is the most energetic method known for speedily eradicating the germs of disease from the system. It is a great blood purifier and a rebuilder of the tissues and as a part of our Modern Americanized European Method it is applicable in a wide range of diseases.

We give you relief the very first treatment and do it without loading your stomach with drugs. We Cure You by the only natural way—Direct Medication by our Wonderful Inhalatorium Cabinet.

Lung Troubles

Need have no further terrors for you. You need not fear the oncoming of that most fatal of all diseases—the Great White Plague, Consumption—if you consult us in time. You can be cured more cheaply here than by a trip to the mountains. Do not think that because you have failed to get relief from the ordinary methods that we can not cure you.

We have the only Inhalatorium in this part of the state, and it has gained a wide reputation. Many come from a distance to avail themselves of this remarkable cure.

HUNDREDS WHO HAD ALMOST LOST HOPE HAVE BEEN RESTORED TO HEALTH.

We say we can cure catarrh, head noises, deafness, diseases of the throat, asthma, hay fever, bronchitis, and the early stages of consumption, and we can.

FALL INTO A MINE SHAFT

Boy Wanders on Prairie and Stumbles to His Death.

Joplin, Mo., Aug. 5.—Falling into a forty-foot mine shaft, the 7-year-old son of Councilman Steve Smith was drowned last afternoon.

The boy had gone to a lake with several companions, but as he could not swim he wandered about the prairie while the others went in the lake.

While wandering around he fell into the shaft and late last night his body had not been recovered.

RUMBLINGS OF THE RAIL

J. J. CLIFFORD, A FORMER SEDALIAN, GETS A DESERVED PROMOTION.

COACH, CAB AND CABOOSE ITEMS

Matters of Interest Picked Up From Various Sources for the Benefit of Democrat-Sentinel Readers.

J. J. Clifford, a former Sedalian, son of Mrs. Margaret Clifford, of West Third street, has been appointed superintendent of motive power and machinery, with jurisdiction over mechanical matters, on the international Mexican railway at Laredo, Texas, and will also retain his position as master mechanic at C. F. Diaz.

Mr. Clifford will now have jurisdiction over something like 5,000 miles of railway at a fine salary, and a legion of friends in Sedalia and Pettis county will join the Democrat-Sentinel in extending congratulations on his deserved promotion.

Did They Pass Their Friends?

The management of the street railway company will issue circulars this week calling attention to the rules of the company forbidding the carrying of passengers on the cars free of charge.

Complaint has been made to the company recently that the practice has been frequently indulged in of late, when, in fact, company men, unknown to "spotters" have been the passengers carried gratis.

Will Lay Heavier Rails.

A steel gang of sixty-five men will be put to work by the M., K. & T. railway next Monday, laying 85-pound steel rails from mile post No. 246, two miles south of Kansas City Junction, to mile post No. 255. The present type of rails from Parsons to mile post No. 246 is the 85-pound class.

A Special Train on Katy.

A "bug house" special, carrying two coaches of insane people from St. Louis to the state asylum at Nevada, will leave St. Louis tomorrow morning and will pass through Sedalia over the M., K. & T. at 3:30 p. m. Twelve guards will be in charge of the patients.

Want Harvest Hands.

Circulars are being issued by the Northern Pacific railway calling for harvest hands to work in the fields in North Dakota and Minnesota. Good wages are paid.

Hospital Arrivals.

Following are new arrivals at the Katy hospital:

L. F. Johnson, brakeman, Denison, Texas.

J. E. Carl, brakeman, Oklahoma City, Okla.

Rich Newsome, tie plant laborer, Greenville, Texas.

Automatic Couplers.

A poor engine delayed Missouri Pacific train No. 10 over two hours this morning.

P. G. Kinzer, traveling storekeeper for the Missouri Pacific, returned this morning from St. Louis.

M. C. Burns, foreman of the Missouri Pacific water service, was a passenger east on train No. 2 today.

City Passenger and Ticket Agent J. W. McClain, of the Missouri Pacific, returned last night from Warrensburg.

L. C. Redmon, general foreman of the Missouri Pacific telegraph department, returned this morning from Kansas City.

Dennis O'Brien, a St. Louis passenger conductor on the Missouri Pacific, who is on the sick list, is here visiting friends.

W. J. Pourcellie, a Missouri Pacific engineer; C. Higgins, a brakeman, and E. J. Smith, another brakeman, are on the sick list.

The exhaust pipe on engine No. 1519, pulling fast mail train No. 7 to this city, broke in two this morning, causing a trivial delay.

George Yopst, a rip track employe of the M., K. & T., has resigned to re-enter the employ of the Missouri Pacific in the capacity of electrician.

Dominick Stoffe, claim agent for the Katy, went to Moberly today and Resident Engineer R. M. Garrett returned from a business visit on the St. Louis division.

Vacancies for brakemen exist on Missouri Pacific trains Nos. 93, 98, 64, 77, 691 and 692, in places of Brakemen W. A. Sullivan, Patrick, Conkle and Fryatt, respectively.

G. W. Smith, superintendent of machinery for the Missouri Pacific, in special car No. 8, spent today in this city, and went west on train No. 1 this afternoon.

The Missouri Pacific has in the neighborhood of three hundred men at work at the new shops. Several men are being employed daily, the seniority list prevailing.

George Brittendall, division lineman for the Missouri Pacific, went to Holden this morning, and J. M. Chandler, roadmaster, went to Independence, while Claim Agent W. L. McCutcheon was a passenger to Kansas City on the fast mail train.

Patrick Sullivan, of Wagoner, Okla., employed as track foreman for the Oklahoma railroad, and family, are visiting Mrs. Sullivan's mother, Mrs. Kathryn McGee, at Spring Fork.

M., K. & T. flyer No. 5 was run in two sections this morning on account of homeseekers. Each train carried ten cars, all well filled. The first section, in charge of Conductor Levisy, arrived at 3:32 a. m. and the second section, in charge of Conductor J. E. Day, arrived at 3:52 a. m.

THREE ARE RENOMINATED

Miller, Reeder and Calderhead Victorious in Kansas.

Topeka, Kas., Aug. 5—Congressmen Miller, Reeder and Calderhead were renominated by the republicans in their respective districts, according to the general estimates which were received early this morning. Miller's nomination over Tucker in the Fourth district was conceded by the Emporia Gazette at midnight.

Reeder overcame Ham by a fair majority in the Sixth district. The hard three-cornered battle in the Fifth district was probably won by Calderhead, according to advices of an unofficial character from every county in the district. He had for his opponents R. R. Rees, of Minneapolis, and S. S. Smith, of Abilene.

These congressmen were the only ones on the republican ticket who had opposition.

CHILD LABOR IN KANSAS

Labor Commissioner Johnson Discusses Conditions.

Detroit, Mich., Aug. 5.—L. A. Johnson, secretary of the Association of State Labor Commissioners, and labor commissioner of Kansas, read an interesting paper on the situation in his state during the past year.

He paid particular attention to the child labor question and advocated closer relationship between the officers of the labor commission and the truant officers of the various cities and towns as one way of keeping in close touch with child conditions in the factories.

CUMMINS FOR SENATOR

THIS IS THE WAY IT LOOKS NOW

Though Twice Thwarted in Ambition to Reach Senate, Death of Senator Allison Opens the Way to State Executive.

Washington, Aug. 5.—The death of Senator Allison makes it almost certain that Governor Cummins will succeed him in the United States senate.

It was to prevent Cummins from getting into the senate that the railroads and the reactionaries of Iowa induced Senator Dolliver to refuse the vice presidency nomination.

Later they prevented the nomination of Cummins as Taft's running mate by their violent protests and their declarations that the recognition of Cummins by the national convention would cause great discord among the republicans of Iowa.

Cummins had been a candidate for the senate against Allison and was beaten in the primaries. It was conceded at the time that no other man than Allison could have won in an open contest before the people against the popular and progressive governor.

Nevertheless the reactionaries construed Allison's victory to be one for themselves and they openly proclaimed that Cummins had lost his grip upon the voters of the state and would no longer be a political factor.

DEPRESSION CLOSES BANKS

Two Small Ones in Nevada and South Carolina Close.

Union, S. C., Aug. 5.—The People's bank of this city closed its doors yesterday, pending voluntary liquidation. In a statement issued by the president, D. F. Arthur, general depression is the reason assigned for the action. It is said that depositors are fully protected.

Reno, Nev., Aug. 5.—The Bank of Austin, Nev., one of the oldest banks of that place, failed Tuesday.

According to the cashier, J. A. Miller, jr., however, it is a temporary suspension, as he says the bank has $41,000 in outstanding loans, and $20,000 cash and owes about the same amount. The embarrassment was caused by slow collections.

CAMPAIGNING BY PROXY

Convict Candidate for President Has Representative in Field.

Seattle, Wash., Aug. 5.—In the course of a speaking tour over the state August Gillhaus, of New York, proxy for Martin Preston, socialist-labor candidate for president, is in Seattle.

Preston, as has been published, is in jail in Nevada, serving a twenty-five year sentence for murder. Gillhaus was named as his proxy in case it should be impossible to secure the liberation of Preston.

The proxy is 41 years old and was formerly a stationary engineer in New York.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

GET BACK $84,000 OF A $100,000 CONTRIBUTION TO SAN FRANCISCO.

GIVEN AT TIME OF THE EARTHQUAKE

Twenty-Sixth Annual Convention of the Order Is Being Held in St. Louis Under Most Favorable Auspices.

St. Louis, Aug. 5.—Bread cast upon the waters was received and welcomed home again last night by the Knights of Columbus, now assembled here in their twenty-sixth annual national convention.

The bread was four-fifths of the $100,000 which the national organization subscribed to the San Francisco sufferers, but which was used by them only to the extent of $16,000. The rest of it came back and will be redistributed among the many councils which made up the fund.

The convention opened yesterday after a parade from Forest park to the residence of Archbishop Glennon, the principal event being the banquet in the evening.

At the opening mass Archbishop Glennon spoke of his desire that the $5,00,000 proposed for the Catholic university at Washington be raised. The matter is expected to come up at today's session.

OFFICERS SEEK YEGGMEN

Postoffice Safes at Utica and Hale, Mo., Are Blown Open.

Chillicothe, Mo., Aug. 5.—A posse is searching in the southern part of Livingston county and the northern part of Carroll county for the yeggmen who blew open the postoffice safes at Utica, five miles west of Chillicothe, and at Hale, ten miles south of this city, between 1 and 2 o'clock yesterday morning.

At Utica the outer door of the postoffice safe was shattered with a charge of nitroglycerin, while the inside lock remained intact. About $60 in cash was taken from the postoffice drawer and a cash box in Dietrich Bros.' store, in which the postoffice is located.

At Hale, thirty-five miles east of Utica, the safe was blown to pieces, but the robbers were frightened away by the approach of citizens, and secured no booty.

Ernest Lewis Fined.

Ernest Lewis, colored, employed by the M., K. & T., was fined $1 and costs by Judge Rickman today for disturbing the peace.

Meeting of the W. C. T. U.

The W. C. T. U. met with Mrs. E. D. Bosserman yesterday afternoon. Plans for the fall campaign of the organization were discussed, and the propsition of inaugurating the work into the public schools was brought up and discussed. Present plans are to invite Mrs. Carrie Lee Carter Stokes, of Kansas City, state president, to speak in Sedalia this fall.

JOHNSON AT CHAUTAUQUA

Governor Says He Could Better Oklahoma's Constitution.

Charleston, Ill., Aug. 5.—Governor John A. Johnson, of Minnesota addressed a large crowd at the Coles county Chautauqua here last afternoon.

Although this was "Democratic day," and had attracted hundreds of members of that party from various other sections of Eastern Illinois, Governor Johnson did not make a partisan speech.

He confined his address to the principles of good government, and commended Roosevelt for the prosecution of lawbreakers in high places. He did not mention the name of Bryan.

"When I was in Oklahoma recently I was told that the constitution of the state was the best in the Union," he said. "After examining that document, I concludeed that it could be subjected to many improvements.

A Tresspasser Jailed.

George Brown, a trespasser, was given fifteen days in jail by Judge Clark today.

INVALID WOMAN AUTO VICTIM

Missourian is Hurt and Gets Millionaire's Aid.

Denver, Aug. 5.—Mrs. Eunice Packett, of Cedar county, Mo., who, with her husband, was traveling across Colorado in a wagon for her health, was struck by an automobile driven by Bert Haggerty, of Colorado Springs, yesterday, and probably fatally injured.

The accident occurred directly in front of Wolhurst, Thomas F. Walsh's country home. Aid was quickly obtained from the Walsh home, and physicians were summoned.

The big Walsh touring car was ordered out by Mrs. Walsh and the unconscious woman lifted into it and whirled away to the county hospital in Denver.

Mrs. Packett has been an invalid for seven years. Her husband has constantly watched over her and nursed her.

JOHNSON FOR THE LEGISLATURE

Lawson for Prosecuting Attorney Ran a Remarkable Race, Receiving the Larbest Number of Votes of Any Candidate.

(From Wednesday's Daily.)

Complete returns from the primaries in Pettis county could not be obtained today. the ballots of five precincts, Blackwater No. 1, Bowling Green, Green Ridge No. 2, Hughesville No. 2 and Lake Creek, being inaccessible. They are in the possession of the county court, and will not be opened until Friday, when they will be officially canvassed by that body.

Enough has been obtained, however, to make it certain that Mr. Cowherd carried the county over Ball by over 250, Wallace being third and Stapel fourth in the race. The latter's vote was even lighter than was anticipated. Mr. Wallace ran right up with Ball and surprised everyone by the great strength that he developed.

Anderson carries the county for lieutenant governor by a good safe majority.

Roach for secretary of state Long for auditor, Bronaugh for railroad commissioner, Graves for supreme judge and Hamlin for congress were also given good majorities over their opponents.

In the local races the precincts heard from have decided the results and none of them can be effected by the missing ones, the majorities being so strong that they cannot be overcome.

For representative—E. E. Johnston, 1132; M. V. Carroll, 856, giving Mr. Johnston a majority of 276.

For prosecuting attorney, Mr. Lawson ran a remarkable race, polling the largest number of votes of any one on the entire ticket and defeating his competitor, M. A. McGruder, by a majority of 811. Mr. Lawson's vote was 1410 to Mr. McGruder's 599.

For sheriff, Melville T. Henderson defeated James C. Conner by a majority of 141, and it is said by Mr. Henderson's friends that this will be increased to 250 when the full returns are in.

Clay R. Gorrell, for assessor, also polled a large vote, the second largest, having 1309 to 685 for David T. Hartshorn, a majority of 624.

In the contest in Sedalia township for constable, Thomas Gordon defeated C. M. Winner by a majority of 475, he having 750 to Winner's 275.

The democratic committeemen for Sedalia are as follows: First ward, Clem Honkomp, jr.; Second ward, J. M. Dobel; Third ward, W. H. Powell. Fourth ward, John W Menefee, jr.

The republicans are: First ward, George Williams; Second ward, F. W. Clark; Third ward, Peter Hays; Fourth ward, E. E. Codding.

Following is the ticket nominated by the republicans at Tuesday's primary:

Governor—Herbert S. Hadley.

Lieutenant governor—Jacob F. Gmelich.

Secretary of state—John E. Swanger.

State auditor—Jesse A. Tolerton.

State treasurer—Wilbur F. Maring.

Attorney general—North T. Gentry.

Railroad and warehouse commissioner—William W. Wilder.

Judge of the supreme court—Argus Cole.

Judge of the Kansas City court of appeals—Arch B. Davis.

Representative in congress for Seventh congressional district—John Whitaker.

State senator for Fifteenth senatorial district—Holmes Hall.

Representative—George W. Anamore.

County judge, Eastern district—Charles W. Knox.

Judge Western district—J. M. Curnel.

Prosecuting attorney—Harvey D. Dow.

Sheriff—Benjamin F. Jenkins.

County treasurer—Truman T. Viets.

County assessor—Phillip Sullivan.

County surveyor—Harry O. Moss.

Public administrator—John H. Pregge.

Coroner—Frank R. Morley.

Constabe Sedalia township—Louis H. Kahre.

Two Great Games of Ball.

The Sweet Springs baseball team went to California to play two games of baseball. California won the game on Sunday, 1 to 0. It was an eleven-inning contest. On Monday the Sweet Springs team was again defeated in a twelve inning game, 3 to 2. Both games were well attended. The features of the games were the fielding of Willie Sarman and the playing of Emil Ott at short.

Columbus, O., Aug. 4.—Mrs. Samuel Gans, of Moundsville, W. Va., jumped from the Mount Carmel hospital roof garden yesterday and was killed. The woman had been at the hospital for four weeks suffering from melancholia.

RETURNS ARE SLOW COMING IN

City of St. Louis Gave a Plurality of Over 10,000 to the Man From Kansas City—Was Strong in the Cities.

Kansas City, Aug. 5.—Late returns from the primaries in Missouri indicate that Wm. S. Cowherd, of Kansas City, has been nominated by the democrats for governor, over David A. Ball and Judge William H. Wallace. Cowherd's nomination is claimed by a majority close to 25,000, but definite figures will not be obtainable until late today. Ball appears to have received a larger vote than Wallace.

Herbert S. Hadley, present attorney general, was the only candidate for governor on the republican ticket, and of course is nominated.

Cowherd's strength lay principally in the cities, and in St. Louis, Kansas City and St. Joseph he received good pluralities. Ball and Wallace showed the greatest strength in the farming districts.

The returns on the rest of the state democratic ticket indicate that the other nominees are W. R. Painter, of Carrollton, for lieutenant governor; Cornelius Roach, of Carthage, for secretary of state; John P. Gordon, of Lafayette county, for state auditor; W. W. Graves, of Butler, for judge of the supreme court, and John A. Knott, of Hannibal, for railroad and warehouse commissioner. There was no contest on the office of attorney general or state treasurer on the democratic side. The only contest worth while on the republican ticket was on the office of attorney general. Apparently Frank B. Fulkerson, of St. Joseph, has easily beaten North T. Gentry, of Columbia, for attorney general. W. W. Wilder is almost certainly the republican nominee for railroad and warehouse commissioner.

At Mr. Cowherd's headquarters here today, the latter's nomination was claimed by a safe majority, but the figures were not placed at over 15,000 plurality.

Carried St. Louis by 10,130.

St. Louis, Aug. 5.—Complete returns in the city of St. Louis give Cowherd a plurality of 10,130.

Cowherd 250 Over Ball.

Will Cotton, editor of the Windsor Review, came up today and says Cowherd carried Henry county by 250 over Ball.

AIR SHIP DESTROYED

Was Struck by Lightning and Entirely Consumed by Fire.

Stuttgart, Aug. 5.—It is reported here that Count Zeppelin's wonderful airship was completely destroyed by fire today. It burst into flames and an explosion followed. It is thought it was struck by lightning.

Several persons were injured. The count, however, is safe. The ship had landed near Echterdingen for repairs when its destruction occurred.

DYING IN CHICAGO

Intensely Hot Still in Chicago--Four Deaths Last Night.

Chicago, Aug. 5.—Today was again intensely hot here. Four deaths over night were reported. The temperature at 11 a. m. was 84 degrees in the shade.

VOTE FOR CONGRESSMEN

CHOICE OF REPUBLICANS AND DEMOCRATS IN SIXTEEN DISTRICTS.

MR. HAMLIN DEFEATS HASELTINE

Looks as if John Whitaker Has Defeated Edward Taubman for the Republican Nomination in Seventh District.

St. Louis, Aug. 5.—Latest returns from the various congressional districts of Missouri indicate the nomination of the following:

Third district—Joshua W. Alexander, Gallatin, democrat; Harry L. Eads, Chillicothe republican.

Fourth district—Charles F. Booher, Savannah, democrat; Morris A. Reed, St. Joseph, republican.

Sixth district—David A. DeArmond, Rich Hill, democrat; William O Atkeson, Butler, republican.

Seventh district—Courtney W. Hamlin, Springfield, democrat; John Whitaker, Weaubleau, republican.

Eighth district—Dorsey W. Shackleford, Jefferson City, democrat; William C. Irwin, Jefferson City, republican.

Ninth district—Champ Clark, Bowling Green, democrat; Reuben F. Roy, New London, republican.

Tenth district—Frank A. Thompson, St. Louis, democrat; Richard Bartholdt, St. Louis, republican.

Eleventh district—Patrick F. Gill, St. Louis, democrat; William T. Findly, St. Louis, republican.

Twelfth district—Colin M. Selph, St. Louis, democrat; Harry M. Coudrey, St. Louis, republican.

Fourteenth district—Joseph J. Russell, Charleston, democrat; Charles A. Crow, Caruthersville, republican.

Fifteenth district—Thomas Hackney, Carthage, democrat; Charles H. Morgan, Joplin, republican.

Sixteenth district—Robert Lamar, Houston, democrat; Albert L. Reeves, Steelville, republican.

(From Wednesday's Daily.)

The cream and cake social given last night at the home of Capt. and Mrs. John M. Glenn, 712 West Fifth street, for the benefit of the Central Presbyterian church, proved to be a most delightful affair.

The beautiful front lawn was illuminated with Chinese lanterns, as was also the yard in the rear, one of the prettiest in the city, where the tables were spread, and where carpets covered the pretty green sward to protect the grass.

Capt. and Mrs. Glenn, with their daughters and sons, extended a royal welcome to each and every visitor, and a truly delightful time was had by each guest, a number of whom were not members of Central church, but friends of Capt. and Mrs. Glenn and also of their pastor, the Rev. A. A. Boyd. About $25 was realized for the benefit of the church.

ROYAL WELCOME HOME

Was Extended to Mr. L. H. Archias at His Home Last Night.

(From Wednesday's Daily.)

Mr. L. H. Archias, who returned Tuesday morning, in company with his brother, J. C. Archias, of Denver, Colo., after an absence since May 30, touring portions of Europe, was given a delightful surprise at his pretty home on South Quincy avenue last night.

The function was arranged by Mr. Archias' esteemed wife, and not so much as an inkling did the head of the family have of what was contemplated.

During Mr. Archias' absence from home in the afternoon and early evening the place was beautifully decorated, both inside and out, Japanese lanterns and cut flowers being used, and the scene was most inviting.

Mrs. Archias had invited the priests of Sacred Heart church, Rev. Frs. Neiberg, Daniel and Stoltz, of which church Mr. Archias is one of the trustees, and also a number of members of the parish, together with a few outsiders, and when Mr. Archias returned home in the evening he found a large company of his old friends assembled to welcome him and express their pleasure at his safe return from his trip abroad.

Social converse and music made up the program of the evening, after which cream and cake were served. Truly was it a delightful home-coming for Mr. Archias, who is one of the city's most successful and popular business men.

WIFE FLED WITH A NEGRO

Philadelphia Police Arrest Mrs. Emily Wood, Wife of a New Jersey Physician and the Negro—Spent $1500 on Him.

Philadelphia, Aug. 5.—Mrs. Emily Wood, wife of Dr. Oran Alphonso Wood, a prominent physician of Magnolia, N. J., who disappeared from her home a few weeks ago, was arrested yesterday in a house occupied by negroes.

With her was Bernard Smith, a negro chaffeur employed by Dr. Wood, who disappeared with her The police charged her with having eloped with Smith.

The arrest was brought about by J. W. Tiley, a wealthy resident of St. George, Staten Island, who is Mrs. Wood's stepfather.

Mrs. Wood at first denied her identity and created a scene. Afterward she admitted she was Mrs. Wood. She had spent on the black man, the police say, $1,500 since their elopemetn, a little more than a month ago.

When taken before Magistrate Gallagher Mrs. Wood at first pleaded for secrecy, then she regained her nerve and told him "to go as far as he liked."

When Mrs. Wood left her home she took with her about $2,500 worth of jewelry, silverware, gold watches and other valuables, and a number of gold and jeweled medals she had won. She is an artist of considerable talent.

The negro had a bunch of pawn tickets calling for all this stuff. The sums loaned amounted to nearly $1,560, which, the negro afterwards admitted, had been spent by them.

A SECRET MARRIAGE

Mr. Frank F. Moerschel and Miss Minnie Taylor in Chicago.

(From Wednesday's Daily.)

Frank F. Moerschel, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Andy Moerschel, and Miss Minnie Taylor, a popular and well-liked young lady of this city, were secretly married at Chicago last night, and will leave shortly for Jamestown, Wis. to make their home, Mr. Moerschel having been tendered a good position at that place.

The news of the wedding will come as a surprise to the many friends of the contracting parties, who had not the slightest intimation of such a step being taken.

Mr. Moerschel is popular with every acquaintance in this city, while his bride during her residence in Sedalia made hosts of friends, all of whom will join in extending congratulations.

SUBJEBT OF HIS SPEECH

Mr. Bryan Tells What He Will Discuss in His Acceptance Talk.

Lincoln, Aug. 5.—Mr. Bryan today outlined the subjects he will discuss in his forthcoming speech of acceptance. He said the speech will be confined practically to the questions, "Shall the People Rule," and "The Measure of Rewards." The guaranty of bank deposits, tariff and trusts will be treated in the several other speeches he will make within the next thirty days.

THIS IS THE CHARGE BROUGHT AGAINST REV. O. D. MAPLE, FORMERLY OF MARION.

Admits He Left a Grocery Bill, but Alleges Parishioners Owed Him and Promised to Pay the Indebtedness.

Washington, Aug. 5.—Rev. O. D. Maple, who recently lost his place as temporary pastor of the Thirty-fourth Street Christian church, Mt. Rainer, Prince George county Maryland, adjacent to the District of Columbia line, as the result of an investigation by the executive board of the church as to his past ecclesiastical record, lectured to 200 persons in that suburb, his subject being, "Hunting for Hypocrites."

Mr. Maple said the executive board of the Mt. Rainer church received two communication from Marion, O., where he previously preached, reflecting on his moral standing.

He declared that the trouble in this church was a financial one altogether, and that the charge that he left the community owing a grocery bill was true, but that the members of the congregation, who were indebted to him for back pay, had promised to settle the amount.

Referring to the charge that he had remained in an Indianapolis hotel with a married woman, he declared that he had a letter from the proprietor of the hotel which would exonerate him from any wrong doing. He did not read the letter.

Referring to an unfavorable letter received by the executive board of the Mt. Rainer church from Rev. Byron C. Platt, present pastor of the church at Marion, O., he said that in a few days he would be in Platt's neighborhood, and intimated he would make the Marion divine retract what he had said about him.

He referred to the members of the executive board of the local church as the "holier-than-thou crowd," and declared that in their so-called investigation they had considered him guilty before he had proved his innocence, a position contrary to principles of fairness and justice.

FELL AND BROKE HIS LEG

Henry Bauer, Who Is Here From Kansas City on a Visit.

(From Wednesday's Daily.)

Henry Bauer, a former Sedalian, but now of Kansas City, 70 years of age last February, who is here on a visit to his daughter Mrs. Chris S. Yost, of West Seventh street slipped and fell in the alley between the Bard store and the Guenther store, on Ohio avenue, at 8 o'clock last night, and fractured his right leg just above the ankle.

The injured man was removed to the home of his daughter, where Dr. Cole reduced the fracture, and this afternoon he is getting along splendidly.

GORE AGAIN NOMINATED

Blind Senator Again Chosen as His Party's Candidate.

Guthrie, Okla., Aug. 4.— United States Senator Thomas P. Gore, democrat, and Dennis T. Flynn, republican, of Oklahoma, had no opposition in their parties for the nomination for senator to succeed Senator Gore.

The principal interest in the congressional contests was in the First district. There reports indicate that Congressman Bird S. McGuire received an overwhelming majority over Judge Bayard T. Haies, of Perry, for the republican nomination. Definite figures may not be forthcoming before the end of the week.

STILL HIDES FROM SUITOR

Girl Embarrassed by Persistence of Unwelcome Lover.

Chicago, Aug. 5.—Miss Rose Ford, who went to New York last week to avoid the attentions of a persistent suitor, returned Monday to her parents here, but on the advice of her father, who has followed the movements of Richard Frederick, the suitor, she hid herself again to avoid the young man, who claims she is his fiance.

Frederick is still in New York, where he pursued Miss Ford last week when he discovered her whereabouts. Frederick recently resigned his position in order to conduct his personal search for Miss Ford.

Resigned as Operator Here.

(From Wednesday's Daily.)

Herbert Chaney, son of J. H. Chaney, resigned last night as chief operator in the office of the Western Union Telegraph Co., and will go west, probably to Arizona or New Mexico, in either of which territories a good position awaits him.

"Herb" is succeeded here by Harry Gibbons, a brother of Manager Frank E. Gibbons, a first-class man, who came here from Fort Scott, and who entered upon his duties today.

IT WAS COMPLETED ACROSS ATLANTIC OCEAN IN THE YEAR 1858.

The Original Promoters Were Americans, Including Peter Cooper, Prof. S. F. B. Morse, Cyrus Field and Others.

Valentia, Ireland, Aug. 5.—Leading men of Ireland and England joined today in celebrating the semi-centennial of the completion of the first Atlantic cable in 1858, the laying of which was commenced on Aug. 5 of the previous year.

The work was commenced at this point, although the original promoters were Americans, including Peter Cooper, Prof. S. F. B. Morse, Cyrus Field and others.

The vessels employed to lay the cable were the Niagara and Susquehannah of the United States navy, and the British vessels Leopard and Agamemnon. After sailing a few miles the cable snapped. This was soon repaired, but on Aug. 11, after 300 miles of the wire had been laid out, it snapped again, and the vessels returned to Plymouth. In June of the following year a second attempt failed through a violent storm. The third voyage was successful. Junction of the two continents was completed by 2,050 miles of wire, from Ireland to New Foundland, on Aug. 5, 1858. The first two messages were from Queen Victoria to President Buchanan and his reply.

A MISSOURI DOCTOR KILLED

In a Runaway Lester G. Gates, of Jerico Springs, Perished.

Nevada, Mo., Aug. 5.—Word has just been received that Dr. Lester G. Gates, of Jerico Springs, was found dead at the bottom of a steep hill near Jerico Springs yesterday.

The doctor's team ran away and threw him out. His neck was broken. Dr. Gates had been a practicing physician about seventeen years at Jerico Springs.

WON'T RUN AS INDEPENDENT

Hughes Sets at Rest Rumors That He Might Bolt.

Saranac Inn, N. Y., Aug. 5.—In a statement last evening, Governor Hughes announces that there is no foundation for the reports that he might run as an independent candidate for governor in case he is not renominated by the republican state convention, which is to be held next month at Saratoga.

Collins, and Miss Stella Clingan, of Belt, Mont., en route for a six weeks' tour of England and France at the expense of the Great Falls, Mont., Leader, arrived at Liverpool today, according to a cablegram received by relatives here. The ladies sailed from America on July 25.

Coming After Fugitive.

(From Wednesday's Daily.)

An officer from Ashland, Ala., will likely arrive in Sedalia tonight to assume charge of Silas Forman, a negro, who is wanted at that point for breaking a labor contract, following conviction for assault and battery, and who was arrested by the local police. Forman is now lodged in jail.

IS SHE TO MARRY AGAIN?

REMARKABLE MATRIMONIAL EXPERIENCE OF A PRETTY GRASS WIDOW.

SHE HAS WED MAN FIVE TIMES

Rumor Has It That She Will Give Him the Fifth Trial—Daughter of Amos J. Snell Who Was Killed in Chicago.

Chicago, Aug. 5.—Is Mrs. Grace Snell- Coffin- Walker- Coffin-Coffin-Lyman-Coffin-Love again to become Mrs. Coffin for the fifth time? Friends of the much divorced woman are confident that such is the case. Mrs. Grace Snell, et cetera, recently secured a divorce from her last husband, Hugh M. Love, and it is reported on good authority that Frank Nixon Coffin, undaunted by former matrimonial infelicities, is now paying ardent court to the beautiful grass widow.

Grace Snell's last appearance in the divorce court was in Los Angeles, where she appeared against Hugh M. Love, once a newspaper man, but now an attache of the health office in the City of Angels.

Terrible charges were made against the former scribe, among them that he wore pink pajamas in the drawing room when his wife was entertaining friends; that he smoked a strong pipe in the parlor and expectorated in the fire, and similar brutal cruelties.

Grace Snell is the daughter of Amos J. Snell, of Chicago, whose murder years ago has remained a great mystery. Grace, who inherited much wealth on the death of her father, was married in 1885 to Frank Nixon Coffin. They lived together for nine years, and Mrs. Coffin then got a divorce on the ground of incompatibility.

She then married James C. Walker, a Chicago hotel clerk. She got a divorce two years later for cruelty. She remarried Coffin and got a second divorce, alleging intoxication. In 1901, upon the death of their son, the couple were reconciled and married again. She left him the same day and the next day sued for divorce, on the ground of non-support, Coffin making no protest.

Mrs. Coffin then married Perkins A. Lyman, divorced him and again married Coffin, that making four marriages with her first husband. She soon tired of him, however, divorced him again and married Love.

STABBED THE SULTAN

But Coat of Mail Which Ruler Wears Saved His Life.

London, Aug. 5.—A special dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph company from Geneva says: "The Sultan of Turkey was stabbed in the breast Monday by a minor palace official, but the coat of mail which the sultan always wears deflected the blow. The would-be assassin was arrested. It is believed he was bribed to commit the act.

BIG STRIKE STARTED

Eight Thousand Men Quit Their Work in Canada Today.

Winnipeg, Man., Aug. 8.—The biggest labor dispute which the industrial history of Canada has known culminated here today in the form of a general strike of the employes of the mechanical departments of the Canadian Pacific railroad, from the Atlantic to the Pacific coast. Some 8,000 men quit work by the decision of the conciliation board.

SELF CONGRATULATIONS.

The outcome of yesterday's primary election on the part of the democratic party is very pleasing to the Democrat-Sentinel, the result of the contest for the gubernatorial nomination being extremely gratifying, especially so in Pettis county, where this paper has so many friends and enjoys so large a circulation.

The Democrat-Sentinel was the first paper in the state to call attention to Mr. Cowherd's splendid equipment for the high office of chief executive of Missouri, and to insist that he enter the race, and it was in its columns that Mr. Cowherd made the first announcement of his candidacy.

Since then the paper has persistently advocated his nomination, doing all in its power to bring the people to a full realization of his fitness for the place. That its judgment has been vindicated at the polls is good cause for gratification.

There is still another cause for self-congratulation: The Oracle who holds the curb at the corner of Third and Ohio streets had given it out flat that the Hon. David A. Ball, of Pike, would certainly be the nominee for governor, and that he would sweep all before him in Pettis county, and that the day after the primary The Oracle would do dreadful things to the Democrat-Sentinel.

Believing that when The Oracle spoke, things would happen as he predicted, orders had been given to the paper's entire force, in the editorial, reportorial and business offices, to appear at their desks Wednesday morning clad either in blotting paper or rain coats, and as it is pretty warm weather for these garbs, it is surely a matter of self-congratulation that The Oracle missed his guess and thus made the donning of them unnecessary.

WILL BE A MEMORABLE CAMPAIGN.

With the establishment by the republicans and democrats of eastern headquarters in New York City, and preparations going forward for opening the main headquarters in Chicago, the national campaign to which the country has been looking forward to the last four years is at hand. All indications now are that the presidential contest will be fought out and decided in the central west; in other words, those in the Ohio valley and the states as far west as the Rockies. Activities in the east, while no less energetic, will be secondary to and determined largely by developments in the west. The old slogan that "as New York goes" so will the country go, will not be heard in this election. True, the Empire state will be an important factor in determining the result, and both parties will put forth their best efforts to carry it, but it is not regarded as the hinge upon which the contest will swing.

Indiana will be the scene of probably the most streuous fighting in the western battle ground. It is a close state and its electoral vote will have an important effect upon the result. Ohio, Illinois, Iowa, Kansas and Colorado will be hotly contested, and the real campaign of the generals stationed in Chicago probably will be compassed within this and the Hoosier territory.

Democrats enter the campaign with greater confidence and under more favorable conditions than have marked any campaign since that of 1896. In fact, they have this advantage over the great free silver campaign: The party is completely reunited and harmonious. Evidence in abundance already shows that there is a widespread awakening of democrats, characterized by genuine enthusiasm and the most energetic activity in behalf of the party and its national ticket. For the first time in twelve years the republican party is on the defensive, and here again the democrats are placed in a favorable position. The republicans are committed to a stand-pat, reactionary policy, while the democrats have become the constructive, progressive, liberal party. Indications point strongly to general sentiment favoring a change. The campaign will be full of interest and promises to be one of the memorable presidential contests.

DON'T WORRY.

A news item told of a woman who died in Chicago at the age of 107, who never worried a day in her life. She attributed her excellent health and longevity to a resolution made early in life, when a girl in Poland, that she would never worry, and which she kept, though the course of her life lay through the turbulent scenes of war, pestilence and death.

There is a great lesson in the simple rule by which this woman lived and died. The world is filled with men and women who are constantly worrying and fretting, and with what result? None, except to increase the income of the doctor and the undertaker, and to fill the hospitals for the insane and the cemeteries. Ask any physician what causes the majority of mental breakdowns and most of the cases of nervous troubles, and he will tell you that it is worry—the broad term for mental agitations of one form or another which sap vitality and strength.

The human constitution was not designed by nature to stand the strain of worry, and the man who fumes and frets and makes a heavy mental load of his responsibilities is sure to break it in time. Some people blame work for their ills, but work never hurt anybody. On the contrary, it keeps men and women alive. Overwork, though, is quite another matter, and the overworkers are generally the fretters. One leads to the other.

Avoidance of worry does not mean we are to "take life easy" in an active sense. It does not mean that a man should refuse to take his work or anything else seriously. It does not mean that he should view with unconcern or treat lightly any of his problems. It does mean, however, that he should not worry and stew over them after he has applied to their solution his best efforts. It means he should not take them to bed with him to disturb sleep and recuperation, or mingle them with his recreations and mar the joys of living.

Therefore, if you have something to do, do it, and with your whole energy. And when you have done all you can do, don't worry about the result. All the fretting and mental apprehension in the world will have no effect upon the outcome. Dismiss the matter from your mind until you learn the result, and if your effort has failed in whole or in part, tackle the thing again, or, if there is a finality to the matter, drop it for good and all; at least, don't worry over the disappointment or fret at what might have been.

Worry always deals with something beyond your control, and it is always a useless, harmful and wasteful drain upon the resources of the mind and body.

We are traveling a fast pace in this age. We need all our strength and vitality with which to meet the speed demanded. The person who can keep up with the procession must not worry.

DEMOCRACY AND REFORM.

Certainly weekly journals and monthly magazines have engaged in incessant warfare for years upon political corruption and have done much to arouse public attention to its dangers. In season and out of season they have unsparingly denounced the influence brought to bear upon the elections by the power of the trusts and other more or less wormy corporations to maintain republican rule. Incredulous as was the public to the extent of these evils at first, it was finally convinced of them, and there has arisen at last loud demand that corruption of the elections shall cease.

Even in the last presidential campaign President Roosevel bitterly denounced the charges of his democratic opponent as unworthy of credit. But there is no longer denial in any quarter that the republican party managers have conducted their campaigns with the lavish use of corruption money of trusts and corporations having an interest in legislation. Little or none of such money ever went into the democratic till. Not all was brought to the light of day, but the life insurance scandals revealed enough to show from where the republicans have drawn their corruption funds. The Harriman episode further showed that the corporations expected compensation for their cash not in patronage and spoils, but in substantial legislation.

Until further advices, then, it may be taken for granted that these independent journals and magazines that have done so much to expose political corruption should haul down places will heartily co-operate with the democratic party in its purpose to secure to the people honest elections. This action of the democratic party marks a new era in the history of the country. It is another proof that the democracy is the party of progress constantly in touch with the aspirations of the people. When making this forward movement it would be strange enough if the journals that have made warfare for years upon political corruption should haul down the flag of reform just when the democratic party has raised it on the highest mountain tops. It would be strange, too, if they should fail to compare the conference at Fairview, in which the democratic candidates have taken the initiative to banish corruption from the national elections, with the empty phrases of Promoter Sheldon, who holds the republican bag and promises to publish after the election an account of all the funds that came into his hands. These journals will further observe that while the democrats have voluntarily resolved to publish campaign contributions before the election, Chairman Sheldon avails himself of the immunity provided him by the republican majority in congress by refusing to pass the publicity bill. For the democrats the bill is not necessary. For the republicans the failure leaves the screen for secret and wholesale corruption of the elections. In this conflict of party it may be reasonably assumed, therefore that so far from being influenced by a narrow spirit of jealousy, the independent journals and magazines will earnestly support the democratic course.

AFTER HARRIMAN, OR IS IT POLITICAL?

The announcement is made from Chicago that the government is collecting evidence in that city upon which to base proceedings to break up the Harriman railroad merger. This is a laudable enterprise, if true, and we trust the government is actually doing what it is advertised as doing.

But why this sudden renewal of activity in a case that is obsolete on the department of justice's publicity calendar? We heard it announced from Washington and other convenient news disseminating points for years ago and more that the government was going to "get after" Harriman and dissolve his transportation combine in the west.

Great things were promised from the grandstand and the spectators got ready to applaud. Harriman was "investigated," hearings were held and sensational things unearthed. The object of assault was denounced from the Atlantic to the Pacific for the Chicago and Alton deal, and other disclosures stirred up a temperatally hostile public.

When the hearings were concluded the people waited for something to drop on Harriman, but he talked and stalked about unharmed. The government attorneys wheezed, sneezed, and later announced that "as conviction was uncertain," time would be taken to study the testimony thoroughly before moving.

Well, the spectators have been waiting ever since for a report on this testimonial digest, but it hasn't been forthcoming. The Harriman "investigation" is regarded now as a very successful fiasco and that is about all. Still, the facts concerning the absorption of parallel and competing lines by Harriman's original western roads and their oppressive effect upon competition and a prima facie violation of the anti-trust law were brought out. The foundation for a case similar to that of the Northern securities suit was apparently established, but it was not made the basis of criminal proceedings.

Today we find the government renewing its quest of evidence upon which to base a suit under the Sherman act. The question presents itself, why hasn't it moved on evidence which is a matter of common knowledge and which it has possessed, or which it might easily have acquired, for years? Does the government really mean to prosecute Harriman? Or is it bringing up the subject again at this particular time to focus attention on the big stick in the hope of influencing the election?

LID TO STAY, FOLK SAYS

ELSBERRY SPEECH DEVOTED TO CONDITIONS IN ST. LOUIS COUNTY.

SAYS THAT WOMEN ARE NOT SAFE

Assistant County Attorney Thinks the Governor Is Playing Politics—Send the Troops or Quit Talking.

Elsberry, Mo., Aug. 4.—Governor Folk spoke in the city park here last afternoon and devoted much of his speech to the St. Louis county lid. He said that the improved condition in the county Sunday was gratifying and demonstrates that things can be made law-abiding there.

"The lawlessness in the county has been caused by the criminal and the depraved, who are run out of the city on Sunday by law enforcement and are attracted to the county by lack of law enforcement there," said Mr. Folk. "The protection of the homes and the womanhood of the county demands that the law be upheld. Sunday in the county, for the last few weeks, has been made the occasion of drunken revelry and debauchery.

"No woman has been safe in parts of the county, even in broad daylight.

"It is fortunate the county has a good grand jury. In aid of this body I have taken the situation in hand, and propose to clean out the dives and lawbreaking saloons. There are some, I know, who question the governor's authority.

"It is a great deal easier to find an excuse not to suppress lawlessness than it is to find the right way to do it. I believe it is better to resolve any doubt of authority in favor of enforcing the law and of suppressing lawlessness than, through a timid ear of exceeding authority, to do nothing at all.

"The law is to be enforced against the thugs and ruffians. I think there is power enough in Missouri to do this, and I will exercise it to the uttermost."

Governor Folk drove from here to Troy, a distance of twenty-five miles, where he spoke last nigght.

Sees Politics in It.

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 4.—"I don't see anything but politics in the move," said Assistant Prosecuting Attorney John Johnson, father of R. L. Johnson. He said it did not seem reasonable that the militia would be sent into the county on any other pretext. He could not see the sense in sending out men to keep the lid on the county when special agents of the government had made a tour of the resorts and had reported to him that the lid was on.

"If Governor Folk intends to send out the militia, why don't he do it and quit talking so much about it?" said another politician. "He keeps the newspapers printing that it will be done and the pubic is getting the impression that we are a lot of banditis in a border town, who are opposed to all law and order."

While deploring the necessity of outside assistance, many citizens will welcome the militia if it will help to rid the county of the dives. The sentiment is that a powerful force is needed to teach the saloon and dive keepers that they are entitled to no more privileges under the law than men in other branches of trade.

DEPRESSION CLOSES BANKS

Two Small Ones in Nevada and South Carolina Close.

Union, S. C., Aug. 5.—The People's bank of this city closed its doors yesterday, pending voluntary liquidation. In a statement issued by the president, D. F. Arthur, general depression is the reason assigned for the action. It is said that depositors are fully protected.

Reno, Nev., Aug. 5.—The Bank of Austin, Nev., one of the oldest banks of that place, failed Tuesday.

According to the cashier, J. A. Miller, jr., however, it is a temporary suspension, as he says the bank has $41,000 in outstanding loans, and $20,000 cash and owes about the same amount. The embarrassment was caused by slow collections.

NEW CURE FOR TETANUS

Lad Discharged From Pasteur Institute in Pittsburg.

Pittsburg, Pa., Aug. 5.—Harry Gilbert, aged 14 years, has been discharged from the Pasteur institute of Pittsburg, where he had been under treatment for the last three weeks for lockjaw.

With his discharge comes the news that Pittsburg physicians have discovered a new cure for tetanus. It is magnesium sulphate injected into the spinal column. It is claimed that this treatment is a preventive rather than a partial cure, such as antitoxin, and that if taken in time will prove efficient.

In the case of young Gilbert injections were started at 5 per cent solutions and gradually increased to 15 per cent. There was also $93 worth of antitoxin used in curing the lad.

CUMMINS FOR SENATOR

THIS IS THE WAY IT LOOKS NOW

Though Twice Thwarted in Ambition to Reach Senate, Death of Senator Allison Opens the Way to State Executive.

Washington, Aug. 5.—The death of Senator Allison makes it almost certain that Governor Cummins will succeed him in the United States senate.

It was to prevent Cummins from getting into the senate that the railroads and the reactionaries of Iowa induced Senator Dolliver to refuse the vice presidency nomination.

Later they prevented the nomination of Cummins as Taft's running mate by their violent protests and their declarations that the recognition of Cummins by the national convention would cause great discord among the republicans of Iowa.

Cummins had been a candidate for the senate against Allison and was beaten in the primaries. It was conceded at the time that no other man than Allison could have won in an open contest before the people against the popular and progressive governor.

Nevertheless the reactionaries construed Allison's victory to be one for themselves and they openly proclaimed that Cummins had lost his grip upon the voters of the state and would no longer be a political factor.

CHILD LABOR IN KANSAS

Labor Commissioner Johnson Discusses Conditions.

Detroit, Mich., Aug. 5.—L. A. Johnson, secretary of the Association of State Labor Commissioners, and labor commissioner of Kansas, read an interesting paper on the situation in his state during the past year.

He paid particular attention to the child labor question and advocated closer relationship between the officers of the labor commission and the truant officers of the various cities and towns as one way of keeping in close touch with child conditions in the factories.

JEALOUS, SHE HIT RIVAL

A ROLLA, MISSOURI, WOMAN ATTACKED A SHOW GIRL ON THE STREET.

THE ASSAULT CAUSED A SENSATION

Mrs. Cox Carries Whip, but Is Thrown by Adversary in Hair-Pulling Contest and Policemen Are Required to Separate Pair.

Rolla, Mo., Aug. 4.—Jealous because her husband had been paying too much attention to Mrs. L. Lehman, a show girl, who was attached to the carnival troupe which exhibited here last week, Mrs. T. E. Cox, 20 years old, confronted Mrs. Lehman on the streets here yesterday and a fist fight and hair pulling match ensued.

Mrs. Lehman, who is comely, young and athletic, soon had her adversary down in the street, yelling for mercy. The services of two policemen were required to separate the two combatants after each had been badly scratched and mauled.

Mrs. Lehman first met Cox at his shooting gallery on the carnival grounds. While examining a rifle she accidentally shot Cox in the back. A physician extracted the bullet, and Mrs. Lehman accompanied Cox to his home to act as nurse.

Both she and Cox were arrested Sunday night and lodged in jail for being too friendly. An hour after Cox had paid their fines and they had been released, Mrs. Cox met the Lehman woman and Cox on the street. The wife attempted to use a whip which she carried, but Cox took it away from her.

As a result of the fight, Cox and Mrs. Lehman were locked up again On promise that she would leave Rolla, Mrs. Lehman was released last night, and she went to St. James, the first station east of here.

Cox paid his fine and departed on the next train for St. James. His wife at the depot, with her arms around his neck, begged him not to leave her. She is a handsome young woman and is now without means of support.

SHOOTING AT CEDAR CITY

Jesse Davis, a Young Merchant, Was Shot by Henry Hale.

Henry Hale, a farmer 30 years of age, today shot and fatally wounded Jesse Davis, a young merchant at South Cedar City, says Tuesday's Jefferson City Democrat.

Davis' father in turn took the revolver away from Hale and hit him over the head with a hatchet, inflicting a deep scalp wound. He was brought to this city and placed under arrest after being treated by Dr. Thorpe.

Hale's wound is not dangerous. Davis will not live until midnight, say his physicians.

Hale accuses Davis of mistreating his (Hale's) wife and baby.

Just how they were mistreated he did not say.

NOT DEAD; ONLY ASLEEP

AFTER GRAVE WAS DUG, 'PHONE MESSAGE SAID WOMAN STILL LIVED.

STRANGE CASE IN BOONE COUNTY

Son Received Telegram From St. Louis Telling Him His Mother Was Dead, but Later It Was Contradicted.

Centralia, Mo., Aug. 4.—"Your mother died at her home, No. 3230 Arsenal street, this morning. Body will be shipped to Hallsville."

This is the message that Elija Christman, who lives near Hallsville, eight miles south of here, received Sunday from St. Louis.

Christman hurriedly notified all the relatives in the neighborhood, a date for the funeral was set, and a grave dug in the family lot of the Hickory Grove church burying ground.

Seven hours later the son was in receipt of a long distance telephone call which told him that his mother was not dead at all, but that she had fallen into a state of coma which the physicians thought was death.

COMMITS SUICIDE IN BANK

New York Institution's Clerk Found Dead in Basement.

New York, Aug. 5.—Charles W. Westerfeld, 22 years old, an assistant bookkeeper of the Produce Exchange bank, committed suicide by shooting himself through the head in the book room of the bank last afternoon just as two checks bearing his signature were presented at the paying teller's window.

Westerfield had no deposit at the bank to meet the checks, which were for $20 each, and the teller detained the man who presented the checks and sent for Westerfield to make an explanation. This resulted in the finding of the young man's body in the vault where the books of the bank are kept.

WINS WITH WIFE'S DIARY

OHIO BANKER DEFEATS EXTRADITION ON CONSPIRACY CHARGE.

H. E. HAYES FOUGHT EXTRADITION

Warrant Read That Offense Was Committed December 18, Last, but Wife's Diary Showed He Was Home That Day.

Cleveland, Aug. 4. — Harry E. Hayes, of the banking firm of J. W. Hayes & Son, of this city, was last afternoon discharged by Judge Strimple at the conclusion of the hearing upon the charge of conspiracy brought by the officials of West New York, N. J., who alleged that the banker had illegally obtained possession of school bonds valued at $105,000.

Hayes fought extradition with habeas corpus proceedings, and used his wife's diary as a weapon. The warrant read that the offense was committed December 18, last. Mrs. Hayes produced her diary to show that her husband was at home that day.

"I always make an entry when my husband leaves town," she testified. "I have no entry in December until the 29th, when he went to Boston."

The court said the evidence had clearly shown that Hayes was not in New Jersey on December 18.

If He Does Not Get It Will Be Obliged to Kill Himself.

"PERSONAL—Father of eight children, to be not obliged to kill himself, needs $500, giving it back $5 weekly, sure."

Chicago, Aug. 5.—The foregoing "want ad" was inserted in a morning newspaper yesterday.

The money is needed to repay his employers a sum he says he lost four months ago. He has not told them of the loss.

The man is an Italian, and working for a Chicago concern. He declared yesterday that he had not told his employers of the loss of their money, lest they would report to the company with which he is bonded, and that he be sent to prison.

An effort is being made to collect a sufficient sum to prevent the man's suicde.

FLAMES NEAR STATE CAPITOL

Two Buildings Burn at Jefferson City and Others Damaged.

Jefferson City, Aug. 5.—Two business houses on High street, situated within a block of the postoffice, and two blocks from the state capitol, burned yesterday.

Two other business houses were so badly damaged that they probably will have to be wrecked, and another business house was badly damaged. Half a dozen other buildings were damaged by water.

The two buildings destroyed were the property of the John G. Schott estate. Of those badly damaged, one belonged to the J. R. Lamkin estate, and the other to A. J. Bauer and George Peasner.

The fire started shortly after 1 o'clock yesterday morning. Only the most effective work on the part of the fire department saved half of the block. The losses are estimated at $30,000.

If you use beer for your health or as a tonic, be sure that you get the best. The difference in cost is only a trifle, while the benefit to your health is incalculable. There is no use to dwell at length on the merits of Budweiser Beer, same is too well known. Its quality has made it not only the leading beverage of America, but in its triumphant march has conquered in all civilized centers of the globe.

Budweiser costs more to make than any other Beer in America, and at that, it outsells any Beer, ten to one, made in the United States.

County Court Proceedings.

(From Wednesday's Daily.)

The judges of the Pettis county court at today's session allowed the criminal fee bills for July, amounting to $478.41. This amount is the smallest presented to the court in many years.

A warrant for $2,561.21 was ordered issued in favor of the commissioners of the twelve-mile road district, and a requisition was ordered made on the state auditor for $15,789.23—Pettis county's proportion of the school fund money.

FINDS $50,000 AND GETS $2

Bill of Small Denomination Driver's Reward for Honesty.

Chicago, Aug. 5.—William Becker, a postoffice wagon driver, yesterday found a $50,000 certified check in the driveway beneath the federal building, and as a reward for his honesty in returning it to its owner, received a nice, crisp $2 bill.

The check was from the Cudahy Packing company and was made payable to the La Salle Oil company. A bank messenger on his way to make a deposit in the sub-treasury dropped the valuable piece of paper in the driveway and returned to the bank without discovering the loss.

TOWN DRY FOR 10 HOURS

WATER MAIN BREAK CAUSES SPRINGFIELD MILLS TO SHUT DOWN.

WORK STOPS AT THE FRISCO SHOPS

Guests at Hotels and Restaurants Had to Content Themselves With Cold Noon Meal, but Did Not Grumble.

Springfield, Mo., Aug. 4.—With the thermometer well up in the 90's Springfield was yesterday without water for fire protection and domestic use for nearly ten hours.

The 24-inch supply pipe near the pumping station, four miles from the city, broke at 3 o'clock yesterday morning and it was nearly ten hours before it was finally repaired.

The Frisco shops and the great majority of the mills and factories were compelled to shut down during the time.

The supply of water in the reservoirs and standpipes was soon exhausted as the result of the accident, and the 50,000 inhabitants of the town were compelled to go without water or to haul it from wells, lakes and cisterns just outside of the city.

The great majority of the hotels and restaurants were compelled to serve cold meals to their guests at the noon hour.

The water supply was restored late last afternoon, and the water company, in order to guard against a repetition of such a breakdown, has put a force of men at work installing a third large supply pipe.

The little Candy Cold Cure Tablets, called Preventics, will in a few hours safely check all colds or la grippe. Try them! 48—25c. Sod by W. E. Bard Drug store.

THE NAVAL MANEUVERS

There Will Also Be an Opportunity for the Study of Torpedo Boats, Which Will Be New Feature of the Tour.

Washington, Aug. 5.—Plans have been completed at the navy department for the point maneuvers of the naval militia battalions of the eastern and New England states, which will begin three days hence in Gardiner's Bay, Long Island Sound.

The tour of duty for the state tars will be the most extensive ever undertaken and will last from next next Saturday until Monday, Aug. 17, two days longer than the time allotted under the original project.

It is announced that Commander Charles C. Marsh, U. S. N., will command the squadron at Gardiner's bay and that he has outlined a program of the tour of duty which differs widely from the maneuvers in former years, as well as comprising interesting details impossible to obtain under the single battalion cruise of the vessel, as has been the plan in previous years.

Besides the converted yachts and other vessels owned by the naval militia of all the states represented in the maneuvers, except Rhode Island and Maine, the Yankee and Prairie of the government's auxiliary cruiser fleet, and the torpedo flotilla, with parent ship, will participate. The Rhode Island battalion will probaby be accommodated on either the Prairie or the Yankee, and these two vessels will probably be utilized in a small part by the overflow detachments from other state naval militia commands which can not be wholly accommodated on their own craft.

Naval officials believe that the plan proposed for this year's maneuvers has many advantages over that in vogue in previous years, inasmuch as it will afford the men an opportunity to obsere and get acquainted with the men of the naval militia of all the northern states participating in the tour of duty. The plan will, it is expected, produce much that is good in the way of uniformity, besides tending to a knowledge of various ideas in other battalions which might be incorporated in the facilitating of training.

There will be two converted yachts owned by the Massachusetts naval militia at Gardiner's Bay, two from New York state, one containing the Jersey City battalion of the New Jersey naval reserves, and two from Connecticut, in addition to the vessels of the regular army. Much interest in the coming maneuvers is evinced by the naval militiamen, especially because of the fact that, for the first time, the program will be carried out for a squadron instead of on board a naval ship, as heretofore.

At Gardiner's Bay there will be boat races and competitive target practice by the crews of various state commands, with maneuvers. The entire tour of duty will not be spent in Gardiner's Bay. On the contrary, a portion of the program, it is said, will comprise sea duty, although of a different class from previous years. There will also be an opportunity for the studying of torpedo boat works, an entirely new feature of the annual tour of duty of the reserves.

The Hill-Katy Rumor.

From time to time rumors are circulated that efforts are being made to secure control of the Missouri, Kansas & Texas railway in the interest of the Great Northern, or Hill system, says a New York dispatch of the 3rd. Recently these reports have received fresh attention, and, although they have obtained no encouragement from statements made by the Hill interests, he is believed to have purchased stock sufficient to control the road.

In view of the growth in recent years of the traffic from the North and Northwest to the ports of export on the Gulf of Mexico, it is believed that the managers of the Great Northern and Northern Pacific properties have had in view the possibility of obtaining a direct route to the gulf.

In many respects the Missouri, Kansas & Texas would furnish a desirable outlet for the Northern Pacific properties referred to. The Chicago, Burlington & Quincy, under joint control of the Northern Pacific and Great Northern, connects with the Missouri Kansas & Texas at Hannibal, St. Louis and Kansas City. From these points the Missouri, Kansas & Texas runs in almost a direct line southward to Galveston, where connection is made with various steamship lines leaving that port.

Notwithstanding that nothing definite can be learned to connect the Hill interests with the recent purchases of Missouri, Kansas & Texas stocks, it is stated by close observers that for some time indications have pointed to a quiet accumulation of these securities, and it is believed that the buyers are acting for important capitalists. The "Katy" board at present is composed of representatives of the Rockefellers and the Dutch bondholders.

TAFT FOLLOWED BRYAN

NEBRASKAN CRIES INFRINGEMENT

An Ohio Man Called Upon Mr. Bryan and Urged That He Address a Personal Letter to Voters in Doubtful States.

Fairview, Lincoln, Neb., Aug. 5.—The use of the phonograph by Candidate Taft as a means for the dissemination of his speeches, as reported in the dispatches from Hot Springs, Va., excited the liveliest interest of William J. Bryan, so much so, that he gave out the following statement in regard to it:

"The republican papers have been making fun of me for using the phonograph as a means of reaching the public, but since the republican candidate has followed the example, I presume that the criticism will cease and that this will now be regarded as a dignified method of discussing public questions.

"It looks as if the democrats are going to have a hard time this year protecting their patents from infringement. The republicans seem bent upon imitating not only our platform, but our campaign methods. There is, however, some advantage in the fact that we are setting the pattern this year."

Among Mr. Bryan's early callers was Edgar C. Schmidt, of Dayton, O., who called at the request of Harvey C. Garber, national committeeman from Ohio, in reference to a plan to reach the voters in the doubtful states with a series of typewritten letters. Mr. Bryan thought well of the proposition.

Mr. Bryan was very much pleased over the decision of Secretary of State Junkin confirming the fusion arranged last spring by the democrats and the people's party.

DIES IN WHIRL OF DEATH

Bicycle "Loop the Looper" Almost Decapitated at Performance.

Coshocton, O., Aug. 4.—William Wilson was instantly killed in a theater here last night when he tried a new kind of "loop the loop," known as the "whirl of death," on a bicycle.

The theater was crowded with women and children who became panic-stricken and rushed to the exits. Many fainted and were trampled in the rush. None was seriously hurt.

Wilson was thrown forward and high in the air his head striking a beam. He was almost decapitated.

Pains of women, head pains, or any pain stopped in 20 minutes sure, with Dr. Shoop's Pink Pain Tablets. See full formula on 25c box. Sold by W. E. Bard drug store.

GAVE A MORNING MUSICAL

Mrs. George F. Longan Was Hostess in Honor of Guests.

(From Wednesday's Daily.)

Mrs. George F. Longan was hostess this morning at a musical to the members of the Rocking Chair club, complimentary to her mother, Mrs. P. G. Walker, of Kansas City, and to the members of the local chapter of the D. A. R., complimentary to her cousin, Mrs. John R. Walker, of Kansas City.

The program was one of rare excellence, the musica lnumbers being given by Misses Agnes Scott Longan and Alice Brown, and the reading numbers by Mrs. H. A. Pratt and Miss Helen Norton, after which Mrs. Walker gave an interesting description of the last meeting of the D. A. R. in Washington, D. C.

The function was one of the most delightful of the season, and was greatly enjoyed by all so fortunate as to be present.

St. Louis Live Stock Market

Special to Democrat-Sentinel.

National Stock Yards, Ill., Aug. 4.—Cattle receipts, 7500, which included only 3,000 natives. Most of those were medium killing grades; nothing strictly choice on sale. All steers good enough to sell at $5.75 or over were fully steady with yesterday; those coming under that price declined about 10c per cwt. Good light butcher heifers sold fully 10c higher than yesterday; medium heifers and all cows about steady. Veal calves strong; top, $6.75. Supplies of stockers and feeders very small, but under limited demands it has been hard work to get steady prices for the small numbers on sale.

Southern division receipts will doubtless decrease during the next few days, and it looks like a steady market for all grades of natives during the remainder of this week, with possibly some strength in the trade for choice grades.

Hog receipts, 9,500; market steady to 5c higher. Tops sold same as yesterday, $6.95, while the bulk of all the hogs today sold at $6.70@6.90. Packers are having hard work to break the market. With shipping demands as good as they are at present, and with no more than customary receipts during the remaining four days of this week, a little reaction towards better prices would not be surprising.

Sheep receipts, 8,000. A large proportion of the total were lambs, and they sold 10c lower than yesterday, tops at $6.25, and most of the good lambs at $5.85@6.15. Sheep strong to a shade higher, bulk of the good mutton sheep selling at $4.25@4.50, with tops at $4.60, and choice breeding ewes up to $5.00. Prospects steady to strong for the good grades.—National Live Stock Commission Co.

HAPPY WOMEN.

Plenty of Them in Sedalia and Good Reason For It.

Wouldn't any woman be happy,
After years of backache suffering,
Days of misery, nights of unrest,
The distress of urinary troubles,
She finds relief and cure?
No reason why any Sedalia reader
Should suffer in the face of evidence like this.

Mrs. T. B. Young, of 714 East Fourth St., Sedalia, Mo., says: "I can simply state that I owe my thanks to Doan's Kidney Pills on account of the relief I obtained from their use. For two or three years I suffered from dull aching and lameness in my back, extending at times clear to the top of my head, and often, after stooping, when I straightened up there would be a swimming in my head and a blurring of the eyesight so severe that I could hardly stand. Doan's Kidney Pills procured at the W. E. Bard Drug Co. have given me greater relief from these troubles than any other medicine I ever used. It is a pleasure to recommend to others a remedy which proved of such great merit as yours did in my case."

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

COLE CAMP ITEMS.

Cole Camp, Aug. 4.

Business has been very dull for the last two weeks, on account of the farmers being busy making hay.

Claus Bruns, from Sedalia, came home Sunday to visit his parents and returned to Sedalia Monday.

The citizens of Cole Camp have come to the conclusion not to have a picnic this month, as it is getting too late in the season for a picnic.

Wm. Eickhoff, our road supervisor, and his force, are kept busy grading and plowing the roads. They are getting the Four-Mile district in good shape.

Your correspondent was sick last week, consequently no news.

Rev. Meyers, Her. Hink, John and C. Heisterberg and families visited at the home of Hy Heisterberg last Sunday.

Sunday morning the report came that a mad dog was in town and in a a few minutes everybody that had a gun was ready to assist in killing the animal. The dog got away and was never seen again.

The county candidates were nearly all in our city Wednesday, shaking hands with voters. We noticed some of them were feeling a little uneasy about not getting enough votes in Williams township.

John Harms, of Lincoln, was in our city Wednesday, trading and talking politics.

The Congregational church is nearly completed, and will be, when finished, a nice building.

The Rev. Meyer will preach at Stover next Sunday, at the mission feast, for Rev. Ludwig's congregation.

There will be a ball game between the Stover boys and our boys today.

WATER LOOSENS ROCKS ON THE MOUNTAIN SIDE, CAUSING LANDSLIDE.

POSTOFFICE IS BADLY WRECKED

Many Residences Destroyed and Others Flooded—Several Mexicans Reported Dead by Press Dispatches.

El Paso, Texas, Aug. 5.—A cloudburst last afternoon did great damage to the town of Bisbee, Ariz., the metropolis of the Warren mining district, a town of 25,000 people.

Bisbee is situated on the sides of two canyons, Brewery Gulch and Tombstone Canyon, they are called, and every flood that comes down does heavy damage, but yesterday's flood was the worst in history.

The landslide that accompanied the cloudburst, which occurred on one of the mountains above the town, crushed in the side of the postoffice, a two-story structure; covered many sacks of mail and injured several of the employes, but none of them fatally.

The wall of dirt covering the partly wrecked structure then backed up the water, and when it ran over it was to flood the library in the second story of the postoffice, and also filled many business houses several feet deep with mud and water.

Many frail residences were swept from the side of the mountain completely, and it is reported that several Mexicans are missing, in some instances whole families, who live in the gulches and in the mountains in the path of the flood.

MOST REMARKABLE FEAT

GEO. W. CONKLING BROKE WIRE SPEED RECORD AT DENVER CONVENTION.

THIS WAS CERTAINLY GOING SOME

Sent 73,000 Words in 28 Hours Over a Wire 2,500 Miles Long—Attained a Speed of 52 Words a Minute at Times.

The long distance newspaper telegraphing record was broken at the Denver convention by George W Conkling, the chief operator of the New York Sun, says the Fourth Estate of Aug. 1.

Working over a wire that stretched more than half way across the continent, about 2,500 miles, Mr. Conkling attained the high speed of 3,136.20 words an hour, or 57.27 words to the minute, a record which has never before been equaled anywhere.

Furthermore, Mr. Conkling, in just twenty-eight working hours, sent over this wire to his paper by the Morse system, and using the Phillips code, a total of 73,000 words, an average of 2,607.14 an hour, or 43.45 words a minute.

Much of this matter was sent from a seat in front of the speaker's stand in the convention hall while pandemonium was being raised.

The wire worked by Mr. Conkling was a duplex circuit. It really was four wires joined together by the Western Union for this emergency. It ran from Denver to Kansas City, thence to St. Louis, thence to Pittsburg, thence to New York.

It is impossible to transmit sounds over such a distance without the aid of repeaters, which are nothing more than automatic relays. These were in Kansas City, St. Louis and Pittsburg.

At each of these men were stationed at the direction of Mr. Conkling to "refine" the wire, as the operators say. Their duty was to keep readjusting the repeaters and to make sure the circuit was just right, in spite of weather conditions and other things.

To send an average of 2,600 words an hour it is absolutely necessary that every letter should be distinct, otherwise the man receiving will have to break in and have it repeated. The man at the receiving end of the wire from Denver, H. R. Clark, did not break in on Mr. Conkling once in three hours, a record in itself.

In the long session of Thursday night, at which Mr. Bryan was nominated at 3:45 a. m., Denver time, words were flashed from Denver right into the New York office at the rate of fifty-two a minute and were taken by Mr. Clark on a typewriter without a break, the ticks of the instrument in the office being as distinct as if the wire ran to Harlem instead of the Rockies. Besides being a record for speed, it was also one for endurance.

On July 7, the first day of the convention, Mr. Conkling sent 14,750 words in five hours and twenty-three minutes, an average of 2,789 words an hour. On July 8 he increased the average to 2,949 words an hour, sending 8,100 words in two hours and forty-five minutes, and on the day following the record was 5,750 words in two hours and fifty minutes, or 3,136 words an hour.

The last day of the convention Mr. Conkling sent 10,370 words in three hours and twenty minutes, or 3,111 words in an hour, which was only a shade under his record of the previous day.

Not only is this put down as a record as long distance work goes, but there is nothing in the archives to show that it has ever been done over short lines.

Mr. Conkling in 1903 won a silver loving cup as the most perfect sender with a Morse key.

Mr. Clark some years ago received and wrote on a typewriter a president's message containing 22,000 words in ten hours without misplacing a single letter or breaking in on the sending operator.

The Grievance of Switchmen.

United States Commissioner of Labor Charles P. Neill at Scranton, Pa., Monday, notified Grand Master Hawley, of the Switchmen's union, that he will at once take the necessary steps to bring about a settlement of the grievances of the switchmen of the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western railway. The grievance board is holding an executive session.

A New York dispatch of Monday says: William H. Truesdale, president of the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western railroad, who is at Loon Lake, in the Adirondacks, said over the telephone today: "I have not changed my views in regard to the situation. This is simply a question of discipline, and the men must submit to discipline in our company as they would have to in any other business concern."

"Do you still adhere to your decision not to receive any representatives or special committees from the Switchmen's union, in view of the fact that the commissioner of labor is now interceding with the men?"

"Yes. Whatever he does can not make any difference with the decision I have reached, so far as that is concerned."

"Will there be any strike."

"No, I don't think there will. It may be that when the commissioner explains the situation, thoroughly they will see that they are wrong, and I expect it to end there."

SEES CRIME IN A TRANCE

TELLS HOW DR. WHITNEY CAME TO HIS DEATH NEAR CARTHAGE, MO.

WAS STUNNED AND THEN POISONED

Police Take Her Tip and Hunt for a Doctor—$5,000 Accident Policy Hangs on Coroner's Jury Verdict.

Joplin, Mo., Aug. 4.—Dr. L. E. Whitney, of Carthage, who was found unconscious under the heels of his horse near there last Thursday at dawn, and who died seven hours later, was murdered by being poisoned after he was knocked unconscious by a blow from a revolver, says Mrs. John W. Powers, of Joplin, who claims that in a clairvoyant trance she saw the physician killed.

Mrs. Powers, Mrs. G. T. McReynolds and Mrs. S. O. Eells formed a a spiritualistic circle at the Powers residence. They went into a trance, according to the story. The women saw the doctor leave his office and drive off on a lonely road.

They saw a man jump out and grab the horse and then a woman leap from the roadside and hold the animal while the man struck the doctor with a revolver. The man opened the doctor's medicine case and administered the drug and placed the the body under the heels of the horse.

Working on this clue, the police are looking for a physician, because they believe only a physician would know how to select the poison from a medicine case. The case could not be found when the doctor's body was first discovered, but was found late Thursday afternoon, having been placed near the scene during the noon hour.

$5,000 Insurance at Stake.

Carthage, Mo. Aug. 4.—The $5,000 accident insurance policy carried by Dr. L. E. Whitney, the late city physician found dying by the roadside last Wednesday, hangs in the balance, awaiting the decision Friday of the coroner's jury. The policy is drawn in favor of the Whitney family, but contains a clause which invalidates it in case of homicide.

Constable Ed Hansford was called from bed and left for Joplin. Hansford admitted his trip was made in connection with the curtained buggy believed to have carried the mysterious man and woman who figure so prominently in the mystery. The curtained buggy was seen in Joplin early Thursday morning, and the buggy is believed to have been hired from a Joplin livery barn.

It was learned that a party of motorists who were returning to Carthage from Joplin shortly before midnight on the night of Dr. Whitney's death ride, met the heavily curtained buggy driving in the direction of Joplin.

The chaffeur, curious as to why the buggy should be curtained on a warm clear night, turned his machine so as to throw his lights directly into the faces of the occupants of the buggy, a man and woman. Immediately the woman picked up the lap robe and covered the face of her companion, not removing the robe until the automobile had passed. The man drove the horse into the ditch alongside the road.

The description of the occupants of the buggy as given tallies in every way with that given by Mr. and Mrs. Sam Reynolds and by Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hannum, who met the curtained buggy earlier in the evening, and which is said to have followed Dr. Whitney.

The will of Dr. Whitney was offered for probate, but will not be officially acted upon until two living witnesses can be secured and brought here. The will was signed in 1886, and the living witnesses are Daniel W. Brown, of Kansas City, Mo., and W. A. Sloan, who resides in California. Half of the estate is left to Mrs. Whitney and the other half to the daughters, Ruth and Ethel. Mrs. Whitney is executrix.

EIGHT PERSONS REPORTED DEAD

Three Big Grain Houses and Burlington Freight Depot Destroyed—Flames Jump River and Many Sightseers Hurt.

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 4.—The most extensive and disastrous conflagration in Chicago since the great fire of 1871 swept through the elevator and freight warehouse district, bounded by Sixteenth street, Canal street and the Chicago river yesterday afternoon. Eight men are reported dead in the ruins. The list of injured numbers more than fifty. Hundreds were hemmed in by the roaring walls of flame, which, fanned by a wind amounting almost to a gale, swept the district.

An area of six city blocks was burned over. Armour & Co.'s enormous grain elevators "E" and "F" and the Union Elevator company's big elevator, were destroyed. They contained 1,875,000 bushels of wheat. Between 500 and 600 freight cars, many of them stored with freight, were destroyed in the Burlington yards.

The freight warehouse used jointly by the Burlington and Pennsylvania railroads, was burned, the freight house of the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern badly damaged, and that of the Chicago & Eastern Illinois threatened.

A conservative estimate of the property loss puts the figures at from $2,000,000 to $3,000,000.

The fire started at 12:30 p. m., when, it is said, a railroad employe tossed the stub of a lighted cigarette away. The burning cigarette happened to light on some rubbish surrounding a number of barrels of chemicals. The fire started quickly and was followed almost instantly by an explosion which scattered the flames far and wide and gave the fire a tremendous start before the fire department could arrive upon the scene.

Every available engine in the city was rushed to the scene, but so rapidly did the flames spread that the firemen were unable to make any headway in fighting them. Grain elevators, freight sheds freight cars and buildings were swept away like chaff, and by 2 o'clock the flames had jumped the Chicago river, endangering the railroad and manufacturing district on the East Side.

An immense crowd of sightseers was packed along the east bank of the river, and when the flames leaped the stream many men and boys were injured in a wild scramble to escape the oncoming flames.

Twenty fire companies made a flank move and were hurried across the river ten minutes before the flames had gained a foothold on the south side. In spite of this, the freight warehouse of the Chicago & Eastern Illinois was soon in flames and the flames threatening to work their way through the maze of railroad tracks and warehouses to Clark street.

The fire was rendered more spectacular by the efforts of the firemen and salvage men to prevent the flames from reaching hundreds of barrels of oils and chemicals stored in the warehouses along the river. To prevent explosions, these hundreds of barrels, already almost too hot to handle, were thrown into the river. The concussion, slight as it was, caused many to explode, throwing great columns of water high into the air and adding a weird aspect to the scene.

Eighty engine companies—four-fifths of the city's fire fighting apparatus—were battling at 2:30 o'clock in an endeavor to get the flames under control, but with little success. From West Fourteenth street to West Sixteenth street, and from Lumber street to the river, a solid mass of flames prevented the firemen from getting into the heart of the blaze. Four fireboats poured tons of water upon the blazing plants, but with little effect. The heavy streams of water were transformed into clouds of steam and the paint on the sides of the fireboats peeled and blistered from the intense heat. Finally the fireboat Illinois was compelled to withdraw from the maelstrom of flames.

Habit So Strong, New Yorker Breaks Into Drug Stores.

New York, Aug. 3.—That scientific investigator who discovered that it is possible to become thoroughly, although not hilariously intoxicated on plain water, had a disciple with a slight difference Saturday, in West Side court, where Magistrate Cornell was surprised to hear Frank McGregor, 6 feet tall, and weighing 206 pounds, confess that to him life is a dreary waste unless he can get all the vanila ice cream soda he wants.

"I got him, Judge," said Policeman Carroll, "as he was trying to break into a drug store at No. 2715 Broadway long after closing time this morning. I thought he was a burglar. 'Hands up!' I says. 'Leave me be,' he says to me, 'I'm going after a glass of my favorite beverage.'"

With McGregor at the time of the arrest was Edward Roach. He said he had been present at the drug store as a guest.

"When McGregor has that ice cream soda fit on him," said Roach timidly, "he is not himself. He was going to break in the door of the drug store to get the soda water for us."

Magistrate Cornell said he would accept the assurance of Policeman Carroll that, in his opinion, there was more than the soda fountain in the drug store of interest to McGregor and Roach. He held them in bond of $1,000 for examination upon a charge of attempted burglary.

AUTHORITIES AT CARTHAGE, MO., NOW WORKING ON NEW THEORY.

Carthage, Mo., Aug. 5.—The authorities have been baffled in all attempts to find the missing 16-year-old girl who is wanted in connection with the attempt to solve the mystery of the murder of Dr. Lawrence E. Whitney. They are investigating reports that she is secreted at the home of a relative a few miles from the scene of the murder. Another report is that she is in St. Joseph.

The original theory that Dr. Whitney was attacked on the lonely country road where his body was found has been abandoned. It is now the belief of the officers that he was slain within a house where he had been summoned, and that he was taken in his own buggy to the place where he was found and the body carefully placed under the wheels to give the appearance that he was killed by falling from the buggy.

In support of this theory the officers point to the fact that his medicine case and hat were missing when the body was found, and that several hours after his body was removed both case and hat were found lying in plain view in the road, where dozens of persons had been searching for them. There was no dirt on the hat, indicating to the officers that it had been carried to the road and that it had not fallen from Dr. Whitney's head.

Sheriff W. B. Parker and the Rev. Mr. O'Merara, rector of the Episcopal church of Carthage, who was a friend of Dr. Whitney and who has been untiring in his efforts to trace the murderer, drove Dr. Whitney's horse over the road he traveled on the fatal night.

The horse, given loose rein, started to enter a lane leading to a farm house, indicating the officers say, that the horse had been accustomed to being driven there. Persons living in the house deny that Dr. Whitney ever called there professionally or socially, and say they did not even know him.

The officers are frank to admit that they have no conclusive evidence against any person, and that unless the missing girl is found the motive for the murder will be lacking and their work will have been in vain. Sheriff Parker said today that he did not expect to have any evidence to warrant an arrest for at least a week.

It is expected that the officers will give closer attention to the murder case after today, as the primary is now over. They were candidates for re election and devoted much of their time to political affairs.

A number of leading citizens of Carthage have subscribed to a fund to be used in employing a detective to work on the mystery, in the hope of apprehending the murderer.

Burial of Oscar Kaiser.

Funeral services over the remains of Oscar Kaiser a former Missouri Pacific fireman, who shot himself early yesterday morning, were conducted at Kaiser's hotel at 9 o'clock this morning, Rev. James Parsons, assisted by Rev. J. F. Caskey, officiating.

GEO. W. CONKLING BROKE WIRE SPEED RECORD AT DENVER CONVENTION.

THIS WAS CERTAINLY GOING SOME

Sent 73,000 Words in 28 Hours Over a Wire 2,500 Miles Long—Attained a Speed of 52 Words a Minute at Times.

The long distance newspaper telegraphing record was broken at the Denver convention by George W Conkling, the chief operator of the New York Sun, says the Fourth Estate of Aug. 1.

Working over a wire that stretched more than half way across the continent, about 2,500 miles, Mr. Conkling attained the high speed of 3,136.20 words an hour, or 57.27 words to the minute, a record which has never before been equaled anywhere.

Furthermore, Mr. Conkling, in just twenty-eight working hours, sent over this wire to his paper by the Morse system, and using the Phillips code, a total of 73,000 words, an average of 2,607.14 an hour, or 43.45 words a minute.

Much of this matter was sent from a seat in front of the speaker's stand in the convention hall while pandemonium was being raised.

The wire worked by Mr. Conkling was a duplex circuit. It really was four wires joined together by the Western Union for this emergency. It ran from Denver to Kansas City, thence to St. Louis, thence to Pittsburg, thence to New York.

It is impossible to transmit sounds over such a distance without the aid of repeaters, which are nothing more than automatic relays. These were in Kansas City, St. Louis and Pittsburg.

At each of these men were stationed at the direction of Mr. Conkling to "refine" the wire, as the operators say. Their duty was to keep readjusting the repeaters and to make sure the circuit was just right, in spite of weather conditions and other things.

To send an average of 2,600 words an hour it is absolutely necessary that every letter should be distinct, otherwise the man receiving will have to break in and have it repeated. The man at the receiving end of the wire from Denver, H. R. Clark, did not break in on Mr. Conkling once in three hours, a record in itself.

In the long session of Thursday night, at which Mr. Bryan was nominated at 3:45 a. m., Denver time, words were flashed from Denver right into the New York office at the rate of fifty-two a minute and were taken by Mr. Clark on a typewriter without a break, the ticks of the instrument in the office being as distinct as if the wire ran to Harlem instead of the Rockies. Besides being a record for speed, it was also one for endurance.

On July 7, the first day of the convention, Mr. Conkling sent 14,750 words in five hours and twenty-three minutes, an average of 2,789 words an hour. On July 8 he increased the average to 2,949 words an hour, sending 8,100 words in two hours and forty-five minutes, and on the day following the record was 5,550 words in two hours and fifty minutes, or 3,136 words an hour.

The last day of the convention Mr. Conkling sent 10,370 words in three hours and twenty minutes, or 3,111 words in an hour, which was only a shade under his record of the previous day.

Not only is this put down as a record as long distance work goes, but there is nothing in the archives to show that it has ever been done over short lines.

Mr. Conkling in 1903 won a silver loving cup as the most perfect sender with a Morse key.

Mr. Clark some years ago received and wrote on a typewriter a president's message containing 22,000 words in ten hours without misplacing a single letter or breaking in on the sending operator.

The Grievance of Switchmen.

United States Commissioner of Labor Charles P. Neill at Scranton, Pa., Monday, notified Grand Master Hawley, of the Switchmen's union, that he will at once take the necessary steps to bring about a settlement of the grievances of the switchmen of the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western railway. The grievance board is holding an executive session.

A New York dispatch of Monday says: William H. Truesdale, president of the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western railroad, who is at Loon Lake, in the Adirondacks, said over the telephone today: "I have not changed my views in regard to the situation. This is simply a question of discipline, and the men must submit to discipline in our company as they would have to in any other business concern."

"Do you still adhere to your decision not to receive any representatives or special committees from the Switchmen's union, in view of the fact that the commissioner of labor is now interceding with the men?"

"Yes. Whatever he does can not make any difference with the decision I have reached, so far as that is concerned."

"Will there be any strike."

"No, I don't think there will. It may be that when the commissioner explains the situation, thoroughly they will see that they are wrong, and I expect it to end there."

SEES CRIME IN A TRANCE

TELLS HOW DR. WHITNEY CAME TO HIS DEATH NEAR CARTHAGE, MO.

WAS STUNNED AND THEN POISONED

Police Take Her Tip and Hunt for a Doctor—$5,000 Accident Policy Hangs on Coroner's Jury Verdict.

Joplin, Mo., Aug. 4.—Dr. L. E. Whitney, of Carthage, who was found unconscious under the heels of his horse near there last Thursday at dawn, and who died seven hours later, was murdered by being poisoned after he was knocked unconscious by a blow from a revolver, says Mrs. John W. Powers, of Joplin, who claims that in a clairvoyant trance she saw the physician killed.

Mrs. Powers, Mrs. G. T. McReynolds and Mrs. S. O. Eells formed a a spiritualistic circle at the Powers residence. They went into a trance, according to the story. The women saw the doctor leave his office and drive off on a lonely road.

They saw a man jump out and grab the horse and then a woman leap from the roadside and hold the animal while the man struck the doctor with a revolver. The man opened the doctor's medicine case and administered the drug and placed the the body under the heels of the horse.

Working on this clue, the police are looking for a physician, because they believe only a physician would know how to select the poison from a medicine case. The case could not be found when the doctor's body was first discovered, but was found late Thursday afternoon, having been placed near the scene during the noon hour.

$5,000 Insurance at Stake.

Carthage, Mo. Aug. 4.—The $5,000 accident insurance policy carried by Dr. L. E. Whitney, the late city physician found dying by the roadside last Wednesday, hangs in the balance, awaiting the decision Friday of the coroner's jury. The policy is drawn in favor of the Whitney family, but contains a clause which invalidates it in case of homicide.

Constable Ed Hansford was called from bed and left for Joplin. Hansford admitted his trip was made in connection with the curtained buggy believed to have carried the mysterious man and woman who figure so prominently in the mystery. The curtained buggy was seen in Joplin early Thursday morning, and the buggy is believed to have been hired from a Joplin livery barn.

It was learned that a party of motorists who were returning to Carthage from Joplin shortly before midnight on the night of Dr. Whitney's death ride, met the heavily curtained buggy driving in the direction of Joplin.

The chaffeur, curious as to why the buggy should be curtained on a warm clear night, turned his machine so as to throw his lights directly into the faces of the occupants of the buggy, a man and woman. Immediately the woman picked up the lap robe and covered the face of her companion, not removing the robe until the automobile had passed. The man drove the horse into the ditch alongside the road.

The description of the occupants of the buggy as given tallies in every way with that given by Mr. and Mrs. Sam Reynolds and by Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hannum, who met the curtained buggy earlier in the evening, and which is said to have followed Dr. Whitney.

The will of Dr. Whitney was offered for probate, but will not be officially acted upon until two living witnesses can be secured and brought here. The will was signed in 1886, and the living witnesses are Daniel W. Brown, of Kansas City, Mo., and W. A. Sloan, who resides in California. Half of the estate is left to Mrs. Whitney and the other half to the daughters, Ruth and Ethel. Mrs. Whitney is executrix.

TOOK A "NAP" IN CHURCH

Uncle John Landers Paid Two Bits for the Privilege.

Lawrenceville Ohio, Aug. 3.—No more naps in Sunday school for Uncle John Landers. No siree; not when they come at 25 cents per nap.

Uncle John is one of the moving spirits in the Methodist Sunday school at Lawrenceville. After he gets there, however, and leads in the singing of the opening hymn, it has been his custom to seek a secluded spot near an open window where the breeze can reach him and then nod off to dreamland.

He followed his usual program yesterday and was charged for lodging during the time he slept. Uncle John paid.

"ALICE" ENDED A STRIKE

Pays Waitresses $5 a Day While She Is at Yellowstone Hotel.

Cheyenne, Wyo., Aug. 3.—"Servants all on strike? Oh, that's all right. Just tell the girls I'll give them $5 a day each if they'll work while we are here; and ask them if they won't do it as a personal favor to me."

This is the way Mrs. Alice Roosevelt Longworth solved the servant girl problem in the Yellowstone Park. The party went to Yellowstone from the Denver convention. They found the park crowded with tourists and the few waitresses so overworked that they struck when the Longworth party arrived. Mrs. Longworth's generosity solved the problem, and the waitresses resumed work.

CLEAR SKY LIGHTNING KILLS

Farmer's Son Meets Death From Bolt on Fair Day.

Danville, Ill. Aug. 5.—Thomas Sowers, 18 years of age, son of George Sowers, a farmer of Coal Creek, Ind., was killed last afternoon by being struck by lightning, while hauling a load of wheat.

At the time of the accident there was no signs of a storm and it was undoubtedly heat lightning.

SHOT HIS SWEETHEART

ALSO KILLED HER ESCORT AND THEN PUT BULLET INTO HIS OWN BRAIN.

FEARED GIRL WILL NOT RECOVER

Jim Kelly, Finding Rival Driving With Miss Sleeter Near Metropolis, Ill., Becomes Crazed and Fires.

Metropolis, Ill., Aug. 4.—When Jim Kelly, a 19-year-old youth, met his sweetheart, Miss Eva Sleeter, and Link James, a young butcher, driving near Metropolis late Sunday night, he killed James, shot the girl in the abdomen and blew out his own brains. Kelly was crazed with jealousy.

Kelly was driving with Miss Lena Oliver, at Forktown, six miles from Metropolis, when they heard a buggy come up behind them.

Kelly evidently knew who was pursuing, for he quickly turned his horse and stopped.

Leaping to the ground, Kelly began firing. James was killed at the first shot. Miss Sleeter was shot in the abdomen and is believed to be dying.

Standing in the road, Kelly then turned the pistol on himself and almost blew off the top of his head. He made no attempt to shoot Miss Oliver, who fled at the first shot.

VICIOUS DOG ATTACKS BABY

Bull Lacerates Child's Head; Is Killed by Rescuers.

Hallsville, Mo., Aug. 3.—Mamie Ruth Weldon, the 4-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Zadac Weldon, was attacked by a vicious bulldog here Saturday. The animal lacerated the child's head.

Her cries attracted Louis Rice, who beat off the dog, which was afterwards killed. Dr. R. S. Austin, who dressed the girl's wounds, expects her recovery if there are no complications.

The Dr. Camp Medical Co.,

Sedalia's Leading Specialists

We, as specialists, recognize no superior in the treatment of chronic, nervous and special diseases of men and women. We have searched the world over in acquiring special knowledge for the cause and cure of deep-seated chronic and complicated conditions that affect the human system. Our new and perfected course of systematic medication, the modern Americanized European method of treatment is working wonders in a large number of cases heretofore classed as incurable.

By these wonderful methods the sick can now be given the benefit of a class of treatment and a quality of skill that they have never had before without going to Europe. We have brought to this city the Great Medical Discoveries and inventions of the old world, in addition to the very latest and best that modern American medical science has to offer for the cure of many chronic deep-seated and special diseases that so baffle the skill of all those who employ the ordinary methods.

Our Great Medical Offices Are Now a Wonderland of Science

COST has not been considered in fitting them up and equipping them with every known modern device and mechanism for studying and conquering disease by our new and advanced methods. Here is constantly being waged the great battle between life and death. Here Modern Medical Science and skill are arrayed against man's arch enemy—disease—by specialists who are devoting their very lives for the betterment of their fellow man regardless of the pecuniary rewards received.

Scientific Use of Drugs

OUR LONG EXPERIENCE AND INVESTIGATION in the science and use of drugs have so broadened our views that we adhere to no creed, sect, dogma or special school of medicine in the use of our remedies, but we select the best of all from the animal, vegetable and mineral kingdoms and combine them in our own special laboratory and scientifically prescribe them as the susceptability of each individual case requires. The results are therefore thorough, certain and permanent.

Overcoming all weakness and restoring the aged to normal health and vigor. Curing diseases of the Stomach, Liver, Kidneys, Spleen, Bowels, Bladder, Nerves and Genito-Urinary Diseases of Men and Women.

WE POSITIVELY cure Cancer, Piles and Fistula without pain or cutting, as well as Varicose Veins and Vericocele. We Restore the Sight, the Hearing and the Sense of Smell.

Inhalatorium

Our wonderful Inhalatorium Treatment is unsurpassed for all diseases of the Lungs, the Throat, the Nose—Catarrh of any organ of the system.

You need not fear the oncoming of the Great White Plague, Consumption, if you consult us in time. Many come from a distance to avail themselves of this remarkable cure.

Weak Women

Women's Department—We pride ourselves on our great achievement in restoring the gentler sex to health, strength and beauty. MANY AUTO ACCIDENTS

CAR WENT DOWN EMBANKMENT AND FIVE KILLED IN CALIFORNIA.

A KANSAS JUDGE LOST HIS LIFE

Two Are Hurt in a Trial Run in New Jersey—Second Death From Collision in New York—Fatal Race in England.

San Francisco, Cal., Aug. 4.—The second disastrous automobile accident within forty-eight hours, involving prominent San Francisco people, occurred last afternoon near Burlingame, the fashionable suburb of this city, when a huge motor car occupied by five women and two children plunged down a steep embankment as the result of the snapping of the brakes and caused the death of five of the occupants and injuring of two others.

Kansas Judge Loses His Life.

Hutchinson, Kas., Aug. 4.—Judge George A. Vandeveer, a member of the law firm of Vandeever & Martin, and republican candidate for judge of the Ninth judicial district with almost a certainty that he would have been nominated at today's primaries, was instantly killed last afternoon at 5:30 o'clock, when an automobile in which he was riding was struck by the Rock Island Golden State limited on a crossing in the east end of the city.

Dorrell Taylor,, driving the machine, was also struck and seriously injured and is in a local hospital. He will recover.

Two Hurt in Trial Run.

Wildwood, N. J., Aug. 4.—While Richard Sellers, of Philadelphia, was making a trial run along the boulebard here prior to the opening of the automobile races last afternoon, the battery box of his racing machine dropped off.

The car skidded, turned turtle and righted itself again. Sellers landed on his head and shoulders and was picked up unconscious. He sustained a dislocated shoulder and skull injuries, but will recover.

Richard Williams, who was driving the car, escaped with slight lacerations.

Three Mashed Into the Mud.

Jefferson, Ia., Aug. 4.—Druggist C. W. Taylor was almost killed in an automobile accident with several members of his family and his sister, Mrs. Tyler, of Chicago.

The party left here yesterday morning to go to Fort Dodge in Taylor's new touring car.

Twelve miles north, while crossing the high grade over a large pond, a tire blew up just as the steering wheel plunged into a deep hole. The machine toppled into the water and turned over, pinning Mr. Taylor, his sister and five children underneath the machine. Mrs. Taylor escaped.

Mr. Taylor was pressed deep into the mud, as were also two children, the three being in the water five minutes and were unconscious when rescued.

Second Death From Collision.

New York, Aug. 4.—A second death may result from the collision between an automobile and a Susquehanna railroad train at the crossing of Bogota Sunday night.

James Shaw, of Paterson, the chauffeur, was in a critical condition at the Hackensack hospital yesterday and it was feared he would not survive. Donald Holmes, a lawyer of Paterson, was instantly killed, and four others besides Shaw were injured.

Killed in Automobile Race.

London, Aug. 4.—The motor racing at the Brooklands track last afternoon in the presence of a great crowd of people resulted in two serious accidents, one of which proved fatal.

A Mercedes car containing Driver Lane and his mechanic, William Burke, slipped sideways down the track, narrowly missed another car and turned over, throwing its occupants into a pond. Both men were taken out alive, but Burke died before reaching the steward's room. Lane had a broken arm and sustained other injuries. The car was burned. All further racing was stopped.

Previously a heavy car while speeding at a rate of nearly 100 miles an hour, broke a back tire. The driver of the machine, Reynolds, and his mechanic were thrown several feet. They landed on soft ground, but were badly scratched and it is feared injured internally.

Engines Are on the "Bum."

It is high time General Manager A. W. Sullivan, of the Missouri Pacific, was opening the company's shops at different points on the system. Engine failures, then more engine failures, continue to occur each day and every hour of the day, and trains of every description and class are delayed hours at a time as a result of disabled locomotives.

Every train on the Missouri Pacific on this division was delayed today, not a single one arriving on time. Even the fast mail train is acquiring the habit of arriving late, and the many uncomplimentary comments heard about the once famous "Old Reliable," now commonly known as the "old fizzle," ought to be sufficient to cause the company officials to reopen their shops and get busy on the scrap heap engines.

WORLD COMING TO END

ELIJAH BROKE AND PREPARES FOR MILLENNIUM BY SWIMMING.

THE WIND-UP COMES IN OCTOBER

In the Meantime, However, Sedalians Had Better Keep at Work and Make Enough to Pay for Their Winter Fuel.

Shiloh, Me., Aug. 4—"Elijah" Frank W. Sandford, founder of the Holy Ghost and Us society, is ill and destitute at his headquarters in the Holy Land, and a cablegram has been received from him asking for aid.

Mrs. Sandford, also, is reported to be in feeble health. "Moses" Charles E. Holland, who is in charge at Shiloh, is preparing to sail on the yacht Kingdom with money and supplies to relieve them.

It was announced in the chapel that a message had been received from Sandford saying that the world will come to an end in October, and warning the Shilohites to be prepared.

Holland is now negotiating with a New York yacht club for two discarded vessels to be used to transport the colony to Jerusalem before October.

On orders from Sandford all the Shilohites, men, women and children, are learning to swim. The men, in charge of Elder Tuper, take a plunge every day at 6 a. m., while the women, in charge of Elder Hatch, take their bath in the Androscoggin river each day at 10:30 a. m.

There is much sickness and insanity at Shiloh. Recently a Mrs. Shaw, who came here from New York several years ago, was sent to the insane asylum at Augusta.

WEIGHED OVER 500 POUNDS

Fifteen Pallbearers and 26 Men to Lower Body Into Grave.

Pittsburg, Pa., Aug. 4.—The funeral of Mrs. Annie E. Lynch, of McKeesport, Pa., who died last Friday of elephantiasis, the woman at the time of her death weighing over 500 pounds, was held Saturday.

The casket weighed 350 pounds, and with the iron supports and the body, the total weight was 1,200 pounds. It required twelve men and three hours' work to get the body into the casket, and twenty-six men handled the straps and ropes in lowering the casket into the grave.

Fifteen pallbearers carried the casket, which had to be put through a large window and conveyed to the cemetery in a wagon, as there was no hearse large enough for the purpose.

More than 5,000 persons attended the funeral.

A VICTORY FOR MR. BRYAN

Allow Filing of Democratic-People's Presidential Electors.

Lincoln, Neb., Aug. 4.—The secretary of state rendered his decision yesterday in the case of the protest of Victor Rosewater, republican national committeeman, against the placing of the same names on the official ballot for presidential electors under the title of democratic and peoples' independent party.

Secretary Junkin decided against the protest on the ground that the same men were named for electors by both conventions, and that since no protest having been entered by any member of either party, he assumes that the action of the conventions was satisfactory to the voters they represented.

"COME-ON" IS DETECTIVE

CATCHES ALLEGED "GREEN GOODS" MEN WHO MAY BE WIRE TAPPERS.

MADE 'EM HANDCUFF THEMSELVES

Registered as a "Reuben" From Michigan, Got His Men Dead to Rights and Took Them Into Custody in Short Order.

New York, Aug. 4.—Two men claimed by the police to have been members of the wire-tapping gang that got the major portion of $600,000 from William F. Walker, the New Britain, Conn., savings bank defaulter, were captured in the back room of a Brooklyn restaurant last night.

According to the police, the prisoners, who gave their names as James McVickar, 52 years old, of Brooklyn, and Charles T. Forbes, 34 years old, of Manhattan, have written many letters to Louis E. Ruthuff, of Belleview, Mich., regarding the sale of counterfeit money and finally a plan was decided upon to trap the alleged "green goods" men.

It was arranged that Ruthuff should write that he intended coming to New York. By a return mail he received a letter, it is alleged, giving him a password.

Instead of Ruthuff, Detective Gegan boarded the train, and upon arrival registered at a hotel under the name of Ruthuff.

Soon, Detective Gegan said, he received a telephone call from one of the alleged "green goods" men, and an appointment was made.

Detective Gegan told of going to the Brooklyn restaurant, of meeting the prisoners, of the production of a package alleged to contain counterfeit money and then of his placing the men under arrest.

He drew his revolver and made the men handcuff themselves.

BRISTOW DEFEATS LONG

In Kansas an Outsider Will Take Seat in United States Senate.

Topeka, Aug. 5.—While the results of the primaries in Kansas can not be stated positively, early returns indicate the probable nomination of W. R. Stubbs, of Lawrence, for governor on the republican ticket, over Leland, and naming Joseph L. Bristow, editor of the Salina Journal and former fourth assistant postmaster general, for United States senator over Senator Long.

Few democratic votes were cast, but the returns indicate that W. N. Ryan will be the party nominee for governor, and Hugh Farrelly the senatorial nominee.

WAS SENTENCED TO DEATH

Mrs. Mollie Stewart's Motion for New Trial Overruled.

Ottawa, Kan., Aug. 4.—District Judge Smart yesterday sentenced Mrs. Mollie Stewart to death, under the law as it existed at the time the crime was committed, for the murder of Jane Schneck and her two children.

Motion for new trial was overruled and Mrs. Stewart and Frank Schneck were ordered taken to the penitentiary at once. Schneck has been held in jail here since his conviction in April pending a completion of his appeal to the supreme court.

SENATOR ALLISON DEAD

Oldest Member of the Upper House of Congress Passed Away Today.

Dubuque, Ia., Aug. 4.—United States Senator William B. Allison died of heart failure here this afternoon, aged 79 years.

Senator Allison was in point of service the oldest member of the upper house of congress, having been first elected in 1873.

He was born at Perry, Ohio, March 2, 1829, and removed to Iowa in 1867. He was elected a representative in the thirty-eighth, thirty-ninth, fortieth and forty-first congresses, going to the senate March 4, 1873, and was re-elected every term since.

His present term would have expired March 3, 1909.

BISKED LIFE FOR A GAME

Pennsylvania Boy Fell Into an Old Mine Catching a "Fly."

Pittsburg, Pa., Aug. 4.—Rather than drop a ball which would have meant the loss of a hard fought game, William Rainey, 12 years old, Sunday evening took great chances, and, though he held the game safe, he may lose his life. He fell into an abandoned coal mine in the outfield on Gazzam's hill, where the game was being played.

Rainey was playing center, and the last half of the ninth inning had come, with two players out and two men on bases. The batsman hit a long drive which looked as if it would go over Rainey's head, but he ran backward far and fast, not heeding the warning cries of his younger brother.

Finally, by a big jump, Rainey got the ball in one hand, but as he reached the earth again, he stumbled and lurched into the mouth of the mine. One of his legs was broken in the fall and he suffered internal injuries which may prove fatal.

GEORGE A. PETTIBONE DIES

Charged With Complicity in Murder of Ex-Governor of Idaho.

Denver, Col., Aug. 4.—George A. Pettibone, for years prominent in the councils of the Western Federation of Miners, and charged with President Moyer and former Secretary Haywood, with complicity in the murder of former Governor Steunenberg, of Idaho, died at St. Joseph's hospital last night from the effects of an operation for cancer.

Pettibone has been ill practically ever since his confinement in the Idaho penitentiary, which began more than a year previous to the famous trials at Boise.

Pettibone was tried and acquitted. He leaves a widow.

TRAIN IN DITCH; 18 HURT

GOLDEN STATE LIMITED HITS BROKEN RAIL AT HADO STATION, ARIZ.

IT WAS RUNNING AT FULL SPEED

Passengers Are Thrown From Berths as Two Rear Pullmans Leave the Track—Kansas City Man Was the Worst Hurt.

Tucson, Ariz., Aug. 4.—Eighteen passengers were injured when the Golden State Limited, the fast transcontinental all-Pullman train of the Rock Island railroad westbound from Chicago to Los Angeles, struck a broken rail while running at full speed at Hado Station, forty miles east of Benson, early yesterday. The two rear Pullmans were ditched. It is considered marvelous that none was killed.

J. C. Ayers, a capitalist, of Kansas City, was the most seriously injured. He sustained internal injuries and his condition is critical.

Practically all of the injured suffered from cuts and bruises, some of them severely. All of them were taken to St. Mary's hospital in Tucson.

The accident occurred on a straight stretch of track. The train, consisting of eight coaches, passed safely over the broken rail until the diner struck it.

The rear trucks of the diner left the rails and the two coaches turned over on their sides and were dragged for some distance.

All of the passengers were in their births at the time and were thrown violently about the cars. Nearly every person in the overturned coaches suffered some injury.

BULLET INTO HIS BRAIN

OSCAR KAISER COMMITTED ACT A FEW MINUTES AFTER LAST MIDNIGHT.

HAD INTENDED KILLING HIS WIFE

Went to Her Home for That Purpose, but Awakened Sister-in-Law, Who Screamed and Aroused Other Inmates.

(From Monday's Daily.)

Evidently determined to murder his wife and then end his own life, Oscar Kaiser, a Missouri Pacific fireman, 27 years old, and a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Kaiser, sr., former Sedalians, now living at Cole Camp, shot himself with suicidal intent at the home of his sister-in-law, Mrs. R. J. Mann, 407 East Sixth street, at 12:30 o'clock last night.

A No. 38-calibre revolver was used to commit the deed. Only one shot was necessary, the ball from the cartridge entering the body just above the right ear and passing through at the base of the brain and out on the left side of the head.

Kaiser carefully planned the deed, and left two notes, one addressed to the coroner and the other to his parents. Both notes were found in his clothing.

In the note to the coroner he said he had been out of work for a long time and had worried over his idleness until he reached the stage where he had intended killing his wife and then himself, and asked that both be buried together. The full text of the note follows:

"Sedalia, Mo., August 2. '08.—To the Coroner and Public. City—Dear Sir: My wife and myself have concluded to die together, because we love each other so, and my sister, Mrs. W. H. Edmonson, and her sisters, Mary, Flora, Phoeba and Clida and John Miller, are trying to separate us.

"I was laid off last April on account of dull business and have not done much work since, because I could not find anything to do.

"I went to Cole Camp and helped dig a foundation and cellar for a church, and since then I have done nothing, although I have tried hard enough, God knows.

"We made this up some time ago, but I have not been brave enough to do it, as I am to kill her and then myself.

"I want to take acid, but she is afraid it will not do the work, so I have to murder her and then myself. May God forgive me, and may we go to Heaven together, as we have died.

"Good-bye, all our friends, and it is our wish to be buried together in one grave. May God grant us this one wish.

"I have a thousand dollar policy in the B. of L. F. and E. that I want my mother to have in case my wife dies."

Mrs. Kaiser said the suicide was committed while her husband was laboring under a spell of temporary insanity. "For three weeks past he contemplated suicide," Mrs. Kaiser said, "but I always tried to drive it out of his mind. There was no such agreement between us that he should kill me and then kill himself, and when I recognized him at the window last night I screamed and told him not to do it."

The suicide left Kaiser's hotel, where he had been making his home, at the midnight hour last night, and proceeded to the Mann residence, where his wife has been caring for a sick sister for a month or so.

Removing his shoes, he went around to the east side of the house and attempted to raise the screen in a window in the room where his wife slept. Just as he started to raise the screen, Mrs. Mann, who also occupied a bed in the room, was awakened and screamed. Instantly Kaiser placed the revolver above his right ear and fired. He fell backwards dead.

The report of the revolver awakened the occupants of the house, and on investigating, the body of the suicide was found. Coroner Miller was notified and after viewing the remains decided an inquest unnecessary.

Kaiser had been married twice, his second wife, to whom he was married two years ago, being Ida Miller, daughter of Mrs. R. E. Miller, of Smithton. His first wife was a daughter of ex-Conductor and Mrs. Alonzo Wilson, and was divorced some three years ago.

About a month ago Kaiser and his wife separated, but friends of the couple say a reconciliation had been effected. However, Mrs. Kaiser had been living with her sister since, while her husband had been making his home at the Kaiser hotel.

The revolver with which Kaiser ended his life was taken possession of by Coroner Miller and contained two discharged cartridges.

Neighbors living in the vicinity of the Mann resdence say that two shots were fired, which statement is substantiated by the blank cartridges, although only one wound was visible on the suicide's body.

Kaiser carried $1,000 insurance in the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, and stated in his note to the coroner that he wanted the money paid to his mother in case his wife died.

He appeared quite melancholy early Sunday evening, but shortly before committing the deed seemed quite happy, and less than thirty minutes before killing himself he was joking with friends on the streets.

Funeral arrangements have not been made.

FRIGHTFUL LOSS OF LIFE

BUSH FIRES IN BRITISH COLUMBIA HAVE SWEPT THE ENTIRE SECTION.

THE LOSS IS OVER 2 1-2 MILLIONS

Now Thought That Over 150 Are Dead—Thirty-Five Hundred Are Homeless and Without Clothing or Food.

Fernie, B. C., Aug. 3.—It is feared that the loss of life as a result of the bush fires which started yesterday in this section will reach beyond the hundred mark, but there are so many living people without homes or shelter or food, to be looked after that up to the present time no effort has been made to ascertain the number of those who have lost their lives. In the district swept by the flames there is estimated to have been some 7,000 people.

Two thousand of these have been sent west to Cranbrook and Elko, and some fifteen hundred have fled from the flames to the northward and reached Hosmer and other places along the line.

A Great Northern train took all the people it could carry up the line, fighting its way through sheets of flames before reaching safety.

Scores of families from Cranbrook, Feerine and Hosmer have been separated. The estimate of the amount of loss is placed at two and one half million dollars and as nearly as can be ascertained the insurance carried will amount to something like one and one-half millions.

It is thought that at least 3,500 people will have to be furnished with temporary shelter and food.

Place the Loss of Life at 150.

Winnipeg, Man., Aug. 3.—The latest estimate of dead in Elk river by the bush fires is 150 persons, with property loss of $5,000,000 in Fernie, and 6,000 persons of that city's inhabitants homeless. The fire is still raging around Hosmer and Sparwood, but Michel is safe. The wind began dying out at midnight.

WHEAT AND CORN GO UP

Hot Weather in Dakota and Minnesota Causes Great Advances.

Chicago, Aug. 3.—The scorching hot weather throughout the corn belt in the Dakotas and Minnesota threw the Board of Trade here into a wild excitement today, and sent the prices of wheat and corn soaring.

Wheat advanced nearly 3 cents, May going to $1.01⅜. Corn showed an almost equally sharp bulge, May topping 35⅛ and December 65⅜ cents.

TWENTY ENTOMBED IN MINE

Explosion of Gas Sealed Them Up—Comrades Trying to Rescue Them.

Mahoney City, Pa., Aug. 3.—Twenty men were entombed today in the Knickerbocker mine here by a gas explosion. Two badly injured men have been taken from the mine, but the others are believed to be sealed up. Scores of workmen are trying to reach their entombed comrades.

TIED TO MOTHER'S APRON STRINGS

MYSTERY IS NOT SOLVED

OFFICERS ARE FOLLOWING UP CLEWS IN WHITNEY MURDER CASE.

PEOPLE OF CARTHAGE ARE AROUSED

Search for Daughter of a Farmer Who May Be Implicated Is Being Made—No Trace of Kansas City Salesman.

Carthage, Mo., Aug. 3.—The murder of Dr. L. E. Whitney, city physician of Carthage, who was killed on a country road east of here Wednesday night, remains an unsolved problem.

The authorities have failed to find the Kansas City traveling man who, it is supposed, hired a buggy at Alba and drove to Kansas City Thursday night. They have failed also to find the 16-year-old daughter of a Jasper county farmer who may be implicated. Until something is learned of one or both of these, the murder premises to remain a mystery.

It developed Sunday that the sheriff, Barney Parker, has been working on the theory that Dr. Whitney was lured to his death by a call for attendance upon a girl. The young woman has left the county and nothing has been learned as to her whereabouts. The sheriff refuses to say that he knows the identity of the girl he is seeking.

"If our surmises prove correct," he said last night, "there will be arrests immediately, but I don't care to work a hardship upon innocent people by acting prematurely. I cannot give my reasons for suspecting this girl in connection with the crime."

A new trace of the buggy which preceded Dr. Whitney's trap on the night of the murder was obtained by the sheriff Sunday. J. L. Lincoln, of Webb City, was driving his motor car toward Carthage about midnight. Just west of the city he was passed by a man and a woman in a buggy, which was being driven at a fast rate. The rig was curtained tightly and both the man and the woman shrank back so as to avoid observation as they passed Mr. Lincoln.

"The horse was white with foam and was panting," Mr. Lincoln said. "It had been driven for some distance apparently."

Dr. Whitney was killed four miles east of the city, while this buggy was seen west of town. A lane leading away from the road where Dr. Whitney's body was found provides a short cut to the Webb City road.

Harry W. Blair, democratic candidate for nomination as judge of division No. 1 of the Jasper county circuit court, and Sheriff Parker drove to Reed station, a village southeast of here, in a motor car yesterday. They were away nearly all day. After their return the sheriff admitted they were working on the Whitney case.

"It was only a water haul," was all he would say regarding the trip.

Edward Hansford, a constable, is also working on the case. He made a trip to Pittsburg, Kas., Saturday night. He would not disclose the purpose of his visit.

Wichita Team Won Game.

In the presence of a fair sized crowd, Apache tribe No. 55, I. O. R. M., crossed bats and met defeat at the hands of the Wichita tribe baseball team at Liberty park Sunday by a score of 15 to 14.

HE WANTS RICH BRIDES

THEY ARE TO BE HUNTED FOR BY AGENT OF KING PETER IN AMERICA.

EMPEROR NICHOLAS IS AGREEABLE

In Fact, He Has Promised to Be the Godfather of the First Son That Is Born to Either of the Princesses.

Vienna, Aug. 3.—It is reported that King Peter of Servia intends to marry his two sons to American women of great wealth.

Emperor Nicholas of Russia is said to be agreeable to such unions, and even has promised to be the godfather to the first son born to either of the princes.

General Arthur Teherep-Spiridovitch, president of the Slavonic league at Moscow, already has started for New York to look around for heiresses in America.

Peter Karageorgevitch ascended to the throne of Servia after the assassination of King Alexander and Queen Draga in 1903. His two sons are Prince George, heir apparent to the throne, who was born in 1887, and Prince Alexander, who was born in 1888.

SPEECH TO BE SHORT

Bryan in Accepting Nomination Will Be Very Brief.

Lincoln, Neb., Aug. 3.—Contrary to expectations, it is announced that Mr. Bryan's speech of acceptance will be a short one. He stated today that by actual count it contained 5,300 words. His views will be reserved for more elaborate treatment in several campaign speeches he intends to make.

LEADS TO A BIG STRIKE

A TEN PER CENT CUT IN THE PAY OF MEN WHO WORK IN THE PAPER MILLS.

INTERNATIONAL PAPER COMPANY

Declares the Shut-Down Is Due to Plans for Repairs and Alterations, But the Ten Per Cent Cut Figures Some.

Boston, Aug. 3.—More than 2,000 men are idle today in New England as a result of threatened strikes and the shutting down of several paper mills of the International Paper company.

A general order has been issued from the main office of the company in New York to close the mills because of low water and the need of the usual extensive repairs at this time of the year.

Saturday night an order was received from President J. F. Carey, of the International Brotherhood of Paper Makers at Ft. Edward, N. Y., calling the men out on strike in the company's mills on account of a cut of 10 per cent in the wages.

The last of the seven mills at Franklin, N. H., which usually employs 300 men, closed Saturday night indefinitely. On orders from the headquarters the men formally declared a strike to go into effect today.

At Berlin, N. H., also the mills closed Saturday night.

The International mills at Rumford, Maine, received orders, it is said, to resume on full time today, but owing to the announcement of a 10 per cent cut the 700 employes have voted to strike.

At Livermore Falls, Maine, 500 men in the International company's mills received orders to strike.

DEATH OF MRS. SANDFORT

Survived by Husband, Daughter and Three Sons.

(From Monday's Daily.)

Mrs. Abelhite Sandfort, wife of G. H. Sandfort, a pioneer farmer of Pettis county, now retired, who had been ill a year with a complication of diseases, and bedfast the greater portion of the time for five months, died at 9:40 o'clock this morning at the home of her son, B. F. Sandfort, 822 West Sixth street, aged 75 years.

Mrs. Sandfort was born at Hanover, Germany, May 25, 1833, but had resided in Missouri almost fifty years. She was the mother of eleven children, four of whom, besides her husband, are living, viz: Mrs. Henry Mahnken, of Lutman, Mo.; J. H., of Humboldt, Neb.; B. F., of Sedalia, and George W., of Coffeyville, Kas.

Mrs. Sandfort was a member of the German M. E. church, and was held in the highest possible esteem by all who knew her.

The Rev. Samuel Buechner will conduct a brief burial service at the home of the son, B. F. Sandfort, at 8:30 o'clock Wednesday morning, and the remains will then be taken to Smithton, where a more extended service will be conducted at the Evangelical German church at 10:30 o'clock by Rev. Myers, after which the interment will take place there.

May Lose Sight of Both Eyes.

David T. Henderson, engineer at the plant of the Sedalia Ice, Light and Fuel Co., who last week was severely burned about the face and eyes by escaping steam and water, is not getting along as well as was hoped for. He cannot distinguish an object across the room, and the attending physician is not certain that he can save the sight of at least one eye.

HE SPLICED A WHITE MAN

AND A MULATTO, AN UNDERTAKER DID, AT WASHINGTON, D. C., SATURDAY.

"ALL COLORS LOOK ALIKE TO HIM"

Miscegenation Cut No Ice With This Fellow, Who Ought to Have License to Perform Marriage Ceremonies Revoked.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 3.—Chas. H. Wilson, white, employed in the government printing office, was married here Saturday night to Lillie B. Comfort, a handsome mulatto.

The ceremony took place in the bride's home and was performed by the Rev. Acquilla Sayles, who combines his ecclesiastical work with that of undertaking.

When Wilson applied for a marriage license Saturday afternoon it was reported that the ceremony would take place in Sayles' undertaking establishment, but this proved to be untrue. Before leaving to officiate at the function Saturday evening the preacher said:

"I see no reason why this young couple should not be married, as there is nothing from a legal or a moral standpoint to prevent their union.

"Were I deterred by conscience in this matter nothing would persuade me to act as minister, but I can see no reasons why any question of color should enter into a marriage that is honorable, and at thhe same time, lawful.

Young Wilson appeared at my office two nights ago and said to me: 'I am about to marry Miss Comfort. She is colored, and I would like to have you perform the marriage ceremony. I am sure that you will agree with me that a true love looks over the small conventions of men into higher and better things.'

THE WOODMEN FISH FRY

A Large Crowd Was Present to Enjoy It Sunday.

Fully five hundred people attended the fish fry of Sedalia camp No. 16, Woodmen of the World, at Thatcher's ford, on Flat creek, Sunday. As early as 6 o'clock yesterday morning conveyances began to leave the city for the scene of the outing, and by the noon hour no fewer than one hundred vehicles had reached the creek.

An abundant supply of the finny tribe was prepared, while all who participated carried lunch. During the afternoon the drill team of the camp gave a "sunbonnet" drill, and while so doing had their pictures taken.

Many of the gentlemen in attendance went swimming during the day, and it was after 10 o'clock Sunday night when the last wagon had returned to the city.

The Weekly Gun Club Shoot.

John McGrath scored twenty-four out of a possible twenty-five targets at the weekly shoot of the Sedalia Gun club at Liberty park Friday afternoon. John Kaiser followed with a score of twenty-three, while the next highest score was twenty-two, made by Joseph Paradis.

BEGAN WORK IN SEDALIA

WAS A REPORTER ON THE OLD GAZETTE, UNDER MR. A. C. BALDWIN.

FROM HERE TO THE POST-DISPATCH

Has Accepted the Position of Advertising Manager of the Chicago Journal. Effective Latter Part of August.

Frank Dunn, who began his newspaper career in Sedalia, working on the old Gazette, under A. C. Baldwin, was written of as follows in the Fourth Estate, published in New York, August 1:

W. Frank Dunn, well known to the advertising fraternity in Chicago, and in fact in the country at large, has decided to relinquish the special agency business in order to assume the positon of advertising manager of the Chicago Journal.

Mr. Dunn will spend the next fortnight in the northern woods and will take charge of the Journal's interests in the latter part of August. For some time past he has had the western foreign representation of the St. Louis Star, Dayton Journal and Chicago Journal.

"While my connection," he says, "with Nathan Frank's publications will cease August 1, I will continue, for a while at least, to look after Mr. McClellan's interests in this territory. I expect to begin actual service in my new capacity on the Journal the latter part of August, with everything else cleaned up.

"I leave Mr. Frank with sincere regret, for in my four years' service our relations have been very pleasant. He is the first man for whom I worked in St. Louis as a reporter fifteen years ago. Later I went to the Chronicle in the same capacity, and on that paper I decided on the advertising end as the best from a revenue standpoint.

"After a year on the Post-Dispatch, in the advertising department, I joined the Journal staff at Chicago, leaving it about a year and a half later to become advertising manager for the Post, which I held down for about six years. I left there to take the St. Louis Star's western end and I now go back to the Chicago Journal as its advertising manager under the best contract I ever made."

FIGHTING THE RACE TRACKS

Governor Hughes of New York Has Something Up His Sleeve.

New York, Aug. 3.—The race track interests are about to experience one of the most severe shock in history, if the present plans of Governor Hughes are carried out. Just what form of action the governor will take could not be learned, but it is said "something which will shake Saratoga from end to end will take place in the next day or two."

THE THEFT OF A WATCH

Is Laid at the Door of Harry Hoffman, a St. Louis Boy.

(From Monday's Daily.)

Harry Hoffman, 17 years old, of 3046 Rutler street, St. Louis, was arrested by Officers Eads and Thompson this morning, charged with stealing a 21-jeweled Hamilton watch from J. H. Whitley, an M., K. & T. brakeman, Sunday forenoon.

The watch was found on the prisoner's person, and Hoffman was locked in jail, pending preliminary examination.

Whitley arrived in Sedalia Sunday morning, and while in the local yards Hoffman entered the caboose of the train and stole the timepiece.

St. Patrick's New Church.

(From Sunday's Daily.)

Contractors Dean and Hartshorn will begin work tomorrow laying the brick for the new $20,000 church building of St. Patrick's church, on East Fourth street. A full force of brick masons will be put to work during the week.

A Wife Beater Was Fined.

Isaac Herndon, a negro, was fined $5 and costs by Judge Rickman Saturday for whipping his wife. The latter's plea for clemency appealed to the usually cold-hearted judge's sternness, hence the light fine.

CHAPTER V.

To the Rescue.

NISH, who had obediently followed De Jolidon and Natalie at Popoff's orders until they had entered the summer house, now wriggled forward in confusion on hearing the ambassador's voice.

"Did you call me, sir?" he asked.

"I most surely did call you, Mr. Nish!" cried Popoff. "And I told you I was certain I saw a lady, or, rather, a lady's skirt, disappearing into that summer house. Who was she?"

"I—I don't know, your excellency," tremblingly lied Nish.

"You ought to know!" scolded Popoff. "You were standing nearer the summer house than I was. Didn't you see her at all?"

"Yes, sir—yes, I saw her, if I may say so, but I don't know who she was, I really don't. I"—

"Was she alone?"

"No, your excellency, not quite alone. There was, if I may say so—there was a gentleman with her. At least he looked like a gentleman, but I didn't recognize him either."

"Well, well, well!" chuckled the ambassador, seating himself in a garden chair and eying the summer house with delightful interest. "A little flirtation, eh? Gone in there to whisper sweet nothings where no one can interrupt 'em. I wonder who they are! Now, I really wonder! Mr. Nish, I would not for the world have you think I am the least bit curious. But—I'll just sit here awhile, for a joke, and watch them come out. In the meantime, Mr. Nish, you might slip around to the rear of the summer house and see if there is another door there. If there is, you might lock it. Understand?"

"Ye-yes, your excellency!" mumbled panic stricken Nish, scuttling away among the bushes. The little clerk never paused until he had found Sonia. To her he poured forth the whole story, gazing with wild horror as she broke into a peal of uncontrollable laughter.

Suddenly she grew sober.

"Her husband will never forgive her," she murmured, half to herself. "He will never understand that it's just a silly, harmless, sentimental talk they're having."

Memories of the ways of jealous Marsovian husbands flashed into her mind. In that primitive fatherland wives had been beaten—yes, and murdered—for less. Something must be done, and done quickly."

"Don't worry!" she consoled the terrified Nish. "Say nothing to any one else. I'll get Mme. Popoff out of the scrape if I can."

Before Nish could reply she had disappeared down a path leading to the rear door of the summer house.

Meantime Popoff, his curiosity mastering him, had left his seat. Stealing forward on tiptoe, he put his eye to the keyhole of the wicker door.

He had scarcely bent over this when Danilo, happening to pass by on his way to the gate, paused in amazement at sight of the Marsovian ambassador thus assuming the role of Paul Pry.

"Why, hello, old chap!" cried the prince. "What are you up to?"

"Hush!" warned Popoff in an excited whisper. "A lady went into the summer house a few minutes ago with a gentleman. I can't see them very clearly. There's too much fluff in the keyhole. But they're sitting opposite each other with only a little table between them. The lady's back is to me, but it somehow looks familiar. The man is talking as earnestly as if he were trying to borrow money. Now he's bending across and kissing her hand, and she doesn't seem to mind. It's—why, bless my soul, it's that fellow De Jolidon? Well, well! Of all things! Now, if only the lady would turn her face so I could see her"—

"Come away, sir!" begged Danilo, the whole situation bursting upon his mind. He caught Popoff's sleeve, but the ambassador shook him off.

"Let me alone!" he whispered. "Can't you see what it all means? It means we've found the lady De Jolidon's in love with, the very woman we've both been looking for! And now if she'll just turn her head a little I'll be able to see her face, and then"—

"Then you don't know who she is?" queried Danilo.

"No. But I'll"—

"Then take my advice and don't try to find out. Let well enough alone. Come away, old chap, and"—

"No, no! There; you pulled my head away just as she was turning around. I'd have seen her in another second. They're getting up. Maybe they'll go out by the other door, and then I shan't be able to know who"—

"Let me do the looking," suggested Danilo. "If either of us has to play the eavesdropper I'll"—

"No. It is my place," asserted Popoff. "But I'll bet you a hundred francs it's Mme. Nova Kovitch."

"It would be like stealing a drunken man's watch. I won't take the bet. Come away, sir, and let the matter drop where it is. For your own happiness"—

But Popoff was once more at the keyhole.

"They're standing up to go," he reported. "Now she's beginning to face this way. It's— Oh, good Lord!"

The poor old man staggered away from the door as though struck between the eyes. Reeling to a chair, he collapsed and buried his face in his hands.

"No, no! It can't be! It can't!" he moaned. "And yet I could hardly be mistaken. My wife! And"—

"Brace up, your excellency!" entreated Danilo in genuine distress. "Pull yourself together. There are people coming along the walk. Don't make a scene. Perhaps you were mistaken."

"No; I saw her!" groaned Popoff. "My own wife and De Jolidon! And he kissed her hand."

"Oh, I dare say she was more kissed against than kissing!" Danilo observed consolingly. "But be careful, sir. A whole lot of people are within earshot."

"Then let them know the worst!" cried Popoff in a voice that brought a number of guests hurrying to the spot. "I'll denounce her before them all! Come out of there," he bellowed, rushing forward, "both of you! Come out!"

He threw the summer house door wide open and shrank back, incredulous, aghast.

On the threshold stood De Jolidon and—Sonia!

"What—what does this mean," gurgled the confused ambassador, "this—this change and"—

"You called to us to come out," returned Sonia calmly. "May I ask what you wanted of us?"

"Sonia!" gasped Danilo. And through the confusion of many excited voices she heard him and thrilled to the note of anguish in his half stifled cry.

"If—if it was you who were in there with M. de Jolidon," stammered Popoff, "where is my wife?"

"Here I am, dear," answered Natalie, stepping out of the crowd, with which she had mingled after her hurried exit through the rear door of the summer house. "Here I am! What is the matter?"

"Matter enough!" cried her husband. "I could have sworn I saw you sitting in that arbor with M. de Jolidon."

"My dear!"

Natalie's exclamation was a triumph of shocked propriety.

"He was kissing your hand, I thought," went on the dazed ambassador.

This time Natalie moved away from him in offended dignity. But Popoff hastened to throw his arm about her and draw her back.

"I was wrong," he assured her—"a blunder of eyesight! I apologize! I'm sorry. I"—

"I begin to understand," put in Sonia, stepping forward in fear lest Natalie overdo her pose of virtuous indignation. "It seems that the Marsovian ambassador has done me the honor to listen at a keyhole in hopes of overhearing my conversation. Sooner than disappoint him, M. de Jolidon, will you please repeat to him just what you said to me in there?"

De Jolidon understood. If Natalie was to be saved, if Sonia was not to be talked about, heroic measures were necessary.

"I asked Mme. Sonia Sadowa," said he, "to do me the honor to become my wife!"

Danilo stood motionless, his lips set in a white line, amid the buzz of congratulations and laughter that followed De Jolidon's announcement. Sonia noted his agony and said joyfully to herself:

"My prince, I think I've won! You'll have to speak, soon or late, now, and when you do"—

"And Marsovia loses the twenty millions!" Popoff muttered, recovering his self possession and somewhat belatedly remembering his country's needs.

"Prince," called Sonia mischievously, "I haven't heard your congratulations yet. You don't look as happy as you might at the news."

"Happy!" echoed Danilo, with a scornful, mirthless laugh. "Why shouldn't I be? Accept my congratulations, my paternal blessing and anything else you choose to levy on me for. My own motto is, 'Love when you may, propose seldom and marry—not at all!'

"Let me tell you a little fairy story: There were once a prince and a princess. They loved each other. But the prince was poor and dared not tell of his love for fear of being thought a fortune hunter. His silence made the princess angry. So she went and promised her hand to another man, and they all lived miserably unhappy ever after. And the moral of that stupid little story is that I'm sick of respectability, and I'm awake from my crazy dream of love, and I'm going back to Maxim's, and you can all go to—Marsovia!"

"He loves me! He loves me!" panted Sonia under her breath.

CHAPTER VI.

At Maxim's

MAXIM'S after midnight—the show restaurant whither sight-seeing Americans and other tourists flock and whose dizzy, machine made merriment they solemnly believe to be a part and parcel of true Parisian life.

On the night of Sonia's garden party one group of men and women who entered the jolly restaurant were so different from the usual habitues of the place as to come in for not a few amused glances from their neighbors. They were Mme. Natalie Popoff, Mme. Nova Kovitch and Cascada and St. Brioche. The visit was Natalie's idea.

At Maxim's.

She had heard Danilo's wild speech of goodby to Sonia and his announcement that he was off to Maxim's. Hence the ambassador's wife, with a feeble yearning to atone in some way for the false position into which the widow had been thrust for her sake, had resolved to follow in the hope of securing a word in private with Danilo and setting matters right again.

Natalie had not confided her plan to her husband, and now as the party were ushered to a secluded table in an alcove she glanced at the riotous scene about her with a delighted nervousness. The delight vanished suddenly, however, and the nervousness waxed to a panic fear as a familiar voice smote upon her ear.

Popoff had just come in and was standing not ten feet away from the secluded table where his wife sat trembling.

"I want to see Prince Danilo at once," he said to the head waiter. "Has he arrived?"

"Not yet, sir," was the reply, "but he will be here very soon. There is a supper party waiting for him over there," waving to a tableful of gayly appareled girls with tired eyed men.

"Really!" exclaimed the ambassador. "I'll just join them till he comes."

He toddled off to the distant table, where, to Natalie's jealous eye, he seemed to make himself at home with a phenomenal ease and quickness. He was scarce seated when Danilo strode in. The whole table rose to give the prince noisy greeting.

"Why, hello, your excellency!" cried Danilo. "This is queer company for a monument of respectability like yourself to wander into!"

"I came only to see you," protested the ambassador, drawing him aside. "I was bound I'd come here and wait till you appeared if"—

"Oh, I see," cut in the prince, thoroughly enjoying his confusion. "Fools rush in where"—

"I didn't rush in," fumed the ambassador; "I crept here in a measly cab, and I sneaked into the place like a pickpocket for fear some one would recognize me. I sacrificed myself to my country. Suppose my wife should hear of it! I came to implore you, to cast myself on your mercy, to beg you once more to prevent the widow from"—

"I must see his excellency," insisted a portly man behind them, his voice booming through the whole room. "He is here, and I— Oh!" he broke off on sight of Popoff. "Here you are! I"—

"My dear Nova Kovitch," pettishly interrupted the ambassador, "is it necessary to hunt for me with a brass band? Couldn't you"—

"I'm sorry to interrupt you," answered Nova Kovitch, "but here's a dispatch from the Marsovian ministry. It seemed to me important, and I brought it on."

Popoff took the slip of paper and read aloud:

"If Mme. Sadowa's twenty millions are allowed to leave Marsovia we are a bankrupt country."

"There, Prince Danilo," continued the ambassador, turning on the young man in melodramatic appeal; "you see it's right up to you! Your country appeals to you to save it! You are Marsovia's last hope. Marry the widow and"—

"I'll marry no one!" flared up Danilo. "To the deuce with matrimony and Marsovia and myself! I'm done with silly dreams of love and all that nonsense. I'm free, and I'm going to make a night of it. I"—

He paused and stood silent, dumfounded. Down the little flight of stairs leading into the room a woman was advancing alone.

"Sonia!" exclaimed Danilo.

With a word of excuse to the others, he hurried across and met the widow as she reached the foot of the steps.

"You're here," he muttered in horrified wonder—"here alone?"

"Yes," replied Sonia coldly. "Is it any affair of yours?"

"First the summer house," he went on as in a daze, "then Maxim's."

"Quite so. Is that all you have to say?"

"No," he retorted; "I have one thing more. You should not marry De Jolidon."

"No? Why not, pray?"

"Because I"—

He checked himself. She finished the sentence for him.

"Because you love me?" she suggested.

He broke into a discordant, miserable laugh.

"Don't laugh that silly way!" she reprimanded sharply.

"I am sorry you don't like it," he observed. "It's the only way I know."

"Then don't laugh at all. The laugh is on my side, anyway."

"On your side?"

"Yes. You are angry at what happened this evening. But it wasn't I who was in the summer house with M. de Jolidon."

"But I saw you there," he declared. "I"—

"I took another woman's place to get her out of an awkward scrape with her husband—with M. Popoff. She was"—

"And I never even guessed it!" cried Danilo, his sullen face breaking into a smile of utter relief. "What a fool I was! I was green and yellow with jealousy. I"—

He caught himself up, but it was too late. Sonia's eyes danced.

"But since you don't love me," she asked, "why were you yellow and green with"—

"Because green and yellow are our national colors. I am nothing if not patriotic. You see"—

"Mme. Sadowa—prince!" gurgled Popoff, trotting up to them, unable longer to restrain his anxiety. "I hope it is all settled. All nicely arranged, eh?"

"If you mean is madame to marry De Jolidon," answered Danilo, "she is not."

"But this evening," ejaculated Popoff, "in the summer house!"

"She took another woman's place," replied the prince, disregarding Sonia's warning gesture.

"Dear me!" squealed Popoff, his curiosity reviving. "Who was she?"

"Excuse me, your excellency," remarked Nish, who had entered with Nova Kovitch and had hovered aimlessly about waiting to get in a word, "but here is a fan that was picked up in the summer house after the party. You told me to search the place, and I did. If I may say so, I"—

"Same old fan!" commented Popoff, idly opening it. Then, with a jump as his eye vaguely caught the sentence Natalie had scribbled beneath De Jolidon's avowal, he screamed:

"My wife's handwriting! Then it was my wife after all!"

"Sir," quoted Nova Kovitch, "Caesar's wife should be above suspicion."

"But Caesar never brought his wife to Paris!" wailed Popoff. "This is bad for me."

"No, no!" pleaded Natalie, who at sight of the fatal trinket had left her table and run forward. "It's all a horrid mistake. I can explain. I"—

"Silence!" commanded Popoff in his most magisterial manner. "Madame, under section 4 of the Marsovian code I hereby divorce you. This fan is sufficient evidence."

As Natalie started back, dumb with horror, Popoff turned impressively to Sonia and, to the widow's amused dismay, sank on one knee before her.

"Mme. Sadowa," he declaimed, "I am free, and in the name of our fatherland I beseech you to become my wife!"

Sonia was seemingly blind to the white misery in Natalie's face and the look of angry surprise in Danilo's. She answered, with perfect composure:

"My dear M. Popoff, I am deeply honored by your proposal, but before I accept it is only fair to tell you that if I marry again I lose all my fortune."

"Madame, I hereby divorce you."

The ambassador scrambled hastily to his feet.

"I—I was perhaps just a wee bit hasty," he stuttered, looking sheepishly about for a way of escape.

Natalie came forward and handed him the fan.

"Did you read the words I wrote on it?" she asked timidly.

"I—am—a—dutiful—wife!" spelled out the ambassador. "Forgive me! I didn't understand. Shall we let bygones be bygones?"

Danilo, who had stood silent during the odd proposal, now stepped past Popoff and faced Sonia, a new light in his eyes.

"Is it true you will lose all your money if you marry again?" he asked in a voice he tried in vain to keep steady.

"Yes," she admitted; "it is true."

"I LOVE YOU, SONIA," HE WHISPERED.

"Then why shouldn't I say now what I want to?"

"Why not?" she agreed demurely.

He drew a step nearer.

"I love you, Sonia," he whispered.

Steadily, happily, she met his burning eyes as she answered:

"I love you, Danilo. I have always loved you."

"Tut, tut!" fretted Popoff, pushing peevishly between them. "This'll never do. You can't marry her, prince. You'll both be paupers."

"Not quite," gently corrected Sonia. "I shall lose my money, it is true, but—only because I am going to give it all to my husband."

Many Patients Were Treated.

The largest number of patients from the Missouri Pacific railway ever treated at the M., K. & T. railway hospital during a single month was treated during the month of July, when eighty patients were registered.

Forty-eight of these were treated medically and thirty-two surgically. This number was materially augmented on account of the head-end collision near Knobnoster on July 2, which necessitated the treatment of twenty-one victims of the wreck at the hospital.

No Spitting on Floor.

Because 10,000 people die in Missouri annually by reason of germs contracted from expectorating on the floor, Supt. N. J. Finney, of the M., K. & T., issued a printed order Saturday, forbidding expectorating on the company's station floor in this city.

The order is also signed by the Missouri state board of health, and cites the number of diseases contracted from the filth.

Were Beaten at Pilot Grove.

A picked baseball team of this city crossed bats with a team at Pilot Grove Saturday afternoon and met defeat gracefully by a score of 16 to 11. "Red" Clum was the twirling artist for the local team and Roscoe Sutton's superb playing in the early stages of the game was the leading feature of the exhibition.

PETER LANE'S "CRICKET"

A Canine More Intelligent Than a Number of People.

Peter Lane the Ohio street shoe merchant, is the owner of an imported French bull dog, which is one of the most intelligent canines in the city and one for which the owner has a standing offer of $50 at any time he feels disposed to sell.

"Cricket Lane" is the name of the animal, which is fifteen months old, and has been in Mr. Lane's possession since four months old. The tricks and errands which the dog can accomplish are numerous, and required careful training on the part of the owner.

Climbing a ladder twenty feet high, jumping, playing hide and go seek with children, playing baseball, playing baby doll, lying dead and returning to life at the count of three, interpreting his master's voice over a telephone seven blocks distant, going to the store pursuant to his master's call, carrying notes to a neighbor, praying, distinguishing such colors as red, white and blue and other tricks are some of the characteristics of this dog's intelligence.

The canine weighs thirty pounds and is white with brown ears. He is one of the smartest dogs in this section of the state, and it is with pride that his master refers to "Cricket."

THE WOODMEN HAD PICNIC

Beaman Camp Entertained Their Friends Saturday.

Beaman camp, Modern Woodmen of America, held a picnic Saturday in the Kellerman grove, near Beaman, and a most successful outing was had.

The attendance was largely members and their friends, and a most enjoyable day was had. It was a basket meeting and a fine dinner was served, everybody being cordially invited to eat to their fill.

Rev. Sterling, of Smithton, was the principal orator and he made a fine address on Woodcraft, which was greatly enjoyed by all.

The county candidates were nearly all present and had a full day with the voters. Rev. Ayres, George Anamosa and Harvey Dow all made short but interesting talks. Al present had a most peasant day and returned home with thanks to Beaman camp.

THE CROPS IN MISSOURI

SECRETARY OF THE STATE AGRICULTURAL BOARD SUBMITS HIS REPORT.

CORN 17 DAYS LATER THAN NORMAL

Quality of Wheat Is 82 Per Cent as Against 90 a Year Ago—Oat Crop Is Lighter Than for Several Years Past.

Columbia, Mo., Aug. 3.—The secretary of the state board of agriculture, George B. Ellis, makes the following announcement of crop conditions in this state:

Corn— Under normal conditions the weather for July would have been highly satisfactory for the growth of corn. There has been about a normal amount of both warmth and moisture, and a few counties in the state have made an improvement in the condition of corn during the month, while other counties have declined. During May and June the excessive rains and lack of cultivation caused the roots of the corn to form near the surface of the ground, and when the rainfall became normal and frequent close cultivations were given, the shallow roots were broken and the corn left in poor condition to withstand droughty conditions. Fortunately, no extended drought has occurred, but this is a condition that will demand even more than a normal rainfall from now on to maintain the present condition. The crop is more irregular than it has been for a number of years. Some fields are in fine condition and promise a high yield; they were planted early, a good stand was secured and were not much damaged by the excessive rains; while in the same neighborhood other fields may be found that are late, in the weeks, and promise a very poor crop. The general average of the crop is seventeen days later than a normal crop. One year ago on the same date, the crop was eighteen days later than the normal, and that crop matured without any material damage from frost. The estimated acreage planted for this year was 7,291,800, but on account of overflow on botton lands and loss from excessive wet weather on some of the flat prairies, it was estimated that 14 per cent of the total acreage had been lost on July 1. Of this abandoned area, however, 34 per cent has been replanted, and this late planted corn will probably make good feed, but it is not likely that it will produce very merchantable corn. The average condition for the entire crop at this time is 74 per cent, as compared with a condition of 73 per cent on the first of July, and a condition of 83 one year ago. A number of correspondents report that the corn is tasseling very low, and a number of counties report that the stalk is small. Considering the reduced acreage, under the most favorable conditions from now on, the crop will be materially less than an average.

Wheat—Wheat threshing has progressed very satisfactorily, and 41 per cent of the entire crop has been threshed, as compared with 27 on the same date one year ago. The average quality of the grain is 82 per cent, as compared with 90 per cent one year ago. Like corn, the wheat crop this year is very irregular. Some excellent yields are reported, while a great many fields are making a very poor yield. The quality is very variable. A considerable portion of the crop will grade No. 2, while a great deal of it is much below that grade. The final estimate for the yield by counties can not be made up until threshing has been completed, which will be Sept. 5. It is safe to say, however, that the yield will be somewhat below that estimated by our correspondents on the first of July.

Quite a number of correspondents state that the yield since threshing has begun is not holding up to their first estimates. There will probably be a decreased yield this year, as compared with last year of seven or eight million bushels. The final estimate for last year was 28,830,014 bushels.

Oats—As a rule, oats are making a very unsatisfactory yield, and our reports indicate that the final estimate will show a lighter crop than for several years.

Hay—The hay harvest has been practically completed and a large crop of excellent hay has been gathered. Practically all the hay was saved in good condition, except on account of the pressure of other farm work much of the crop was allowed to stand in the meadow until it got overripe before it could be harvested.

Cotton—Cotton has made satisfactory progress during the month, and the present codition of the crop in Southeast Missouri, where most of it is produced, is 94, as compared with the condition of 77 one month ago, and 66 at the same time last year.

Fruits—The condition of the fruit crop is very irregular, but is a great deal better than it was at the same time last year. For the first time in many years the average condition of the peach crop is higher than that of apples. In nearly all sections of the state peaches show a higher condition than apples. Pears are perhaps the poorest crop. In many neighborhoods there are scarcely any pears. The following is the condition of the fruit crop, as compared with an average condition for the different sections of the state:

	N.E.	N.W.	CEN	S.W.	S.E.	St'e
Winter Apples—	25	55	25	26	39	34
Summer Apples—	30	42	27	30	40	24
Peaches—	35	42	35	56	37	41
Pears—	20	22	18	12	23	21
Plums—	44	46	34	33	37	39

PASS UP SHEATH GOWN

ENGLISHMAN FINDS ONE RISK LONDON LLOYDS WILL NOT TAKE.

POPULARITY IS GRAVELY DOUBTED

Tradesman Sought Guaranty That French Creation Would Entice American Coin, but to No Purpose.

New York, Aug. 3.—Evidently the British business man, as typified by the members of the London Lloyds, does not believe that the "sheath" gown is destined to become popular in the United States.

At any rate the members of the famous London insurance company refused to issue a policy for $10,000 on a consignment of "sheath" gowns recently imported from Paris by a local department store.

The uptown merchants, feeling somewhat skeptical as to just how well the latest Parisian costume would take with New York women, asked an insurance broker to obtain a policy insuring the sale of the gowns—in other words to insure the popularity of the "sheath" gown.

The Britisher knew that the London Lloyds were willing to write a policy on anything from a presidential election to the safeguarding of an automobile race course, or the fluctuations of the stock market, promptly applied for a policy on the "sheath" gowns.

To his surprise, however, he was, to use his own words, "turned down cold." He applied to several other companies with the same result.

GAUNTLET OF BLACKSNAKES

Wife Beater Was Forced to Run and Then Hike.

Deadwood, S. D., Aug. 3.—Accused of wife-beating, George Corey, of Terry, a mining camp near here, almost lost his life at the hands of a mob.

Corey had been arrested and jailed and a mob broke into jail, Corey was taken to the highway and forced to run a gauntlet of men with blacksnakes.

Many were in favor of lynching him, but women prevented this, and he was driven down the gulch and warned never to return.

Horse and Buggy Stolen.

John Edwards a farmer, five miles outheast of Sedalia, reported to the police Sunday that a five-year-old horse and a runabout buggy had been stolen from him at 9 o'clock Saturday night. The horse was standing tied to a post in the rear of the building at Fourth and Ohio avenue.

BLEW TOP OF HEAD OFF

DOUBLE BARRELED SHOTGUN USED

Desired Reconciliation With Family After Seperation of Several Months, but It Was Refused.

(From Thursday's Daily.)

Because his wife would not permit of a reconciliation, following a year's separation, David McGee, 45 years of age, and the father of eight children, blew off the top of his head with suicidal intent in a closet at his wife's home, 900 East Fourteenth street, at 10 o'clock this morning.

The sight was one of the most ghastly ever witnessed. The entire back part of McGee's head was blown away, and his brains were scattered over the ceiling and walls of the room.

McGee was adjudged insane about two years ago, and after remaining at the Nevada asylum four months he was discharged and pronounced cured. Following his release he and his wife separated, and for a year the husband and father remained absent.

Shortly before 10 o'clock this morning McGee appeared at the home of his wife and pleaded for a reconciliation.

Neighbors stated that Mrs. McGee objected, and following her refusal to permit him to return, the husband secured a shotgun in the house. After removing his shoes he proceeded to a closet in the house, where he carried out his plans.

Both barrels of the gun were loaded, but only one was discharged. Following the report of the gun, which was loaded with No. 3 shot, Mrs. McGee ran screaming from the house.

George Miller, a young boy living in the neighborhood, was attracted to the place, and on entering the residence he saw the man lying on the floor with the upper portion of his head blown off and scattered over the room.

In the absence of Coroner Miller, Judge J. B. Rickman was notified. After viewing the remains he ordered the body taken to the parlors of the Sedalia Undertaking Co. and prepared for burial. He also ordered an inquest to be held at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

The following comprised the coroner's jury: Edward Donohue, C. I Phaling, Douglas Lane, H. S. Tanner, Will Jolly and F. B. Riley.

At 3 o'clock this afternoon the jury returned a verdict that deceased came to his death by his own hand.

McGee formerly owned a farm in Flat Creek township, but sold it some time ago and went to Kansas City, coming thence to Sedalia. He is the father of eight children, the eldest a girl of 18 years, and the youngest a 13-months-old daughter.

A GOOD CROWD AT PICNIC

THAT GIVEN BY MANILA CAMP, MODERN WOODMEN OF AMERICA.

SPEECHES BY SEVERAL SEDALIANS

The Camp Branch Band Furnished the Music and Won Many Compliments—Everybody Had a Royal Good Time.

(From Friday's Daily.)

The picnic given Thursday by Manila camp, Modern Woodmen of America, in Leischel's grove, on Flat creek, twelve miles to the southwest, was one of the most successful of any formerly held.

It was the third annual outing, and the attendance, notwithstanding the busy season, was much larger than usual, showing the increased interest in the order in that community.

The committees had made every necessary arrangement for the enjoyment of all who attended, and each member of the camp took especial pains to see that each person present was made to feel at home. It was a basket picnic, and an eighty-foot table had been erected in the shade of the mammoth black walnut trees. The table was spread with a fine dinner, and all were invited to partake to their fill.

The Camp Branch band rendered fine music throughout the day, and the boys received the congratulations of all for their great improvement since playing in the same grounds one year ago. It is a fine musical organization, and no doubt will add greatly to the campaign meetings throughout the county this fall.

At 2 o'clock Mr. J. W. Leischel quieted the crowd and announced that several short speeches would be made. Mr. C. C. Lawson was first introduced and spoke for fifteen minutes. He was followed by Mr. M. V. Carroll, who in turn was followed by George Anamosa. The three speakers are members of the Modern Woodmen organization, and their talks were on the line of Woodcraft and fraternalism. They had the undivided attention of all.

Mr. E. E. Johnston was the next speaker, and for thirty minutes made an interesting talk, reviewing in brief his work in the past two legislatures.

Rev. G. H. Ayres gave a short but amusing talk, to the delight of the ladies and little folks. Prosecuting Attorney Dow was the last speaker, and he spoke more at length and had the attention of all.

While it was an extremely hot day, the shady grove was cool and all had a most enjoyable day, with thanks to Manila camp.

Diamond Simply Misplaced.

Prof. C. W. Robbins, of Central Business college, misplaced a valuable diamond stud Saturday night. Fifteen minutes later he found the gem attached to a tie. In the meantime he had notified the students of the school, who were there at the time, of his supposed loss. When he recovered the stone he neglected to announce the fact, hence the newspaper report of a lost diamond.

Three Mail Clerks Hurt.

Train No. 38, on the Southern railroad, the New Orleans-New York limited, north bound, which left Atlanta, Ga., at noon Sunday, met with an accident thirty miles from Charlotte, N. C., Sunday night.

The tender, mail car and club car left the rails and three mail clerks were injured. No passengers were hurt and no one was killed. The train proceeded after a delay of some five hours.

TELEPHONE COMPANY SOLD

Bevier Men Take Over System in Boonville, Mo.

Boonville, Mo., Aug. 3.—The Boonville Telephone company has sold their property to L. F. Coulter and J. W. Watson, of Bevier, Mo. The property is capitalized for $60,000 and operates over 700 telephones in Boonville and is connected with 2,500 telephones in Cooper county. This company gives its long-distance service over the Kinloch lines.

The new management took charge of the property Saturday. H. M. Taliaferro, who has been manager of the Boonville Telephone company for a number of years, retires from service, having severed his connection with the new management.

This has been one of the strongest independent telephone companies in the state. The retiring stockholders are J. F. Gmelich, state treasurer; Col. John S. Elliott, C. A. Sombart, Charles Meirhoffer, J. E. Thro, R. L. Steigleder, E W. Chilton, H. M. Taliaferro, of Boonville; John Brockmeyer, of Edon, and Iva Butterfield, of Knobnoster, Mo.

SWEET SPRINGS NEWS

HAPPENINGS IN THE CITY OF HEALTH DURING WEEK JUST PASSED.

A NUMBER OF SOCIAL FUNCTIONS

A Union Camp Meeting on the Springs Grounds This Month, to Be Followed by a Boys' Encampment Next Month.

Special to the Democrat-Sentinel.

Sweet Springs, Mo., Aug. 1.—Marvin Davis and wife returned Thursday from a visit with Elmwood friends.

Mrs. Ed Beatty left Wednesday for Detroit, Mich., where she will spend the remainder of the summer with a school friend.

E. L. Spurgeon went to Lamonte Saturday to attend a stock sale.

Misses Odie and Mary T. Berry spent Wednesday with B. F. Prigmore and wife at their beautiful country home south of this city.

Miss Dove Ray came in Friday night from California, in which state she has spent the past year.

Walter Stallings and wife returned Thursday afternoon from a visit with Mrs. Stallings' parents at Cole Camp.

Miss Martha Jones, of Kansas City, is the charming guest of Miss Dorothy Simrall.

Mrs. A. W. Bush and daughter have gone to Hannibal, where Mr. Bush is located.

Rev. L. M. Vandiver, of Fayette, who was pastor of the Methodist church in this city for a number of years, spent last week with friends here.

Miss Pearl Williams was in Sedalia this week visiting friends and attending the Chautauqua.

Ed Reavis and wife and Miss Angie Berry were in Houstonia Tuesday, the guests of Miss Tracy Berry at a 6 o'clock dinner.

Mrs. J. M. Thornton, who was called here by the death of her father, J. H. Grayson, has returned to her home in Milwaukee.

Rev. J. C. Shackleford occupied the pulpit in the Methodist church in Marshall Sunday, going from there to the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. C. Saylor, in Odessa.

Col. and Mrs. D. W. Marmaduke of St. Louis, are at the City hotel here, where they will spend the remainder of the summer.

Harold Bellamy returned Tuesday afternoon from Warsaw, where he has been visiting his sister, Mrs. Pearl Nickols, for several weeks.

Mrs. S. C. Neale and son are at home, after a visit with Mrs. Neale's parents in Higginsville.

Saturday night from Valley Falls, Kan., where Mrs. Jarvis became ill while visiting her parents. Her condition is now much improved.

Ed Berry and family drove to Dresden Saturday to visit Mrs. Berry's relatives. While in Sedalia Mr. Berry gave an order for a handsome rubber tired carriage to be delivered to him here in September.

G. L. Daniel was called to Sedalia Monday by the illness and death of his mother, Mrs. Alex Daniel.

Rev. Mr. Warren, presiding elder of the Lexington district, will preach at the Methodist church in this city Sunday morning.

Mrs. A. E. Smith had as guests last week Miss Bertha Kunz, of Greensburg, Ill., and Mrs. Charles Lischer, of St. Louis.

J. E. Page and family, of Perry, Okla., who have spent the past two weeks with Mrs. Page's parents, D. W. Parsons and wife, have gone to Indiana to visit Mrs. Page's relatives, before returning to Perry.

J. C. Longan and wife and Miss Tracy Berry, of Houstonia, made an over Sunday visit with Will Smith and family at their Pettis county farm.

F. E. Porter and wife, of this city, are receiving congratulations over the birth of a son, F. E., Jr., Tuesday, July 25.

Misses Minerva and Carrie Daniel, of Sedalia, spent Tuesday evening with Mrs. E. L. Spurgeon.

J. Railey Barbour, a Sweet Springs boy, but in recent years a prominent musician in St. Louis, is critically ill at the home of his parents here. He has a host of friends and admirers, both here and away, who sympathize with him in his illness, and hope for his speedy recovery.

The churches of this city held a union prayer meeting Wednesday evening, the object being to formulate plans for a union camp meeting on the Springs grounds during the month of August. A committee was appointed, consisting of the ministers of the different churches, to present the matter to their respective congregations and report results.

A meeting is to be held in the city hall Saturday, Aug. 8, at 2 p. m. to perfect plans for a boys' encampment at the Springs grounds, Sept, 3, 4 and 5. The arrangements for this are in competent hands, a good program has been prepared and a very interesting three days' session is promised.

The Sweet Springs baseball nine defeated the Concordia team on the diamond at the latter place Sunday afternoon, the score being 5 to 1. The game played previously on the Sweet Springs diamond which was also a victory for the home team, will not be counted, owing to the misunderstanding which arose. Another game will be played soon in this city. The Sweet Springs team will go to California Sunday to play the first nine of that city.

C. B. Smith, son of W. R. Smith and wife, of this city, and Miss Phoebe Miller, daughter of Mrs. E. E. Miller, of Smithton, were united in marriage Wednesday afternoon, July 29, at 2 o'clock at the home of the bride's sister in Sedalia. Rev. J. F. Caskey performed the ceremony. After a brief visit with relatives here the couple will go to Pueblo, Col., to reside, where the groom holds a clerical position in the office of the superintendent of the Denver and Rio Grande railway.

The body of Mrs. Alex Daniel, who died at her home in Sedalia Monday, July 27, was brought to this city Tuesday afternoon for burial. Mrs Daniel had lived in this community all her married life, until the family removed to Sedalia a few years ago. She possessed many lovable qualities of mind and heart, and the memory of her sweet christian character will be a constant inspiration to all who knew her. She is survived by her aged husband, two sons, G. L. and Albert, and two daughters, Misses Minerva and Carrie. A number of Sedalia friends, together with the Rev. Dudley M. Clagett, of the Presbyterian church, accompanied the remains, and the Rev. Mr. Clagett conducted the services. They were met at the station here by many friends of the family, going direct to Fairview cemetery.

A Boon to Elderly People.

Most elderly people have some kidney or bladder disorder that is both painful and dangerous. Foley's Kidney Remedy has proven a boon to many elderly people, as it stimulates the urinary organs, corrects irregularities, and tones up the whole system. Commence taking Foley's Kidney Remedy at once and be vigorous. Arlington Pharmacy.

Mike McGinley Heard From.

Mike McGinley writes the Democrat-Sentinel from Linen Hall hotel, Belfast, Ireland, under date of July 25, as follows:

"We have been here for the last four days. It has been raining and we could not go out of doors one-half the time, but one can get used to anything. We are going from here to Scotland and thence to England. We have been over a good portion of Ireland, this being our last town.

"I cannot tell when we will leave for home, as we have made no arrangements as yet to that end. We are all well, but have been slow in seeing what I would like to see. Regards to all friends."

Took Supper at Norton Farm.

(From Sunday's Daily.)

Chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Meyers and Mrs. J. T. Carman, the following took supper at the Norton farm, three and one-half miles north of the city, Friday evening, and returned home during the night: Misses Blanche Duncan, Ruth Dexter, Lillie Brandt, Grace Carman and Messrs. Arthur Hoffman, Louis Schuman, Richard Carman and George Smith.

Mr. Sturges Won the Cup.

G. A. Sturges won the cup in the approaching and putting contest on the golf links of the Country club Friday afternoon.

Boy Who Was Bitten by Dog.

Master Rudolph Nasse, the 7-year-oldson of Dr. and Mrs. Edmund Nasse, who was bitten by a dog early last week, is improving satisfactorily, and no serious complications are anticipated.

Rheumatism

I have found a tried and tested cure for Rheumatism! Not a remedy that will straighten the distorted limbs of chronic cripples, nor turn bony growths back to flesh again. That is impossible. But I can now surely kill the pains and pangs of this deplorable disease.

In Germany—with a Chemist in the City of Darmstadt—I found the last ingredient with which Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Remedy was made a perfected, dependable prescription. Without that last ingredient, I successfully treated many, many cases of Rheumatism; but now, at last, it uniformly cures all curable cases of this heretofore much dreaded disease. Those sand-like granular wastes, found in Rheumatic Blood, seem to dissolve and pass away under the action of this remedy as freely as does sugar when added to pure water. And then, when dissolved, these poisonous wastes freely pass from the system, and the cause of Rheumatism is gone forever. There is now no real need—no actual excuse to suffer longer without help. We sell, and in confidence recommend

PRAYER OR CORKSCREW

WHICH WAS USED IN OPENING REPUBLCAN CAMPAIGN IN NEW YORK.

BATTLE IN THE EAST IS NOW "ON"

Simple Folk Led to Believe That the Hard Times Incident to a Campaign Are Due to the Uncertainty of the Result.

(By Glenn Guernsey.)

New York, Aug. 1.—With the establishment of national headquarters in New York today the republican campaign was formally opened. Whether it was opened with prayer or a corkscrew I know not. Let the mere chronicler of things attend to the details, while I herald abroad the glad tidings of that which is to be.

In the first place, then, Mr. Taft is to be elected. I have this straight from Mr. Hitchcock. Second, there is to be no period of "hard times," such as usually accompanies a presidential campaign. For this, in the language affected in Battle Creek, Mich., "There's a reason."

A theory is abroad in the land that leads simple folks to believe that the "hard times" incident to a national campaign are due to the uncertainty of the result.

Viewing the possibility of a democratic occupant of the White House, the alarmed wheat refuses to sprout and the terrified swine and cattle decline to take nourishment and die. Considering the probability of a g. o. p. president, the little sheep turn up their toes and the lowing kine become as dry as Atlanta, Ga.

Meanwhile, the festive grape and the jocund coryphee never fail to yield up their choicest vintage, and the busy silk worm and the impoverished duke are always on the job.

In the past it has always cost Wall street a great deal of money to conduct campaigns. In this connection, let not the pot call the kettle black. Wall street has never backed favorites, but has always played them across the boards. Nor were the campaign managers to blame. By common consent of the people the financing of campaigns was long looked upon as the customary prerogative of Wall street.

Yet Wall street has never really paid. It loved its wine and women, its silks and simpletons too well for that. The hand that gave was Wall streets, but the money belonged to others.

So, of course, it came to pass that during a national campaign there were "hard times" for the poor and middle classes. (How glibly we Americans write of classes which do not exist.) Somebody had to pay the millions that were used in manufacturing political thunder. I shrewdly suspect, dear reader, that you were among the number ass-essed.

Now, praises be, all is changed. The saffron canine has been sent to the public pound. The common citizen will be depended upon to cough up the campaign expenses by direct contribution and not through Wall street.

So is Wall street deprived of any excuse for inflicting hard times upon a defenseless country. The money changers are scourged from the temple. Peace, plentitude and prosperity abound in the land, and the government at Washington still lives.

It is a brave experiment, and all must wish it well. My only sorrow is for the campaign managers. Their strong boxes are not yet bulging with the thank offerings of the multitude.

Honest confession, it is said, is good for the soul. Craving harp and crown, the average citizen will probably admit that he is willing to shout for his candidate and to vote for him, but that to contribute when the plate is passed around is another matter. For the average citizen, unlike Wall street, has only his own money to offer.

Depending upon the multitude for food and sustenance, the g. o. p. elephant and the democratic donkey are like to go hungry. Shut out from the Wall street manger, which, in the sleek, fat days of yore, was stuffed with provender by the swart hand of dollar-marked capital, the patient beasts are now turned out to face a cold and uncharitable world. Let us, at least, give them our sympathy. They are not likely to get much else.

Has Moved to Sedalia.

Dr. D. F. Dyer, of Dresden, who bought the office and practice of Dr. Shirk, has moved to Sedalia, and, with Dr. Cole, will continue the office in the Potter block on West Fourth street. The Democrat-Sentinel welcomes the gentleman to Sedalia.

LOONEY & BLOESS LUMBER CO. FOR RUBBER ROOFING, $1.50 PER SQUARE.

In the Circuit Court of Pettis County, Missouri, October Term, 1908.

The Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company.....Plaintiff vs.

George, E. D. Mayes, trustee, Wilbur E. Hoag, A. Cole, John Williams, W Eicholz, H. Hoehns, J. P Schmidt, John Schlueing, William Cox and August Cox ..... Defendants.

Now on this day comes the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company, plaintiff in the above entitled cause, before the undersigned clerk of the circuit court of Pettis county, in the state of Missouri, in vacation, and files his petition reciting, among other things, that the above entitled defendants, Clinton George and E. D. Mayes, trustee, are non-residents of the state of Missouri and cannot be served with process in this state in the manner prescribed by the statutes.

It is thereupon ordered by the clerk aforesaid, in vacation, that publication be made, notifying the said Clifton George and E. D. Mayes, trustee, that an action has been commenced against them by petition and summons in the circuit court of Pettis county, in the state of Missouri, for the foreclosure of a certain deed of trust executed by Samuel W. Roberts and Frances L. Roberts to Wilbur E. Hoag, trustee, to secure the payment to the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company of a certain note for the sum of $28,000.00 described in said mortgage dated the 13th day of June, 1906, payable five years after date and bearing five per cent interest from date, the interest payable annually on the first days of January in each and every year, and conveying to said trustee as security for the payment of said note the following described real estate situated in the said Pettis county, to-wit:

The North fractional half of Section number Two (2) Township number Forty-four (44) Range number Twenty (20) except the South West quarter of the North West quarter otherwise described as the West half of Lot number One (1) in the North West quarter of said Section, containing Three Hundred Sixty Nine and Fifteen one-hundredths (369 15-100) acres, more or less. The East half of the South West quarter, the North Fifty-five (55) acres of the West half of the South East quarter and the North Ten (10) acres of the East half of the South East quarter of said Section number Two (2). The fractional North West quarter of Section number One (1) Township and Range aforesaid except Four and Seventy-five one-hundredths (4 75-100) acres in the North East corner of said North West quarter in the shape of a right angle triange, the East and West line thereof being Two Hundred and Eighty (280) yards in length and the North and South line thereof One Hundred and Sixty-seven (167) yards in length, excepting also Ten (10) acres in the South East corner of said North West quarter in the shape of a right angle triangle, the North and South line thereof being Eighty (80) poles in length, and the East and West line thereof Forty (40) poles in length. Alsa the North Ten (10) acres of the North West quarter of the Southwest quarter of said Section number One (1). Also Fixty-six and Nineteen One-hundredths (56 19 100) acres in Sections number Thirty-five (35) and Thirty-six (36) in Township number Forty-five (45) Range number Twenty (20) described as follows: Beginning at the South West corner of the South East quarter of the South East quarter of said Section number Thirty-five (35); thence North Ninety-one (31) poles; thence East Sixty-seven and One-half (67½) poles; thence South Thirty-six and One-half (36½) poles; thence East Fifty-two (52) poles; thence south to the section line and thence west to the place of beginning. Also the South East quarter of the North East quarter and the East half of the South East quarter and the South West quarter of the South East quarter of Section number Twenty-five (25) Township number Forty-five (45) Range number Twenty (20). The premises hereby mortgaged containing in the aggregate Nine Hundred Thirty-Four and Seventy-six one-hundredths (934 76-100) acres, more or less.

And that unless they be and appear at the next term of said court to be holden at the Court House in Sedalia, within the said county of Pettis on the 5th day of October, 1908, and on or before the 3rd day thereof, if the term shall so long continue, and if not, then before the end of the term, judgment will be rendered against them foreclosing their equity of redemption in the premises aforesaid, and the said premises will be sold to satisfy the indebtedness secured thereby and the costs and expenses incurred therein as provided for in said deed of trust.

It is further ordered that a copy hereof be published in the Weekly Democrat-Sentinel, a newspaper published in the said county of Pettis for four weeks successively, the last insertion to be not less than thirty days before the commencement of the next term of court.

A true copy.

It Was Mr. Loewer's Birthday.

(From Sunday's Daily.)

Albert T. Loewer, the popular East Third street merchant tailor, reached the forty-fourth milestone on the journey of life Saturday, and it was because of this that the Democrat-Sentinel force was last night smoking "E. T. B." cigars at his expense. May he live to celebrate the one hundredth anniversary of his birth, never knowing sickness or sorrow in the meantime.

WORKING SMOOTH GAME

Allegation Made That Couple of Sedalians Are "Badgering" Young Men.

Complaint was made at police headquarters Saturday that a young married couple of this city, well known in East Sedalia, are resorting to the tactics of the notorious "badger" game with the intention of victimizing "suckers" out of money and valuables.

The man in question is employed on one of the railways out of this city, while his wife is frequently seen on the streets. On more than one occasion the woman in question has agreed to meet certain young men of this city and at the designated time the irate husband appears and demands restitution.

In several cases the man in the case has confronted his wife's escort several days after the meeting.

One of the plain-clothes men has been detailed on the case, and very likely further developments will result.

CADETS ARE REINSTATED

Those Who Were Dismissed From West Point Recently.

MOTHER'S FRIEND

DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, uric acid, catarrh of the bladder and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work and in private practice, and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper, who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root, and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles are sold by all good druggists. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

COMMON LAW WIFE LOST

SHE WEPT AT POINTED QUESTIONS

She and Collard Had Lived Together as Mr. and Mrs. Dave Williamson—Plaintiff Lost Case and Then She Fainted.

(From Sunday's Daily.)

A case that many readers of the Democrat-Sentinel are familiar with was written of as follows in the Jefferson City Post of Friday afternoon:

In the circuit court today the attention of the court was taken up in finishing the case of Annie C. Collard vs. N. C. Burch, administrator of the estate of J. D. Collard, a Missouri Pacific conductor, who died here suddenly last March.

In this case Mrs. Annie C. Collard was the plaintiff and asked the court to allow her a widow's dower in the estate of her late husband.

The evidence in the case showed that Mr. and Mrs. Collard lived together in Kansas City as husband and wife under the name of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Williamson, and later on went under the name of Collard.

Mrs. Collard claimed that they were married on February 24, 1904, but did not produce any record to prove the same.

Mrs. Collard remained in the court room nearly the entire day, and when the attorneys for the plaintiff were a little tough she wept silently and seemed to be much affected.

The jury returned a verdict for the defendant. Mrs. Collard fainted on hearing the verdict, and was carried into W. S. Pope's office.

At the time of going to press she was still unconscious, under the care of Dr. Aldridge.

CROWD THOUGHT IT WAS JOKE

Jeered at Two Men Who Were Drowning in St. Louis.

St. Louis, Aug. 3.—While other swimmers and scores of spectators on the banks, including women and children, thought they were joking and jeered at them, two men, believed to have been W. P. Jarazzawitz and W. J. Pruseile, of 782 Milwaukee avenue, Chicago, each about 25 years old, were drowned late Sunday afternoon in the Meremac river. The bodies have not been recovered.

"JACK" DALTON, PRINTER

IN YEARS LONG PASSED HE SET TYPE ON NEWSPAPERS IN SEDALIA.

FOREMAN OF WARRENSBURG PAPER

Says He Was Born a Tramp, and Wants to Live and Die One—Searching for Place He Has Never Been Able to Find.

Jack Dalton, years ago foreman of the Warrensburg Standard newspaper office, and later a type-setter on different Sedalia publications, was written of as follows in the St. Louis Post-Dispatch of Sunday:

On the way from everywhere to anywhere, Jack Dalton, "floater" and "champion tramp printer of the world," passed through St. Louis yesterday.

Dalton is 46 years old. For twenty-seven years he has been a derelict, floating wherever the winds of chance blew him. He has been around the world several times, is yet drifting, and expects to drift as long as he lives. He is a tramp because he likes the life.

"Tramping is the most beneficial and healthful life there is," he says.

Dalton is an Irishman. Anyone might tell that by the cut of his jib and the humorous, laughing expression of his face.

He was in his shirt sleeves yesterday. He wore an old—battered, straw hat. The collar of his shirt was turned down at his neck and his duck trousers that once were white were almost black.

"Would you rather tramp than settle down and be decent?" he was asked.

"Would I? Why, of course I would. The tramp is the only real aristocrat. He has no boss. He sleeps when he likes to. He eats when he feels hungry. When he is tired of one place he gets up and goes. His life is full of change and novelty. It is all new and interesting. He hasn't a care. Now isn't that better than tying yourself to one place and being a slave to business, as you are?"

He said he had a good education and that after he had learned the printer's trade and had worked at it awhile he became a philosopher and decided to live by his wits.

"I'm what you might call a miscellaneous character," he said. "I'm the nearest approach to the wandering minstrel of the Middle Ages that you could find in these days. I am a professional story-teller in my own way. Wherever I go the people are sorry when I leave. You see I have been all over the world. I never forget a thing and I'm loaded with anecdotes that I tell in an interesting manner, and folks are glad to feed me and give me all I can drink in return for my entertainment."

"Oh, you drink do you?"

"Drink? Why, I haven't been sober in years. Whisky has prolonged my life. I drink it all the time, and I drink it straight, without water or chasers. I traveled a year and a half with Francis Murphy, the great temperance lecturer. He used me as a terrible example. Fact. I assure you. I stayed with him because I got drunk every day and then in the meeting I would get up and make a spiel and sign the pledge. But I always broke it the next morning. It was great.

"I've been up against it all, the rough, the smooth, the slick and all. In elocution I don't take a back seat from anyone. I am the only American that ever made a home rule speech in Ireland.

"I made it in a blacksmith shop in Wicklow when I was tramping through Ireland. And I made such a hit that John Moore, a man who had made his fortune in the gold fields of Australia, took a liking to me and kept me in his house for six months. That's what education and wit will do for a man. Oh, I tell you I've put my education and experience to good use."

"Why are there so many tramps in this country?"

"Because tramping is such a fine life. Take me now; I'm a pioneer and an adventurer. I always wanted to travel to some place and I haven't found it yet. I've been haunted from one place to another all my life, and I'll keep it up till I go back to Mother Earth. Once in Birmingham, England, I walked up and down at the docks debating in my own mind whether I'd go to London for the summer or go to Chicago for the world's fair. I decided to go to Chicago, and in two weeks I was there."

"How did you get there?"

"Oh, that's easy. That's a part of my trade. I can travel anywhere in the world as fast, almost, as if I paid my way. I was in Oklahoma when the Strip opened; I was in London at the Queen's jubilee and again when Edward was crowned; I saw the funeral of Cecil Rhdes in South Africa; I came across the Pacific ocean on the same steamer with Kipling; I was in Calcutta during the famine and managed to beg a good meal or two every day; I was in Havana during the Spanish-American war.

"We're poor, weak mortals, all of us, and are controlled by a power higher than us, and we can't help what we are, and that's a fact. Don't you doubt it. It was cut out for me to be a tramp, and I am one, and I couldn't be anything else if I tried, and I don't want to try."

Lonnie Lott and Mamie Williams, both of Sedalia.

A STUDENT IN SEDALIA

DR. L. E. WHITNEY, WHOSE DEAD BODY WAS FOUND NEAR CARTHAGE, MO.

NOW BELIEVED HE WAS MURDERED

He Married Miss Jennie Kendall, of Windsor, Mo., in 1882—Coroner's Jury Has Adjourned for Seven Days.

Dr. L. E. Whitney, of Carthage, whose dead body was found near there last Thursday, studied medicine with Dr. D. T. Abell in Sedalia more than thirty years ago, and is well known to many of the older residents of the city.

Dr. Whitney married Miss Jennie Kendall, of Windsor, Mo., in 1882. The widow and two daughters survive.

A Carthage dispatch to Saturday's Globe-Democrat gives additional facts to those published in the Democrat-Sentinel Friday, as follows:

The killing of Dr. L. E. Whitney is still a mystery, although evidence before the coroner's jury today tends strongly toward the belief that the man was lured to the country by a false call and slugged. The doctor's medicine case was found today seventy yards west of where the buggy stood, under which he lay unconscious and helpless all Wednesday night until 6 o'clock Thursday morning, when he was found.

The attending physician testified that the doctor never recovered consciousness, and the autopsy this morning showed that death was caused by concussion of the brain from a blow on the head. Other evidence developed that citizens out riding met the doctor going east two miles out, following a closely curtained buggy occupied by a man and woman. The same buggy was seen early in the evening near the Whitney residence. The coroner's jury visited the scene where the doctor was found, returned to town and adjourned for one week.

The sheriff and other officers are bending their energies to locate the persons in the curtained buggy, a circumstance so unusual, considering the extremely hot weather when all other vehicles were open as much as possible.

A ROW AT A BALL GAME

Umpire Had a Hard Time at Joplin Sunday Afternoon.

Joplin, Mo., Aug. 3.—The after effects of a shower during the game yesterday necessitated police interference twice to preserve the peace.

Manager Hoffer, of the Mets, in the fifth inning, "sassed" Umpire Alloway, who fined him and fined him $5.

Play was suspended during the seventh while a shower fell, and Hoffer returned. Alloway fined him another $5. Hoffer started to whip Alloway, which resulted in another fine of $15.

When Allaway called play Bemis was on the sidelines, warming up. He did not enter the box and Alloway sent Brooks, at bat, to first on balls. Kelsey, catching, walked away as Bemis prepared to pitch.

Quiesser was at bat and Bemis wouldn't pitch with Kelsey gone, so Quiesser walked to first.

Bemis attacked Alloway, who shed his protector and started to "clean" Bemis. The police interfered just as Folbre went to the aid of Bemis.

In the mixup Folbre was punched in the left eye, blacking it nicely. The visitors won by outplaying the Miners all around, the score being 2 to 1.

Katy Agent Goes to Europe.

T. M. Roberts, the veteran agent of the M., K. & T., will enjoy his vacation this year in "Merrie England," and leaves tomorrow for his journey across the water, says the Clinton Democrat. Mrs. Roberts will spend the summer in Canada.

Mr. Roberts will probably be absent two months, and M. L. Osborn, of Montrose, will act as station agent during his absence.

The Badge of Honesty

Is on every wrapper of Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery because a full list of the ingredients composing it is printed there in plain English. Forty years of experience has proven its superior worth as a blood purifier and invigorating tonic for the cure of stomach disorders and all liver ills. It builds up the run-down system as no other tonic can in which alcohol is used. The active medicinal principles of native roots such as Golden Seal and Queen's root, Stone and Mandrake root, Bloodroot and Black Cherrybark are extracted and preserved by the use of chemically pure, triple-refined glycerine. Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce at Buffalo, N. Y., for free booklet which quotes extracts from well-recognized medical authorities such as Drs. Bartholow, King, Scudder, Coe, Ellingwood and a host of others, showing that these roots can be depended upon for their curative action in all weak states of the stomach, accompanied by indigestion or dyspepsia as well as in all bilious or liver complaints and in all "wasting diseases" where there is loss of flesh and gradual running down of the strength and system.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" makes rich, pure blood and so invigorates and regulates the stomach, liver and bowels, and, through them, the whole system. Thus all skin affections, blotches, pimples and eruptions as well as scrofulous swellings and old open running sores or ulcers are cured and healed. In treating old running sores, or ulcers, it is well to insure their healing to apply to them Dr. Pierce's All-Healing Salve. If your druggist don't happen to have this Salve in stock, send fifty-four cents in postage stamps to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Dr. R. V. Pierce, Pres., Buffalo, N. Y., and a large box of the "All-Healing Salve" will reach you by return post.

You can't afford to accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this non-alcoholic medicine OF KNOWN COMPOSITION, not even though the urgent dealer may thereby make a little bigger profit.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. Sugar-coated, tiny granules, easy to take as candy.

ONE DEAD, 25 HURT IN RIOT

Slavs and Italians Battle in Uniontown Coke Plant.

Uniontown, Pa., Aug. 3.—One man dead and twenty-five others seriously injured, some of them fatally, are the results of a riot Sunday between Italians and Slavs at Gates, one of the H. C. Frick Coke company's plants, near Mason.

There have been factional differences between the two races for a long time. Saturday was pay day at the plant, and until after midnight Sunday morning intoxicants were freely consumed. Jacob Furanio, leader of the Italian faction, went to the gate of a Slav boarding house and defied its inmates.

Immediately Furanio and Alexander Molenski, leader of the Savs, were engaged in a fight. Antillo Ronco, another Italian, went to the assistance of the former and this was the signal for a general fight.

Revolvers began to crack and Ronco fell dead.

The most serious wounds were received by the Italians. Nineteen rioters were arrested. Members of both factions then surrounded the jail, demanding that their companions be liberated.

All night the jail was guarded. Sunday the men were brought to Uniontown on a special street car. More arrests are expected.

COUNTY COURT DOINGS

Henry Weigand Will Close His Brewery on Sunday.

David Riley, Buckley & McGurren and John Stobel were granted dramshop licenses by the judges of the Pettis county court today.

The Hamlet and Potter road cases were continued until Thursday, and the Choplin, McMullin and D. H. Smith road cases were continued until the second day of this term.

Henry Wiegand, the North Sedalia brewer, at the instigation of Prosecuting Attorney Dow and the judges of the county court, was cited to appear before that body to explain the sale of liquor on Sunday.

Weigand has a manufacturer's license to do business and promised to close his place on Sunday and to do no more retail business.

Picnic at Thatcher's Ford.

About two dozen young people, members of the Young Men's league and the Marian Sodality of Sacred Heart church, drove to Thatcher's ford Sunday afternoon and spent the time until evening on the banks of the creek. The party took refreshments with them, and all had a delightful time.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Eastman Cornelius, of Wichita, Kas., formerly of Kansas City, announce the birth of a daughter, Ruth Elizabeth, Friday July 31. Mrs. Cornelius was formerly Miss Cleopatra Dix. Mrs. Cornelius is well known in Sedalia.

FOLK WITH THE MILITIA

HIS PRESENCE IN THE COUNTY PRODUCES AN ALCOHOLIC DRAUGHT.

ONLY COUPLE OF CRACKS IN "LID"

Gen. DeArmond and Gen. Clarke Ride With the Executive—National Guardsmen Indulge in Target Practice.

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 3.—That the military power of the state was practically evoked to put the lid on St. Louis county yesterday was shown by the fact that Gov. Folk had with him or his tour of inspection through the county, Adjt. Gen. DeArmond and Brig. Gen. Clark, and Majors W. L. Chambers and A. C. Orrick. Thus the governor indicated that he was acting as commander in chief of the National Guard of the state.

The governors' announcement that he would call out a regiment of the National Guard if necessary to put the lid on had its effect, and St. Louis county experience the dryest day of its history.

In only two places, it is said, was there the smallest crack in the lid. At Wellston and at University City it is said that a man who knew the ropes and had the password, and also the confidence of the owners of the booze, was able to quench his thirst if he went about it circumspectly. Chere Coeur Lake was an alcoholic desert.

On the whole however, the military expedition found no need of calling for reinforcements, and the National Guardsmen of the city were allowed to rest in peace.

Some sixty-five of them spent the day in target practice at the rifle range across the Missouri river at St. Charles, and many persons who saw them coming and going thought that the rifle practice was merely an excuse to have a body of armed men ready for instant service.

In this, however, they were mistaken, for the first regiment had men at the range every Saturday and Sunday this summer, except when the high water prevented.

The civil branch of the government, represented by Sheriff Clarence Campbell, of Clayton, was also satisfied that the county was really dry. Sheriff Campbell spent the day scouring the county in search of open saloons, and stated last night that his search had not been able to find any

A FUGITIVE FROM JUSTICE

Negro Who Is Wanted in Alabama Is Arrested Here.

Philip Forman, a negro, 40 years old, was arrested by Assistant Chief of Police Card and Officers Robertson and Redmon in Stringtown at 4 o'clock this morning at the instance of the sheriff of Ashland, Clay county, Ala., where he is wanted for breaking his labor contract, after being convicted of assault and battery.

Several days ago, Assistant Chief Card learned that Forman was in Sedalia. He located him and yesterday it was arranged to raid his home early this morning. In accordance, the three surrounded the place and found Forman asleep.

He will be held pending the arrival of an officer from Alalbama.

Butts Under an Engine the Man Who Had Saved Her Life.

Zanesville, Ohio, Aug. 3.—Sherman Keyes, O. R. & W. railroad section foreman, was killed in a very peculiar manner near here.

He had stopped a train to get a cow off a trestle, and, when the train started up again, the cow became frightened at the escaping steam and ran into him, knocking him under the engine.

A FREAK OF THE LIGHTNING

Victim Is a Patient at the M., K. & T. Railway Hospital.

Among the arrivals at the M., K. & T. hospital in this city today is a negro crusher laborer, named Will Ham White, hailing from Chockie, Okla., who bears marks of the queer tactics of lightning, played while a congregation of colored folks were at prayer at Stringtown, Okla., last week.

White, who is 39 years old, was seated in the church when a bolt of lightning struck the building. Two negroes were stricken and rendered unconscious, while White alone sustained a partial stroke.

He left the church hurriedly, and on reaching home discovered that the lightning had torn a strip of skin one and one-half inches wide from his body, extending from the left thigh to the left calf, about eighteen inches.

The strip was torn zig-zag, and simply removed the skin in such a manner so as to permit a slight flow of blood from the wound.

White, being an employe of the M., K. & T., was sent to the hospital here to receive treatment for the lightning stroke.

IS OFF ON HIS VACATION

The Rev. Mr. Atwill Remembered by His Flock.

(From Monday's Daily.)

The members of Calvary church on Saturday night did a nice thing for their rector, upon the occasion of his leaving for a month's vacation granted him by the vestry.

Mr. Vollrath met the young rector on the street, and on behalf of his congregation presented him with a purse containing quite a sum of money.

The rector was so surprised that he made no effort at expressing his gratitude, but at yesterday morning's service he very gracefully expressed his thanks for the generosity of his people.

Mr. Atwill is off on his vacation, which he will spend with his father, the Rt. Rev. Bishop Atwill, in Minnesota.

During his absence his church will be closed. He expects to return to his pulpit the first Sunday in September next.

Made 3,000 Pounds of Butter.

Three thousand pounds of butter were manufactured at the plant of the Sweet Springs Creamery company Saturday, the largest number of pounds ever manufactured in a single day since the establishment of the firm.

The average quantity manufactured is between 2,000 and 2,500 pounds, and the greater portion of Saturday's turnout will be shipped to Chicago, where a better price is commanded for the product.

IS A YOUTHFUL FORGER

BOY OF 14 ACCUSED OF FORGING BROTHER'S NAME TO SEVERAL CHECKS.

HE HAS LEFT FOR PARTS UNKNOWN

Crime Was Not Discovered Until Today, When Officers Were Notified of Alleged Crime by Bank Official.

(From Sunday's Daily.)

The police and constabulary are searching for a 14-year-old son of C. W. Estabrook, a Missouri Pacific shopman, who is wanted on the charge of forging the name of his brother, Clyde Estabrook, a clerk at the Red Cross pharmacy, to twenty-five checks, more or less, for small amounts on a local bank.

The aggregate amount of the forged checks is over $60 and represented a saving made by Clyde Estabrook, with which he expected to complete a course of schooling.

The discovery of the repeated forgeries was made by the cashier of the bank Saturday. Clyde Esrabrook, who is about 18 years of age, had accumulated about $65 in the bank.

The younger brother forged his older brother's name to each check and cashed the same at an East Sedalia grocery firm. Suspicion was aroused at the bank after several checks had been cashed, and on inquiring, the bank officials were informed by the groceryman that the checks were all right, as he knew the boy and his family.

Nothing more was said about them until Saturday, when the elder Estabrook started to balance his account, and discovered that out of his $65 savings he had only $1.45 left. Active steps are being taken to apprehend the guilty boy.

KILLED WIFE AND BABE

THEN FATALLY WOUNDED A MAN WHO HAD ATTEMPTED HIS CAPTURE.

STOLE HORSE AND BUGGY; FLED

Was Being Trailed at the Time by Officers for the Cold Blooded Murder of a Man in Illinois on July Fourth.

Tulsa, Ok., Aug. 1.—Clay Harris, a white man, here this morning shot and instantly killed his wife, part Indian, his one-year-old baby, and fatally wounded Walter Van, driver of an express wagon, who attempted to capture him. Harris escaped, after stealing a horse and buggy. A posse was soon formed and started in pursuit.

Harris came to Tulsa last Thursday, for murdering a man July 4, and Illinois officers were trailing him at the time of the murder here. After shooting a man at Fairfield, Harris escaped. The man died four days later. The state of Illinois offered a reward of $500 for Harris' arrest, and officers have since been following him.

Harris came to ulsa last Thursday. He forced his wife at the point of a revolver to sell her Indian land, took the proceeds and departed for Claremore, Ok., after ordering her to meet him there, but Mrs. Harris did not leave Tulsa.

Officers who had traced him this far went on to Claremore. Harris outwitted them and came back to Tulsa at midnight last night. He hid in his house and waited for the return in the morning of his wife, who had spent the night at the home of her father, Chauncey Owens, a wealthy half-breed Indian.

When the woman entered her yard this morning, carrying her baby in her arms, Harris approached, gun in hand. Mrs. Harris ran screaming to a neighbor's, but before assistance could arrive he had emptied his revolver into the body of the woman and also the baby.

Mrs. Harris was shot three times in the breast, dying almost instantly, while one bullet pierced the baby's heart.

Walter Van attempted to pursue Harris, but he turned upon him and fired. The first shot took effect, and Van fell, probably fatally wounded.

Harris then forcibly took the buggy and horse of a collector standing by, and after firing an ineffectual shot at the collector, drove off toward the hills. Within half an hour a posse had been organized and started in pursuit. Several women neighbors of the Harris family were eyewitnesses of the double murder.

Former Sedalian in Europe.

Charles H. Grasty, more than thirty years ago a reporter on the old Sedalia Democrat, was written of as follows in the Fourth Estate last Saturday:

"Another rumor in circulation during the week was that Charles H. It was further stated that Mr. Grasty was traveling in Europe and that no direct confirmation of the report was obtainable."

MISS LOGAN HOSTESS

Lawn Party Given in Honor of Guests Last Night.

The Longan home on West Broadway was the scene of a very delightful entertainment last night given by Miss Frances for her guests and schoolmates at Hollins (Va.) institute, Misses Rebecca Porter, Memphis, Tenn.; Katherine Mockbee, Cincinnati, and Adaire Crane, Ft. Smith, Ark. Miss Longan was assisted in entertaining by her sister, Miss Agnes Scott.

The party was given on the lawn, which was lighted with a score or more of Japanese lanterns of various designs. A barn dance and fancy dancing, given on a large tarpolin, furnished the chief diversion, while a booth sheltering an occult reader provided much amusement. Music was furnished by a string band.

Punch and sandwiches were served.

The guests included the younger society folk of the city. Miss Longan's guests are young lady school mates whom she met while attending school at Hollins institute at Hollins, Virginia.

It is believed he became delirious from the heat and wandered away. A brother is engaged in the horse business in Olathe, Kan.

OUTLAWRY IS RAMPANT

ST. LOUIS COUNTY IS IN A STATE BORDERING UPON REAL ANARCHY.

GOVERNOR J. W. FOLK IS AROUSED

Saturday Looked Into the Situation and Declared That if Necessary He Will Call Out Militia to Enforce the Law.

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 1.—A conference will be held at the Planters' hotel tomorrow between Governor Folk, Adjutant General of the National Guard James A DeArmond and Dr R. B. Denny, foreman of the St. Louis county grand jury, at which it will be determined whether the state militia is necessary to stamp out lawlessness in St. Louis county.

Governor Folk arrived in St. Louis last night from the Montgomery county old settlers' reunion at New Florence, where he spoke, and deprecated his lack of power to remove from office the incompetent sheriff and prosecuting attorney of St. Louis county. The governor expressed himself tonight as determined to force respect for the state statutes by the law breakers of St. Louis county. He declared that if the officers of the county continued to wink at open violations of the Sunday and other laws, he would take a hand in an no uncertain manner.

The aid of the state militia is offered to the grand jury of St. Louis county by the governor, and it is probable the governor will make a personal inspection of the county today, accompanied by Gen. DeArmond and Dr. Denny.

"If I do not go myself, Gen. DeArmond will," he said tonight. "I want him to find out for himself just what the conditions are in the county and to determine just where the militiamen will be most needed in the event that it is decided that their presence in the county is necessary to force respect for the law."

"The governor has no power in this state to remove prosecuting attorneys or sheriffs," continued Gover nor Folk. "The legislatrue was asked to enact a law giving the state power to enforce the liquor laws in St. Louis county, but it failed to do so. The local officials have been urged to take effective action without avail. The assistant attorney general has been at work in the county, but the outlawry seems to continue unabated. The grand jury is composed of good men and appears to be doing all it can. This outlawry must be stopped and if drastic measures are used it will be because the situation requires such measures. The grand jury will have the full power of the state to back it up and the National Guard is at the service of that body. The outlaw liquor sellers in the county appear to be determined to have a test of strength with the state and they will be accommodated. If the steps indicated must be taken, these lawbreakers who have been violating the laws of the state will have only themselves to blame.

"If the report in the Republic of July 14 as to what the grand jury found in their tour of the county is true, and I have no reason to question it, it should remove all doubt as to conditions in the county being serious enough for firm and effective action against an insolent, impudent gang of outlaws.

"There can be no measures too severe to meet conditions like that and to bring such scoundrels to justice. If the local officials will not uphold the law, then I will by every means in my power."

I propose to stamp out this defiance of the law of the state.

St. Louis county should not be confused with St. Louis city, where the governor has the power to enforce the law through his appointment of the police and excise commissioner. In the city the laws are absolutely enforced, through these officials. In the county there is no such authority and the only thing the governor can do to uphold the law there when the local officials fail is to use the national guard arm of the state, upon being called by thhe proper local authority. "These lawbreakers can take notice that if the county officials allow them to go on, then I will take a hand in the matter in a no uncertain way."

Creve Coeur Lake, girted by wooded hills and fanned by the summer breeze, was the scene of ribald debauchery last Sunday. Women danced without restraint of modesty, and young girls were taught to take their first drink. Without an effort at concealment intoxicating liquors were sold at six places to all who sought them and none were refused on account of youth.

Similar conditions prevailed in other sections of St. Louis county. Resorts on South Broadway, Wellston, University Heights and other places were wide open and whiskey and beer were on sale. One of the most popular places last Sunday was a floating dance pavillion on the "Lake of the Broken Heart."

One one side of the float was a bar and tables, and liquor was served to all comers, regardless of age or sex. Men, women and children were in an unruly stage of intoxication. Girls 13 and 14 years old, danced with men much their senior and drank between dances. Back, some distance, was a place where rooms were rented and drinks served. In calling for drinks no subterfuge was necessary, the lid was off and no mistake. Waiters openly commented with the guests on the advantages of personal liberty there and assured them of freedom from interference from county authorities.

Since the governor first began to enforce the lid law, the saloonkeepers of the county, who had the sympathy of the executive officers of the county, have held an attitude of defiance. Grand juries would indict, but through the influence of the prosecuting attorney and sheriff practically all prosecutions failed.

As a result there has never been a dry Sunday in the county. Twice have the citizens called on the attorney general of the state to stop the violations, and once charges of dereliction of duty were filed against the sheriff and prosecuting attorney, but were dismissed. Two weeks ago Assistant Attorney General Kennish obtained injunctions in the county circuit court to prevent five of the most notorious places from violating the law, which was a proceeding without precedent in the state. The restraining order was granted on the ground that the dives were public nuisances. The county grand jury has at this sitting returned fifty indictments into court, but with all this most of the saloons were running wide open as usual last Sunday. Dance halls and wine caves are dotted over the county at all pleasure resorts. Drunken men and women frequent these places.

One of the county officials is under fire by the grand jury now, and several witnesses who are in a position to know of graft have been examined.

Assistant Attorney General Kennish is in Jefferson City and will not return to Clayton until August 13, when the injunction cases come up. The grand jury has adjourned and will not be in session again until August 10. The assistant prosecuting attorney of St. Louis county says that when the grand jury reconvenes he will ask that body to sit for several weeks longer and will request the county authorities to give him a permanent grand jury.

"The only way to fight this business is by injunction and indictment, and if we had a continuous grand jury we could gradually enforce the lid," says Assistant Prosecutor Mills.

"In Wellston, last Sunday, there was one saloon that had no license doing business. The front door was closed, but the back and side entrances were open, and all comers were served. Lookouts were stationed near the place and when the officers came in sight, they gave an alarm and the place was instantly closed. When the deputies passed the side doors were again opened and business resumed. This is the condition practically all over the county, except in places where even this slight respect fo the law is ignored and the front doors are open. Cars to the county are crowded from early morning until after midnight. The law abiding citizens are responsible for Assistant Attorney General Kennish being here last week, and may appeal to the governor for state troops to enforce the law."

ELECTIONEERED AT TRIAL

The Pineville, Mo., Sheriff Was Acquitted of Murder.

Pineville, Mo., Aug. 1.—Thomas J. Parnell, sheriff of McDonald county, charged with the murder of William Bacon, who was slain in a street fight here July 22, when a political rally was being held, was discharged after his preliminary hearing yesterday. Bacon was the son of Parnell's predecessor. It was proved that Bacon fired the first shot.

At his trial yesterday Parnell electioneered. He is a candidate for re election.

WILL EXPEND $35,000.00

QUEEN CITY TELEPHONE CO. IS NOW GETTING READY TO BRANCH OUT.

GET NEW EQUIPMENT THROUGHOUT

Modern Switchboard to Be Installed by October 1, and Soon After That the Service Will Be Equal to the Best.

The new style of telephones to be installed by the Queen City Telephone company, which plant was purchased recently by local capitalists from out-of-town parties, are now on exhibition at several business houses throughout the city and are universally conceded to be the most convenient and modern yet seen in Sedalia.

The number on hand at present is limited, but an order has been placed for over one thousand such 'phones, and by October 1 the order will have been filled.

The enthusiasm that has developed by reason of local financiers purchasing the Queen City Telephone company is wonderful, and within a few weeks Sedalia will have in perfect operation one of the finest telephone systems in this section of the country.

The new switchboard to be installed is now in course of construction at the plant of the Sterling Electric company at Lafayette, Ind., and will be completed and erected by October 1, at which time the new telephone company will be in full operation, unless unforeseen delays arise.

The switchboard is the latest, most modern and up-to-date now being manufactured. The cost of it and the equipment, instruments, etc., will be about $35,000.

The new board will be of quarter-sawed oak, highly polished, of a double relay common battery type. It is divided into twelve sections, and will extend from the front portion of the third floor of the present quarters of the telephone office to the rear of the building.

In addition to the new switch board, a chief operator's desk will be installed, and by reason of the magnitude of the board the company's offices, manager's office and accounting department will be moved across the hall to the third floor of the building adjoining.

The Sterling Electric company has been granted a thirty days' extension of time for the completion of the board, but it will require at least six weeks to install the new equipment.

While visiting the family of W. J. Crouch at Lafayette, Ind., recently, W. H. Cloney made a personal visit to the plant of the Sterling Electric company and speaks in the highest terms of the plant and the goods manufactured by it.

"The company occupies a three-story brick building, covering practically 150,000 feet of flooring," said Mr. Cloney, in speaking of his visit at the plant, "and is fully equipped to manufacture electrical devices of all kinds, and also to handle their own cabinet work.

"In addition to the manufacture of switchboards, the company manufactures telegraph instruments, police and fire alarm boxes and special vault equipment boxes for the Western Union Telegraph company.

"At present the company is manufacturing one dozen government devices for the signal corps of the United States army, and when a government inspector recently inspected the work he pronounced it the best ever shipped to Washington.

"The Sterling people have an installing system at Lima, Peru, South America, similar to the one to be installed in Sedalia, and I feel confident in saying that the new switchboard of the Queen City Telephone company will reach the standard of any switchboard in the country."

In a letter to a well known Sedalian, Mr. Crouch refers to the Sterling company and commends it very highly. He also visited the plant where the switchboard is being manufactured, and was highly pleased with the outlook for the new telephone company in this city

WANTED TO BE "A COW GIRL"

Pretty Young Columbian Wanted to Join Wild West.

Filled with a longing to be a "cow girl," and lured by the blare of the Wild West show and the trappings and accoutrements of the daring broncho busters that composed Riggs' Rough Riders and Wild West show, Florence Hawkins yesterday signed a "rider and utility" contract with the above organization and attempted to leave with them last night, says the Columbia Herald of Saturday.

The officers were informed and Night Watchman Charles Mitchell later found Florence under a bed in the Wild West show car on the Wabash tracks. She was forced to come from her hiding place and accompany the officers.

Florence lives with her father, Lafe Hawkins, this side of Happy Hollow. In her contract she stated she was 18. Her father says she is 16. Florence had been a constant attendant upon the Wild West show at the fair grounds and became infatuated with the life.

Major General Putnam, U. S. A.

THE hero of Bunker Hill—who first marshaled the Riflemen of the Revolution—and left his plow standing in the furrow to hoist the banner of defiance against legislative oppression! Who has not heard of him?

When others faltered and grew pale, facing fearful odds, this intrepid old Puritan Commander remained strong-hearted, steadfast and true. His tavern, known to fame as the "GENERAL WOLFE," was (in its day) a celebrated meeting place for Revolutionary veterans.

In its cozy bar parlor they delighted to periodically gather and drink with him the foaming juices of the malt; toasting each other in memory of the splendid and heroic days when they gave blood and treasure to found this nation and write the immortal principle of "PERSONAL LIBERTY" in our laws forevermore.

Hale, hearty and generous minded to the last, Israel Putnam died at eighty-three, and what living Prohibitionist dare stand up and say, "I am a purer patriot than he?"

"LONG LIVE THE SULTAN!"

Placards Thus Reading orn Down at Adrianpole.

Constantinople, Aug. 1.—The situation at Adrianpole, the headquarters of the Second army corps, is giving rise to much concern.

A strong feeling there against the sultan has been evidenced by the tearing down of placards bearing the words, "Long live the Sultan," while at a meeting held in the public gardens a protest was raised against cheers being given for the sultan.

COLORADO IS 32 YEARS OLD

Anniversary Was Observed In the Centennial State.

Denver, Colo. August 1.—Colorado day, a legal holiday in this state, was observed today with appropriate exercises. Banks, public offices, etc., were closed.

This is the thirty-second anniversary of the admission of the state to the union.

Celebrated His Birthday.

(From Sunday's Daily.)

Leonard E. Johnson, owner of the former Baumgartner barber shop, yesterday celebrated the thirty-eighth anniversary of his birth. "Len" is a rock-ribbed democrat from Lafayette county, as clever a gentleman as one will meet in a day's travel, and the Democrat-Sentinel trusts that he may be spared to celebrate many more anniversaries.

FOUND GOLD IN A TRUNK

PUBLIC ADMINISTRATOR LOCATES CASH OF DEAD MAN AT AGENCY, MO.

HE WORKED IN A STIRRUP FACTORY

Mr. M. J. Thompson, Bachelor, Who Died Suddenly Wednesday, Had Money in Several Purses and Also in a Bank.

St. Joseph, Mo., Aug. 1.—While taking an inventory of the estate of the late M. J. Thompson, at Agency, yesterday, Public Administrator James A. Gibson found $205 in gold and $184 in currency in the dead man's trunk. The money was in six different purses, scattered among a miscellaneous collection of effects.

There also was a bank book showing a deposit of $400 and a certificate of deposit for $1,000. Mr. Gibson estimated the estate, consisting of money and personal property exclusively, to be worth $1,957.

Mr. Thompson, who had been assistant foreman of the stirrup factory at Agency for six years, died suddenly of heart failure while on his way home from a ball game Wednesday.

He was a bachelor, 55 years of age. The body was sent to Columbus, Ky., for interment.

The July Sale of Stamps.

Postmaster E. E. Codding Saturday forwarded to Washington, D. C., his report of the month's business at the postoffice here, and it certainly shows that business in Sedalia is all right.

The month's sales of postage stamps, stamped envelopes and postal cards aggregated $4,316.82 as against $3,190.14 for July, 1907, or an increase of $1,126.68.

If Mr. Codding can keep up this lick, it means that he is likely to have another $100 added to his salary for the next year.

S.S.S. CURES ECZEMA, ACNE, TETTER ETC.

The skin is an index to the quality of the blood. Eczema, Acne, Tetter, pimples, rashes, eruptions, etc., show that some unhealthy humor or acid impurity is diseasing and corrupting the circulation, so that instead of supplying nourishment and strength to the fine, delicate tissues of the skin, it is continually pouring out its acrid and unhealthy accumulations. External applications of salves, washes, lotions, etc., may relieve some of the itching and other discomfort caused by skin troubles, and for this reason should be used, but such treatment cannot reach the humor-laden blood, and therefore cannot cure. A thorough cleansing of the blood is the only cure for skin diseases. S. S. S., a purely vegetable preparation, is the best and quickest remedy. It goes down into the circulation and neutralizes and removes the acids, impurities and humors, thoroughly purifies the circulation and permanently cures skin diseases of every kind. When S. S. S. has driven the humors and impurities from the blood, and cooled and cleansed the acid-heated circulation, every symptom passes away, the skin is again nourished with rich, healthful blood and the trouble cured, as the cause has been removed.
